1. INTRODUCTION

STATISTICS

This document reports the details of 1158 individuals, of which 589 are male and 566 are female. Of the 622 individuals with recorded birth and death dates, the average lifespan was 48,6 years. Of these, 321 males averaged 49,4 years, and 301 females averaged 47,7 years.

The longest living male was Philipp Darr, who died aged 98. The longest living female was Helene Lindenberg, who died aged 100.

There are 442 families reported. 230 of these families are reported as having children, with an average of 3,7 children per family.

THE NARRATIVE SECTIONS

The "Direct Relations" section reports the details of individuals who have a direct family connection to Hans Dorringe. The section is broken into sub-sections for each generation, within which the individuals are listed in order of closeness of relationship. The sequence numbers are used throughout the document to cross-reference back to the detailed entry of an individual.

With a narrative section, each generation is shown as a separate subsection, within which the individuals are listed in order of the closeness of their relationship to Hans Dorringe.

FAMILY TREES SECTION

Each family tree shows the reported children, parents, grandparents and great-grandparents of a family group. In order to reduce redundancy, any family group which is wholly included within another family tree may not be reported separately.

Above each of the great-grandparent boxes (top row), a continuation family tree reference number is shown if the great-grandparent is recorded as a child in the continuation tree. A continuation reference number is also shown to the left of a grandparent or parent box if that individual has siblings reported in the continuation tree; and beneath a child box (bottom row) if that individual has children reported in the continuation tree.

In cases of multiple marriages, a continuation reference number preceded by "=" is shown to the right of a parent box. This number references the previous and/or next tree in which that individual is shown with another partner.

oo um 1685

Er ist der älteste bekannte seines Stammes und mindestens seit dem Jahre 1695 als Pächter des der Stadt Northeim gehörenden, vor dem Tore gelegenen Gasthauses dort wohnhaft gewesen. Bei dem Gasthause rückten diejenigen zusammen, welche nach Schluß des Tores dort ankamen. Seine Geburt ist in das Jahre 1651/52 zu setzen, da unter dem Northeimer Sterberegister 1724, 30.1. angegeben ist, daß er im Alter von 72 Jahren und etlichen Monaten gestorben ist. Anläßlich des Todes seiner Frau ist ihr damals bereits verstorbener Mann als aus "Hohnstedt" bezeichnet. Sein Geschäft scheint nicht schlecht gegangen zu sein, weil er im Trauregister bei der Heirat seiner Tochter Anna Dorothea als "vornehmer" Gastwirt bezeichnet wird. Er hat seinen Söhnen auch eine verhältnismäßig gute Schulbildung zuteil werden lassen.

Weitere Kinder:

A. Anna Dorothea Dörrie, get. am 1. 5. 1693. Paten waren der Bruder ihrer Mutter Conrad Oppermann aus Denkershausen und Jost Hentzen, des Bäckers Frau. Sie war oo l) am 21. 5. 1771 den angehenden Bürger und Handelsmann August Vosbein in Northausen und nach dessen Tode am 19. 6. 1732 mit dem Musketier Johann Georg Monkop.

B. Johann Heinrich Dörrie, get. am 18. 7. 1695, wobei Paten waren wiederum der Bruder der Mutter und die "Ölmüllersche". Seit 1724 ist er als Gutsverwalter und Forstschreiber des Ilfeldschen Stiftsgutes in Hohenebra i.Thür. nachgewiesen, etwa seit 1723 oo mit Anna Dorothee Heinsius aus Kirchberg i.Hessen, offenbar einer Schwester von Nr.13 (s.bei Nr.274/275 A). Er ist am 15. 7. 1763 in Hohenebra begraben. Von seinen 5 Kindern sind 2 Töchter früh gestorben, von den 3 Söhnen sind Nachkommen nicht bekannt.

C. Augustus Dörrie, get. am 16. 6. 1697, wobei Pate gewesen ist wiederum der Onkel Oppermann, der hier Präceptor bei dem Prediger H. Fischer genannt wird. Da seine Konfirmation nicht mehr angezeig ist, ist er wahrscheinlich früh gestorben.

D. Andreas Friedrich Dörrie. get am 19. 2. 1701. Er wird 1725, wo er einmal als Pate auftritt, als Forstschreiber zu Hohenebra bezeichnet.

E. Magdalene Elisabeth, get. am 19. 2. 1703, oo am 20. 1. 1722 mit dem Gastwirt in der Blume vor Hannoversch-Münden Johann Georg Knierieme "gewesenen Gastwirts in Landwehrhaben nachgelassenen ehelichen Sohn".

plant als Archtekt 1899 bis 1910 die Häuser Krähenberg 30 bis 36

Hans Doerry ist beim Entwurf des Hauses Lessingstraße 16 neben Hans Wening Mitunterzeichner des Bauentwurfs, vermutlich hat er das Haus entworfen, Bj. 1901/1902. Die Grundstücke Lessingstraße 15, 16 und Goethestraße 5,6,7,8 und 9 werden auf dem Lageplan als Eigentum von Hans Wening bezeichnet. Die Häuser 5,6, und 7 sind Entwürfe von Hans Doerry, Baujahre 1903 ff. , Nr. 8 unbebaut, Nr. 9 ist etwas später bebaut, vermutlich ist das Grundstück zwischenzeitlich verkauft worden. Insgesamt ist das Baugeschäft Hans Wening als Unternehmen anzusehen, dass Grundstücke kaufte, bebaute und an die Nutzer verkaufte - heute würde man das als Entwickler bezeichnen.

115. Aus Jerstedts Geschichte, III. Teil b Seite 392
Artikel: Nachrichten aus Jerstedts Schulleben
1. Anfänge bis um 1900
Seite 392
Wir lesen dann in dem "Generalverzeichnis aller jährlichen Emolumente (Einkommensteile) und sonstigen Verhältnisse der Küster-, Organisten- und Schuldienste in der Inspektion Salzgitter 1819", daß in diesem Jahre als Schullehrer in Jerstedt Georg Ludwig Nordhoff tätig war. Es wird mitgeteilt, daß er 33 Jahre alt sei, an dieser Stelle seit 9 Jahren arbeite und Frau und 4 Kinder zu ernähren habe. Von der Wohnung wird gesagt "- - - ist schlecht, und es fehlt der Schulstube an Raum; enthält außer der Schulstube eine kleine Stube und 5 Kammern. Die Schulstube bedarf einer Vergrößerung und würden die deshalbigen Kosten der Gemeinde etwa 50 Taler kosten. Gärten: - Wiesen: 3/4 Morgen, Feldland: 11 Morgen. Totalreinertrag der Stelle ohne Wohnung 129 Taler 15 Mariengroschen = 443,37 Mark. Nebenzuflüsse durch Nebenbeschäftigung: 4 Taler durch Privatunterricht." Die Besoldung wurde nicht als ausreichend empfunden. Man machte diese Vorschläge zur Verbesserung des Einkommens:
"1. Wenn Schullehrer 12 Morgen Land, 2 Morgen Wiesen und 1 Morgen Gartenland auf der Honwarde erhielte.
2. Wenn Hut und Weide vermessen und geteilt würden, wie es jetzt im Werke ist.
3. Wenn S. Majestät als Eigentümer des Gutes Grauhof dem Schullande die ehemalige Zehntfreiheit wieder schenkten.
4. Wenn die evangelischen Einwohner vergedachter Domäne, welche vormals zu Jerstedt eingepfarrt waren, gehalten würden, ihre Kinder, welche sie bald hier, bald dort uns nahe gelegene Ausland zur Schule schicken, die Jerstedter Schule zu besuchen."
Diese Anregungen hatten Erfolg. In den "Nachrichten über die Elementar-Schullehrer-Stellen in Gemäßheit des Ausschreibens des Kgl. Konsistoriums zu Hannover vom 26. September 1827" wird über Jerstedts Schule wie folgt berichtet:
Schulkinder: 120. Sie Schulstelle ist nach der Dotierung berechnet für einen eigenen Haushalt. Wohnung für einen verheirateten Lehrer. (Wörtlich hat später der Lehrer Nordhoff in Nachrichten über Jerstedt für dem Turmknopf der Kirche von dem Schulhause geschrieben: "Der hiesige Schulbau ist im Jahre 1822 unter besonders unermüdeter tätiger Aufsicht des Bauermeisters Wittig (Nr. 30), des Ackermanns Julius Ahrens (Nr. 56) und des hiesigen Tierarztes Dette (Nr. 23) angefangen und vollendet.")
Die baren Einnahmen Nordhoffs stellten sich 1827 wie folgt:
1. Schulgeld ohne etwaiges Feuerungsgeldes (jedes Kind ....zahlt jährlich 16 gute Groschen Schulgeld).....76 Taler 5 g. Gr. 4 Pf.
2. Feuerung für den Lehrer 5 Fuder.....15 " - -
3. Akzidenzien (Nebeneinkommen).....20 " - -
4. von Legaten, Zuschüssen aus öffentlichen Kassen
....und Ärarien (Staatskasse) oder von
....Schulinteressenten und Gemeinden.....9 " - - 5. Naturaleinnahmen.....3 " - -
6. Grundstücke (Garten 35 QuRth. Wiesen 90 QuRth.
....11 Morgen.....31 " - -

.....---
.....154 " 8 g. Gr. 8 Pf.
.....= 475, 95 Mark

Im Jahre 1846 stellte sich Nordhoffs Einkommen folgendermaßen:
(Schulkinder: 130, Wohnung neu und gut, Schulstube neu und genügend, etwa 750 QuFuß, also 63 qm);
1. Grundstücke 12 Morgen 18 QuRuthen
2. Feuerung: 2 Schock Wasen, 2 Fuder Tannen-Stuken, ein Reiheteil Bauholz,
3. Naturalien: 8 Brote, 8 Würste,
5. Schulgeld je Kind jährlich 16 gute Groschen und 4 gute Groschen Schreibgeld,
6. sonstige Einnahmen 31 Taler, 8 gute Groschen, 8 Pfennige
....jährliche Gesamteinnahmen 173 Taler 1 guten Groschen 8 Pfennige, umgerechnet 533,64 M.

Als im Jahre 1838 eine Reparatur des Kirchturmknopfes notwendig wurde, fand man darin ein Dokument vom Jahre 1748. Es hatte leider im Verlauf von 90 Jahren arg gelitten. Die Mitteilungen dieses Schriftstückes sind, so gut wie es möglich war, im Jerstedter Dordbuch wiedergegeben. Dazu wurde 1838 ein neues Schriftstück verfasst, das wiederum dem Turmknopf anvertraut wurde und das die Unterschrift trägt:
Jerstedt, den 5. Mai 1838.
Ludolf Nordhoff, Schullehrer; in fidem A. Köhler, Pastor,"
Es seien hier die wichtigsten Angaben sowohl jenes Dokumentes von 1748 wie auch des Schriftstückes von 1838 wiederholt und darauf hingewiesen, wo in dieser Geschichte Jerstedts bereits Nachrichten aus diesen beiden wichtigen Papieren mitgeteilt wurden.
1748: . . . . .
Weiter enthält dieses Schriftstück die Kunde, daß der Bau des Turmes unserer Kirche am 2. mai 1621, also zu Beginn des 30jährigen Krieges, angefangen wurde. Aus dieser schrecklichen Zeit, die unserer Heimat die erste große Geldentwertung brachte, war eine bleierne Dose beigefügt mit 16 schlechten Münzen der Kipper- und Wipperzeit. .....
Dieser bleiernen Dose mit den verfälschten Münzen fügte man 1838 dann noch Geldstücke hinzu, wie sie Lehrer Nordhoff in seiner Lebenszeit kennen gelernt hatte: preußische, französisch-westfälische und hannoversche; des weiteren schrieb man die Namen der Jerstedter Männer auf, die 1812 mit nach Rußland mußten und ebenso die Waterlookämpfer von 1815, die weiter oben nach diesem Verzeichnis alle genannt wurden. Damit setzte Nordhoff diesen Soldaten, deren Namen man sonst nicht mehr kennen würde, die er selbst aber alle sah und sprach und kannte, ein erstes Kriegerdenkmal in Jerstedt. Auch über den Chausseebau Eisenhütte Kunigunde - Goslar schreibt Nordhoff in seinen Nachrichten von 1838; .....

Bauermeister, so vermerkt Nordhoff, war damals der Halbspänner Julius Wittig (Nr. 30), der sich sehr für diesen straßenbau einsetzte, Beigeordnete (zu jener Zeit Vorsteher genannt) waren die beiden Ackermann Julius Ahrens (Nr. 56) und Kotsaß Kaspar Nette (Nr. 24). Jerstedt hatte 900 Einwohner wie noch ein Jahrhundert später, die Schule soll von 160 Kindern besucht worden sein, ein Schulbau war seit 1822 vollendet in einer Weise, daß er bis 1909 ohne Veränderung bestehen bleiben konnte.
Ludolf Nordhoff, der uns dies alles Mitteilte, blieb durch 47 Jahre von 1810 - 1857 - Jerstedts alleiniger Lehrer. Als Sohn des Lehrers Johann Michael Nordhoff war er am 16. Mai 1786 in Bierbergen bei Hohenhameln geboren. Seine Mutter war Katharina Elisabeth, geb. Einhorn. Die erste Frau Johanne Friederike geb. Dörrie verstarb ihm 38 jährig am 9. Dezember 1831, 8 Kinder blieben zurück. Die Tochter Henriette, geb. 1814, heiratete Johann Hennig Bosse vom Ackerhofe Nr. 3. An der Verkoppelung von Jerstedts Feldmark nahm er tätigen Anteil, so stand er ganz im Mittelpunkt des landwirtschaftlichen Dorflebens. Im Jahre 1857 wurde er auf seinen Wunsch emeritiert; er durfte aber im Schulhause weiterhin wohnen, das Konsistorium verlangte nur, daß für "Gehülfen" im Schuldienst von der Gemeinde für Wohnung und Feuerung gesorgt werde. Er bezog auch in Zukunft den größten Teil des Stelleneinkommens, behielt auch gemäß Schreibens des Konsistoriums vom 24. Oktober 1857 "das Offizium des Betglockenschlagens und des Uhraufziehens, solange derselbe die Geschäfte ordnungsmäßig besorgen werde," Nordhoff verstarb am 30. Januar 1864 im Alter von 78 Jahren. Er war ein tüchtiger Mann gewesen; sein Superintendent Rehbock in Salzgitter urteilte über ihn: "Versiehet seinen Dienst musterhaft" und bezeichnete ihn mehrfach als "einen treunen verdienten Lehrer".

Note: SS Orizaba

Builder: Jacob A. Westervelt and Company, New York. Engine: Vertical-beam by Morgan Iron Works. Cost: $241,000. Launch: January 14, 1854. Original Owner: New York-New Orleans-Vera Cruz line of Morgan and Harris. Wooden side-wheel steamer, 3 decks, 2 masts. 1,450 tons, 246 feet. Accommodations for 1,028. Fifty-six first-cabin staterooms, 30 of which were on deck with 26 opening into the main salon. The second cabin was divided into 35 staterooms, which was an innovation on the Pacific at the time of the Orizaba's arrival. In steerage there were berths for 590, and "60 standees." (Note: Unclear as to what "standees" means as of this date - that passengers had to actually stand on the journey?!) She had an icehouse with a capacity of 30 tons, tanks for 18,000 gallons of fresh water and carried four large lifeboats and two quarter boats.

The SS Orizaba, was launched in 1854 for the New York to Panama passenger business. Vanderbilt bought her and sent her to the Pacific in 1856 for his Nicaragua-San Francisco route. She made her first trip to San Francisco, where she arrived on October 30, 1856, in sixty-one days at sea from New York via Rio de Janeiro, Lota, Valparaiso, Talcahuana and San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua. She plied those waters for ten years, then was sold to the California Steam Navigation Co, then the Pacific Mail Line and, in 1875, to Goodall, Nelson and Perkins. She remained in the local coast trade between San Francisco and San Diego until 1865. Unlike many of her contemporaries, the Orizaba was a lucky ship in that she did not end up on the rocks like, but finished out her career as a coastwise liner, serving ports from San Francisco to San Diego until retired in 1877.

hier handelt sich wohl um die Erfassung der Schiffsbesatzung der P.M.S.S. Colima.
Die Einträge beginnen mit dem Kapitän und erfassen alle Schiffsleute Es steht zwar auf der Titelseite nicht explicit der Schiffsname, da aber Henry Dorry im Jahr 1880 mit Wohnung auf P.M.S.S. Colima gemeldet ist, ist dies sehr wahrscheinlich.

Die Sundhäuser Lehrer,
früher genannt Schuldiener, Schulmeister, Kantoren, Schulleiter, Hauptlehrer und Schuldirektoren bis 1671 - Schröter
1671 - 1680 - Heinrich Große
1680 - 1690 - Martin Matthias

1680 wurde Martin Matthiä Schuldiener oder Kantor oder Lehrer in Sundhausen. Er war hier bis 1704, also 24 Jahre im Amte, d.h. bis zu seinem Tode. Bei jedem Begräbnis mußte er mit den Schulkindern am Grabe singen. 1680 brach in Nordhausen die Pest aus. Im April 1681 soll jemand, wahrscheinlich ein Knecht der Sundhäuser Schäferei, eine Kette in Nordhausen gekauft und durch sie die Pest nach Sundhausen gebracht haben zum Schafmeister Wenkel in die Schäferei. Da erkrankte die Dienstmagd und starb am 7.4.1681. Am 24.4. starben zwei Söhne des Schäfers, am 27.4. seine Ehefrau und ein Knecht, am 30.4. sein dritter Sohn, am 6.5. die jüngste Tochter und am 9.5. noch ein Sohn und der Schafmeister Wenkel selber. Jetzt weigerte man sich, die Toten auf dem Kirchhof zu bestatten, weil sich die Kirchgänger fürchteten, sie könnten sich anstecken. So begrub man die letzten drei Toten im Garten der Schäferei. Aber der Totengräber gab sich nicht dazu her. Da ließ sich der mutige Hans Apel als Pesttotengräber werben. Der Schuldiener war bei jeder Beerdigung zugegen gewesen und hatte die Schulkinder singen lassen am Grabe.
1682 mußte er seine drei Kinder und seine Frau hergeben. Seine Seine Kirchenbucheintragungen lauteten: "Am 14.5.1682 ist mein Töchterlein Barbara im Herrn selig entschlafen, 7 Jahre 3 Wochen 3 Stunden alt. Gott verleihe dem Körper in der Erden eine sanfte Ruhe und am jüngsten Tage eine fröhliche Auferstehung zum ewigen Leben". 5 Tage darauf stirbt sein Sohn Johann Georg, was er auch mit großem Schmerz notiert, und dann schreibt er: "Den 3.6.1682 ist mein Töchterlein, darauf meine herzige, liebe Hausfrau selig verschieden. Den ersten heiligen Pfingsttag sind beide christlich miteinander begraben. Gott verleihe ihnen eine sanfte Ruhe und fröhliche Auferstehung zum ewigen Freudenleben. Amen." In der Pestzeit tauft er selbst ein Kind, da kein Priester zu haben war. Eine andere Taufe wurde wegen des ansteckenden Pesthauches nicht in der Kirche, sondern "am Wasser bei der Weide" vollzogen. Lehrer Matthiä hat das große Sterben überstanden.

1690 - 1704 - Johann Gottlob Ladesack
1704 - 1737 -Johann Andreas Ladesack

Matthiäs Nachfolger im Schulamt in Sundhausen war der Schuldiener Ladesack. Er wurde 1678 in Windehausen geboren und 1706 in Bilzingsleben getraut. Für das Jahr 1711 trägt er ins Kirchenbuch ein: "Sind 9 Kinder in diesem Jahre getauft, 5 Knaben und 4 Mägdelein, worunter ein Paar Zwillinge." 1708 schreibt er: "Dem Schuldiener Johann Andreas Ladesack ist sein erstes Töchterlein den 27. Januar nachmittag 2 Uhr zur Welt geboren und am 31. getauft worden." Seine Kirchenbuchführung versah er seit 1720 lückenhaft, deshalb übernahm sie der Pfarrer. Ladesack starb 58 Jahre alt am 4. Weihnachtstag 1736. Er kam 1704 nach Sundhausen.

{\b 1737 - 1751 - Johann Nikolaus Stein}

Auf Ladesack folgte {\b 1737 Kantor und Schuldiener Johann Nikolaus Stein}. Er stammte aus Günzerode und wurde am 9.5.1743 mit Jungfrau Maria Magdalena Dörrgen, der ältesten Tochter des Herrn Konrad Heinrich Dörrgen, des Sundhäuser Ilfeldschen Stiftsgutes Verwalter, nach dreimaliger Proklamation zusammengegeben. Aber seine Frau starb schon am 3.6.1747 nach der Geburt eines Knaben in Kindsnöten. Er heiratete am 7.11.1747 Dorothea Margareta Schäfer, die älteste Tochter des hiesigen Pfarrers Schäfer. Er starb am 31.12.1752 an Schwindsucht. Seine Frau gebiert nach seinen Tode noch ein Töchterchen

382. Der typische Werdegang eines Pfarrers der alten Zeit [beginnend einige Jahrzehnte nach der Reformation]
verlief etwa folgendermaßen. Auf den Besuch einer Lateinschule folgte das Studium auf einer Universität. Eine Abschlußprüfung gab es nicht, das Abiturientenexamen wurde in Preußen erst durch Erlaß vom 23. Dezember 1788 eingeführt. Wittenberg war anfänglich die besuchteste Universität, bis von dem Großen Kurfürsten am 21. August 1662 ihr Besuch für alle diejenigen verboten wurde, die in Brandenburg ein Pfarramt begehrten . An ihre Stelle traten Frankfurt, Jena, Leipzig, vereinzelt auch Rostock, Greifswald und Königsberg, bis unter dem König Friedrich Wilhelm I. der Besuch von Halle obligatorisch wurde.

Nach Beendigung des Studiums, das häufig durch den Erwerb des Magistertitels, M., abgeschlossen wurde, wurde der junge Theologe entweder Hauslehrer in einer angesehenen, meist adeligen Familie, Informator, oder er nahm eine Lehrerstelle an einer Lateinschule an. Der Leiter einer solchen Schule war der Schulmeister, Ludimoderator, die anderen Lehrer waren die Schulgesellen. Allmählich setzte sich für den Leiter der Titel Rektor durch, die anderen waren seine Schulkollegen unter mannig faltigsten Titeln: Konrektor, Prorektor, Subrektor, Subkonrektor, Kantor, Auditor, Signator, Tertianus, Quartus, Quintus, Baccalaureus, Infimus. Einige Gymnasien verdienen eine besondere Erwähnung. In Berlin das Gymnasium zum Grauen Kloster und das Köllnische Gymnasium, seit etwa 1650 das Joachimsthalsche und das Friedrich-Werdersche Gymnasium, in Brandenburg die Ritterakademie, die v. Saldernsche Schule, Saldria genannt, und das Stadtgymnasium, in Halle das Gymnasium bei den Frankeschen Stiftungen, die Latina.
Der Schuldienst dauerte so lange, bis es gelang, die Vokation zu einer Pfarrstelle zu erhalten. Dann erfolgte die Prüfung vor dem Konsistorium, die Bestätigung durch den Landesherrn, Konfirmation, die Ordination durch den Generalsuperintendenten, endlich die Einführung in das Amt , die Introduktion, durch den Superintendenten, der bis zum 28. August 1806 den Titel Inspektor führte.
Wurde ein Pfarrer dienstunfähig, dann nahm er sich einen Adjunkten zur Hilfe, der ihm ein Drittel des Gehalts als Pension zahlen und freie Wohnung gewähren mußte. Man unterschied Adjunkten sine spe succedendi [ohne Aussicht auf -] und Adjunkten cum spe succedendi [mit Aussicht auf Nachfolge im Amt]. Erstere sind hier [im Pfarrerbuch] als Hilfsprediger, letztere als Pfarrer und Amtsnachfolger angeführt.

Magens Dorrien Magens 1796-1812

Bei Henry Schiffner, Sir John Duntze, den beiden Barings und John Angerstein handelte es sich um die zweite Generation der Einwanderer, bei den Vansittars, Magens Dorrien Magens und George Shum-Storey um die dritte Generation.

Mehrere Mitglider der Familien Dörrien aus Hildesheim und Bremen waren Ende des 17. bzw. im frühen 18. Jahrhundert eingewandert. Magens Dorrien Magens war der Sohn von John Dorrien. Den Namen Magens hatte er von seinem Onkel Nicholas Magens aus Hamburg, dem großen Armeelieferanten angenommen, dessen Vermögen er geerbt hatte.

3. Die Einlagen bei beiden Gesellschaften [Bank of England und EIC] nutzten Kaufleute und wohlhabende Bürger auch als langfristige Sparanlage.
So z.B. das Konto von Frederick Dorrien zwischen 1709 und 1720; 1709 besaß er Anteile im Wert von Pf[und] 2 550, und zwei Jahre später hatte er sie auf Pf 9 550 aufgestockt. Diese Summe blieb unverändert in den Büchern der Bank von England bis 1720. In dem Jahr reduzierte er vorübergehend seine Einlage auf Pf 550 und erhöhte dann auf Pf 3 550.

A BALL AT HAMMERWOOD - Monday, 16 February 1824 Upon the coming of age of John Dorrien-Magens

In the evening, soon after nine o'clock, the bonfires on the hills in the park were lighted, which, with some rockets thrown up, were seen for a considerable distance round the county. The company invited to the ball began to assemble soon after, the exterior of the house being brilliantly illuminated in red and white lamps, and surmounted by a grand flag. The eastern pavilion was converted into a tasteful ornamental tent, in which the hostess received her visitors; the staircase, hall, and dancing-room being beautifully decorated with wreaths of natural and artificial flowers, amidst a dazzling blaze of light. Mr. Listolff's band struck up soon after ten, when the Ball was opened with a Quadrille by Mr. J. Magens and Lady Harriet Neville, Lord Sheffield and Lady Mary Pelham, the Hon. Mr. Rice and Lady Anne Holroyd, Mr. Orde and Miss Anne Magens, etc., etc.. The dancing was continued with great animation till twelve o'clock, when a magnificent display of fireworks took place, conducted by Mr. Hengler; this part of the entertainment afforded much delight to upwards of a thousand of the country people assembled on the occasion, whose behaviour, though animated and joyous, was perfectly decorous and orderly. At half past one the folding doors of the great library were thrown open, and produced a most enchanting and cheerful effect; the room was splendidly illuminated by festoons of lamps and fitted up with orange and lemon trees, and various exotics and flowers as a conservatory. The supper was of the most elegant description, and consisted of soups, abundance of hot game and poultry, and every other delicacy the season would afford; the wines were in great profusion and of the choicest flavour. Covers were laid for over 200 persons, for all of whom ample room was provided in the library and dining- room. The health of Mr. J. Magens was drunk with enthusiasm, and after a few short but appropriate speeches, the party returned to the ball room, where waltzes and quadrilles were resumed, and kept up till a late hour, the rooms not being cleared till six o'clock in the morning. The whole entertainment was under the direction of Mr. Gunter, whose arrangements gave the highest satisfaction.

The Dorrien Magens coat of arms is noted in heraldic circles as it contains the only examples of the Cross Hamecon.

Three generations of this enterprising family enjoyed living at Hammerwood and they finally sold the house in the mid-1860s to another banker.

Übersetzung
Ein BALL AUF HAMMERWOOD - Montag, 16. Februar 1824 Nach der Volljährigkeit von John Dorrien-Magens

Am Abend, kurz nach neun Uhr, wurden die Lagerfeuer auf den Hügeln im Park angezündet, die mit hochgeschossenen Raketen über weite Strecken um die Grafschaft herum gesehen wurden. Das zum Ball eingeladene Unternehmen begann sich bald darauf zu versammeln, wobei die Außenseite des Hauses mit roten und weißen Lampen brillant beleuchtet und von einer großen Flagge bekrönt wurde. Der östliche Pavillon wurde in ein geschmackvolles Zierzelt verwandelt, in dem die Gastgeberin ihre Besucher empfing; Treppenhaus, Halle und Tanzsaal waren wunderschön mit Kränzen aus natürlichen und künstlichen Blumen geschmückt, inmitten einer schillernden Lichterglut. Mr. Listolffs Band machte kurz nach zehn Uhr auf, als der Ball mit einer Quadrille von Mr. J. Magens und Lady Harriet Neville, Lord Sheffield und Lady Mary Pelham, Hon. Mr. Rice und Lady Anne Holroyd, Mr. Orde und Miss Anne Magens, etc. eröffnet wurde.... Der Tanz wurde mit großartiger Animation bis zwölf Uhr fortgesetzt, als unter der Leitung von Herrn Hengler eine großartige Feuerwerksshow stattfand; dieser Teil der Unterhaltung bereitete auf über tausend der zu diesem Anlass versammelten Landbewohner viel Freude, deren Verhalten, obwohl belebt und fröhlich, vollkommen anständig und ordentlich war. Um halb eins wurden die Falttüren der großen Bibliothek geöffnet und erzeugten einen bezaubernden und fröhlichen Effekt; der Raum wurde von Leuchtkörpern herrlich beleuchtet und mit Orangen- und Zitronenbäumen sowie verschiedenen Exoten und Blumen als Wintergarten ausgestattet. Das Abendessen war von der elegantesten Beschreibung und bestand aus Suppen, reichlich heißem Wild und Geflügel und jeder anderen Delikatesse, die sich die Jahreszeit leisten konnte; die Weine waren in großer Fülle und von bestem Geschmack. Es wurden Abdeckungen für über 200 Personen gelegt, für die in der Bibliothek und im Esszimmer ausreichend Platz zur Verfügung stand. Die Gesundheit von Herrn J. Magens war von Begeisterung erfüllt, und nach ein paar kurzen, aber angemessenen Reden kehrte die Gruppe in den Ballsaal zurück, wo Walzer und Quadrillen wieder aufgenommen wurden, und blieb bis zu einer späten Stunde wach, wobei die Räume erst um sechs Uhr morgens geräumt wurden. Die gesamte Unterhaltung stand unter der Leitung von Herrn Gunter, dessen Arrangements die höchste Zufriedenheit brachten.

Das Wappen von Dorrien Magens wird in heraldischen Kreisen vermerkt, da es die einzigen Beispiele des Kreuzes Hamecon enthält. Drei Generationen dieser unternehmungslustigen Familie genossen das Leben in Hammerwood und verkauften das Haus schließlich Mitte der 1860er Jahre an einen anderen Bankier.

408. Dörrien-Magen in Hammerwood Lodge
Dörrien-Magen in Hammerwood Lodge
THE DORRIEN MAGENS family were descended from two banking families and by 1798 were supplying silver bullion to the Royal Mint for the production of shillings. At this time they lived at Hammerwood; Magens Dorrien Magens lived with his wife (n,e Lady Henrietta Rhys, at Hammerwood Lodge (as it was then called) and it seems that his brother, General Dorrien Magens, occupied Thornhill, next door. Magens Dorrien Magens proved an interesting character, who, due to the threat of the Napoleonic invasion of 1803 was instrumental in the setting up of a volunteer force of over 1000 men to act as 'Home Guard'. He was a leading London banker and MP for Carmarthen. He died in 1848, leaving Hammerwood to his son, John Dorrien Magens, who is remembered for being the man responsible for the connexion of East Grinstead to the railway system at Three Bridges in 1855. He was chairman of the local railway company until 1865, when it was purchased by the Brighton Line and extended to Tunbridge Wells.

Die Familie der DORRIEN MAGENS stammte aus zwei Bankfamilien und lieferte bis 1798 Silberbarren an die Königliche Münze zur Herstellung von Schillingen. Zu dieser Zeit lebten sie in Hammerwood; Magens Dorrien Magens lebte mit seiner Frau (n'e Lady Henrietta Rhys, in der Hammerwood Lodge (wie sie damals genannt wurde) und es scheint, dass sein Bruder, General Dorrien Magens, Thornhill besetzte, nebenan. Magens Dorrien Magens erwies sich als interessanter Charakter, der aufgrund der Bedrohung durch die napoleonische Invasion von 1803 maßgeblich dazu beitrug, eine Freiwilligentruppe von über 1000 Männern als "Hauswache" aufzubauen. Er war ein führender Londoner Bankier und Abgeordneter für Carmarthen. Er starb 1848 und überließ Hammerwood seinem Sohn John Dorrien Magens, der 1855 als Verantwortlicher für die Anbindung von East Grinstead an das Eisenbahnnetz an Three Bridges bekannt ist. Er war Vorsitzender der örtlichen Eisenbahngesellschaft bis 1865, als sie von der Brighton Line gekauft und bis nach Tunbridge Wells verlängert wurde.

In dem Turm wohnte der Brückenwärter, welcher zugleich den Zoll einnahm. Neben dem Küheturme stand auch ein Wirtshaus, welches den Namen Rücking führte. Der Name dieses Wirtshauses, welcher in den bis 1650 hinauf reichenden hiesigen Kirchenbüchern auffallender Weise viele Jahre hindurch immer Rückin (ohne g) geschrieben ist, wird schon im Anfange des 15. Nach einem Auszuge des Senators Fricke aus dem städtischen Bauamts-Register ist schon im Jahre 1409 "de grave twischen der Steinbrüggen /Brücke über den Mühlenkanal) und dem Rücking gesüwert und vernewet"; ebenso in der Folgezeit. Im Jahre 1432 wurden dafür 19 Solidi bezahlt. Wann das jetzige Rückingsgebäude erbauet ist, läßt sich aus den vorhandenen städtischen Akten nicht genau ersehen. Ursprünglich scheinen keine nennenswerten Nebengebäude dabeigewesen zu sein ....

Kleine Mitteilungen
Helmstedter Stammbuch. In die Zeiten des großen Alchimisten und Helmstedter Universitätsprofessors Beireis, die Blütezeit von Helmstedt (Helmathen) versetzt uns ein Stammbuch aus dem Nachlaß des bekannten Mediziners und Romanschriftstellers Dr. Hermann Klenke (1813-1881) zu Hannover. Die Eintragungen sind - bis auf wenige Ausnahmen, in denen unten die Jahreszahlen angegeben sind - in den Jahren 1754 und 1755 erfolgt und zwar von Studierenden, Lehrern der Universität und auch einigen anderen Personen. Das Studium und die Heimatorte sind größtenteils vermerkt. Das Buch enthält einige Stiche und ein Aquarell, letzteres das Studentenleben auf dem Markte vor der Julia Carolina darstellend. Vielfach sind Verse im Stil der damaligen Zeit, zum Teil in etwas rauhem Studententon, eingetragen. Der ursprüngliche Inhaber des Buches hat sich nicht feststellen lassen. Wahrscheinlich hat es ein Mitglied der bekannten Thüringer Familien Crell oder Appelius, denen die Ehefrau des Dr. Klencke entstammte, angelegt. Die in dem Buche enthaltenen Namen sind nachstehend alpabetisch aufgeführt:

491. Grabrede Georg Heinrich Kypke 1908
zum Andenken seines verehrten Chronisten Pastor em. Heinrich Kypke, gewidmet vom Verbande der Familien Lenz - Lentz - Lentze
Gedenkblatt zum Andenken seines verehrten Chronisten
Pastor em. Heinrich Kypke
gewidmet vom Verbande der Familien
Lenz - Lentz - Lentze
In den Nachmittagsstunden des 26. Oktober geleiteten wir auf dem Südfriedhof in Halle a. S. unsern teueren hochgeehrten Lenz-Chronisten zur letzten Ruhe. Es war eine schmerzliche Trennungsstunde, denn den meisten unter uns, selbst den näheren Angehörigen, kam die Kunde von seinem Hinscheiden sehr überraschend. Noch in diesem Sommer hatte er mit besonderer Frische am Familientage in Berlin teilgenommen (am 30. 5. 1908). Bei dieser Gelegenheit wurde die vorstehende Aufnahme hergestellt, die den liebenswürdigen alten Herrn mit seiner werten Gattin wohlgetroffen wiedergibt. Auch in Schreiberhau, wo er sich drei Monate lang bis Ende Sept. aufhielt, um seiner Tochter in Haus Hochstein zur Seite zu stehen, hatte er sich körperlich - meist recht wohl gefühlt. Und nun dies schnelle Ende !
Die Ursache war eine heftige Darmentzündung, der der geschwächte Körper nicht mehr Widerstand zu leisten vermochte - und die schon nach 10 bis 12 Tagen das Ende herbeiführte. Am 22. Oktober vormittags 1/4 10 Uhr hatte das treue Herz zu schlagen aufgehört.
Nun standen wir an seinem Grabe. Es war kein grauer Herbsttag, sondern die freundliche Herbstsonne tauchte alles ringsum in goldenen Schein. Auch den Sarg mit seinem Blumenschmuck, auch die ernste Trauerversammlung am Grabe. Zwei Brüder des Entschlafenen, die beiden Brüder der Witwe, die verheirateten Töchter und die Schwiegersöhne hatten sich - zum Teil von weither - eingefunden, um der gebeugten Witwe und der Tochter beizustehen. In langem Zuge schlossen sich die übrigen Leidtragenden an, die dem Toten ihre Liebe und Dankbarkeit zum letzten Mal bezeugen wollten. Auch der Lenz-Verband hatte drei Abgeordnete entsandt, die einen Kranz mit Widmungsschleife am Sarge niederlegten. Wir glauben aber auch darüber hinaus eine Pflicht der Dankbarkeit zu erfüllen, wenn wir in unserem "Lenzgarten" ein kurzes Lebens- und Charakterbild des Entschlafenen geben.
Georg Heinrich Kypke (1838 - 1908), wurde am 3. April 1838 als dritter Sohn des Pastors Karl Kypke in Rossow bei Freienwalde i. P. geboren. Er hat, um mit den Worten der Bibel zu reden, sein Joch schon in der Jugend getragen, denn es wuchsen noch 12 Geschwister neben ihm heran, und die Einkünfte des Vaters, der 1842 sein Pfarramt aufgab, um sich ganz der Leitung einer Privatschule zu widmen, sind immer nur sehr bescheiden gewesen. Aber das hat auch dazu beigetragen, seinen Charakter zu stählen und ihn zu jener Gewissenhaftigkeit und Sparsamkeit zu erziehen, die ihn zeitlebens nicht verlassen hat. Als er mit 14 Jahren auf das Marienstiftsgymnasium in Stettin kam, erteilte er die ersten Privatstunden für 6 Pf. und war überglücklich, wenn er am Ende des Monats 15 Silbergroschen dafür bekam. Nachdem er in Berlin studiert und in Stettin seine beiden Prüfungen bestanden hatte, verwaltete er von 1864 - 71 das Pfarramt in Basenthin bei Naugard. Dort führte er auch im ersten Amtsjahre seine Gattin Klara geb. Lenz, Tochter des Dup. G. Lenz in Wangerin heim. In Basenthin wurden ihm fünf Kinder geboren, von denen nach die älteste Tochter Maria lebt. Von 1871 - 79 war er Pfarrer in Naseband bei Neu-Stettin.. Bei seinem Eifer, mit dem er alles angriff, hatte er hier reichliche Arbeit. Das große Kirchspiel mit seinen oft grundlosen Wegen machte aber doch derartige Anforderungen an seine Kraft und Gesundheit, daß er sich trotz aller Liebe, die ihm von den Gemeinden und Patronen entgegengebracht wurde, nach einer günstigeren Stelle umsehen mußte. So kam er 1879 nach Büche bei Stargard und hat hier noch 15 Jahre im Segen gewirkt. Erst 56jährig, mußte er 1894 um seine Pensionierung bitten, weil er infolge eines chronischen Bronchialkatarrhs, den er sich nach einer starken Influenza zugezogen hatte, den Anforderungen des Amtes nicht mehr genügen konnte. Er zog mit seiner Familie nach Schreiberhau, um dort ein christliches Logierhaus, das "Pensionat zum Hochstein" zu übernehmen. Im Jahre 1901 gelang es, das Haus, dessen Besitz mit vielen Sorgen und Verlusten verbunden war, günstig zu verkaufen und nun siedelte er mit seiner Gattin und der ältesten Tochter - die beiden jüngeren hatten sich inzwischen verheiratet, beide an Pastoren - nach Halle über, woselbst seine Gattin von ihrer Jugendzeit her viele Beziehungen hatte. Dort haben sie ihn nun aus seinem freundlichen Heim am Moritzzwinger hinweggetragen und zur ewigen Ruhe gebettet.
Niemand, der längere oder kürzere Zeit im Hause Kypke weilte, konnte sich dem wohltuenden Eindruck der dort waltenden Harmonie entziehen. Das kam daher, daß im Hause Kypke ein schönes, inniges Familienleben herrschte, das seinen Zauber auf jeden ausübte, der über seine Schwelle trat. Vater Kypke war auch unter den Seinen ein echter pater familias, wie es wenige gibt. Wer dort hinkam - und es sind unzählige Menschen in seinem gastfreien Hause eingekehrt - der spürte bald, daß er "wie zu Hause" war. Im Hause Kypke wehte eine reine Luft und waltete ein froher Sinn.
Der Entschlafene wußte auch, wo die Quellen dieser Kraft lagen. Er selbst war ein Bild lauterer, ungeheuchelter Frömmigkeit. Und weil er ein wahrhaft frommer Mensch war, war er von einer unendlichen Dankbarkeit gegen Gott und Menschen. Dankbare menschen sind zumeist auch frohe menschen. Bezeichnend für seine Gesinnung sind die ersten Worte des "Altersliedes", das sich in seinem Nachlaß fand:
"Was ist die größte Kunst aus Erden ? Mit frohem Herzen alt zu werden!"
Gott hat ihm sehr viel zu tragen gegeben. Von 10 Kindern - in Naseband wurden noch fünf geboren - starben ihm sechs im Kindesalter und den letzten Sohn mußte er in Schreiberhau im Alter von 24 Jahren zu Grabe tragen. Zudem war Haus Hochstein, das Fräulein Maria Kypke wieder in der gerichtlichen Versteigerung zugefallen war, ein schwerer Sorgenstein bis in seine letzten Tage. Aber mit demütigem, geduldigem Sinn, trug er, was ihm Gott auferlegt, und wo andere verzagten, da behielt er allein seine geduldige, frohe Zuversicht.
Für seine Person von der größten Anspruchslosigkeit hat er nichts für sich begehrt; sein Sinn stand nach besseren Dingen, als nach Ehre und Auszeichnung. Und weil er Not und Sorge aus eigener langer Erfahrung kannte, darum schlug sein Herz für die Bedürftigen und Bedrückten. Er half gern und gab mit offenen Händen, oft über seine Verhältnisse hinaus. Dank seinem eifrigen Bemühen entstand 1887 in Marienfließ, einem seiner Filialdörfer, ein Heimathaus für vereinsamte, altersschwache Pfarrtöchter. Er war ein warmer Freund der inneren und äußeren Mission und aller Bestrebungen zur Linderung leiblicher und sittlicher Not.
Als der Burenkrieg entbrannte, packte ihn die Begeisterung für das Heldenvolk, das für seine Freiheit stritt und litt und er schrieb ein volkstümliches Buch "Ernstes und Heiteres aus dem Burenlande und -Kriege", das mit zahlreichen Abbildungen geschmückt war und 11 Auflagen erlebt hat.

Zur Schriftstellerei zog ihn überhaupt von jeher eine starke Neigung. Seine Gabe lag hauptsächlich auf den Gebieten der Volkserzählung und der Familiengeschichte. Sie hatte ihre Schranken und über das, was ihm gegeben war, hat er nie hinausgewollt. Aber eben innerhalb der Grenzen seiner Begabung hat er Tüchtiges geleistet. Seine sogar ins Schwedische und Dänische übersetzte, heute allerdings veraltete "Missionsgeschichte für das christliche Volk", seine "Bilder aus dem Marienfließer Klosterleben", seine "Denkwürdigkeiten aus dem Leben des Freiheitskämpfers und Glaubensstreiter W. Ribbeck" legen davon Zeugnis ab. - Seine Familienchroniken vollends sind ware Muster von Gründlichkeit und Zuverlässigkeit. Nachdem er schon in den 80er Jahren "Die Geschichte des Geschlechts derer von Kleist" bearbeitet hatte, wofür ihm noch nach seinem Tode der Dank des v. Kleist'schen Familien-Verbandes in Gestalt eines warmen Nachrufes in der "Kreuz-Zeitung" zuteil wurde, gab er 1900 eine "Kurze Chronik der Familie Kypke" heraus. Als Verfasser der Lenz-Chronik hat er sich bei allen Gliedern der großen Lenz - Lentze - Lentz - Familie ein bleibendes Denkmal gesetzt. Nur wer dabei gewesen, wie dies werk entstand und vollendet wurde, kann ermessen, welche enorme Arbeit darin steckt. Hier kam seine zähe, durch kein Hindernis zu ermüdende Ausdauer, seine Treue und Gewissenhaftigkeit in der Bewältigung eines ungeheuren, vielfach recht trockenen Stoffes glänzend zur Geltung.
Ein treuer Mann von lauterem, frommen Charakter ist von uns geschieden, ein Mann, der, wie an seinem Grabe bezeugt wurde, zu den wenigen Menschen gehörte, die keine Feinde haben. Er hat viel Liebe gesät und viel Liebe geatmet. Sein Gedächtnis wird bei allen, die ihm nahe gestanden und ihn geliebt haben und darüber hinaus bei der ganzen, großen Lenz-Familie unvergessen bleiben.
Er ruhe in Frieden !

murdered 27 Apr 1701 in his bedchamber at the house of Messrs. Georg Stein and Herman Frederick Dorrien in London, by his one-time friend and fellow apprentice, Herman Strodtman; buried 2 May 1701 > "d 02 05 1701 WOLTERS Peter; of Hamborough; living with Mr. Stein & Dorryen ermordet am 27. April 1701 in seinem Schlafzimmer im Haus der Firma Georg Stein und Herman Frederick Dorrien in London, von seinem ehemaligen Freund und Lehrling-Kollegen Herman Strodtman; begraben am 2. Mai 1701
---
Herman Strodtman wurde am 18. Juni 1701 executiert.

HERMAN STRODTMAN wurde vor dem Old Bailey angeklagt, auf drei verschiedenen Anklageschriften. Die erste war für den Mord an Peter Wolter, seinen Mitlehrling, am 27. April 1701:
die zweite, zum Aufbrechen des Hauses der Herren Stein und Dorien und des Diebstahls einer Uhr und anderen Dingen aus dem Eigentum des Peter Wolter, und der dritte für den Diebstahl von Taucher Waren aus dem Eigentum von Herman Frederick Dorrien, die er am Tag vorher erwähnt.

Die Aussage von Hermann Strodtman:
"... Um das Jahr 1694, schickte mich mein Vater zur Schule nach Lübeck, wo ich bis Michaeli 1698 fortgesetzt war. Von dort ging ich nach Hamburg, und von dort setzte ich mich auf den Weg nach England. Ich kam nach London im März (zusammen mit einem Peter Wolter, der mit mir nach England kam), war Lehrling bei Herrn Stein und Herrn Dorien, Händler und Partner in London. Peter Wolter und ich waren Mitreisende, werden jetzt zusammen Lehrlinge und lebten seit einiger Zeit sehr freundlich und liebevoll miteinander, bis etwa August letzten Jahres, als seine Schwester mit einem unserer Meister verheiratet war, Mr. Dorien. ....".

519. Informationen zum Gastwirt Johan Henrich Dörry
Johann Henrich Dörrie tritt ab 1693 als neuer Pächter des Gasthauses auf dem Rücking auf. Das Gasthaus auf dem Rücking stand in unmittelbarer Verbindung mit dem Küheturm, in dem der Toraufseher wohnt.
Der Küheturm ist der städtische Wartturm an der Langen Brücke. Als städtisches Gasthaus war der Rücking mit allen Gerechtsamen, einschließlich Branntwein- und Weinausschank, ausgestattet. Mit ihm war eine große Ackerwirtschaft verbunden; bis zu 70 Morgen hatte der Wirt unter dem Pfluge. Durch die Lage an der großen Nord-Süd-Strasse hatte der Wirt von den Frachtfuhrleuten eine gute Einnahme.

Im biographischen Buch von Joachim Ringelnatz - im Jahre 1931 verfasst -, beschreibt Ringelnatz im Kapitel "Auf der Presse", worin wohl das Gymnasium in Bromberg gemeint sein soll, auf Seite 46 seine Begegnung mit dem "jüngeren Dr. Dörry". Dieser unterrichtet zu jener Zeit 1898 bis 1900 im Fach "Geometrisches Zeichnen". Ringelnatz machte 1901 dort sein Examen. "Dr. Dörry" hat ihm als Lehrer sehr imponiert. Vielleicht rührt daher sein späteres Pseudonym "Hans Dörry", unter dem er Werke veröffentlicht.

Der Verstorbene war geboren zu Güstrow, wo sein Vater, Christian Friedrich P. (geb. am 20. Nov. 1737, gest. am 4. Mai 1816), Besitzer der Schloß-Apotheke war. Seine Mutter, des vaters zweite Gattin, war Karoline Sophie Georgine, Tochter des Kantors Dörri zu Friedland in Mecklenburg-Strelitz. Nach viollendetem neunten Lebensjahre (Weihnacht 1800) ward der junge Karl mit seinem einzigen rechten Bruder Johann (+ 1845) in das Gymnasium (gewöhnlich Domschule genannt) seiner Geburtsstadt gethan. Er genoß hier, besonders unter der Leitung der Professoren Fuchs und Besser den Unterricht bis Sekunda. Neben dem Gymnasial-Unterrichte besuchte er auch mehrere Jahre hindurch die Gesangschule des damaligen Organisten Fischer, eines tüchtigen Tonkünstlers, der nach Kräften bemüht war, den trefflichen Tenor des jungen P. auszubilden. Zu Michaelis 1807 ging P. aus Sekunda ab, um sich dem Handel und der Kaufmannschaft zu widmen. Der Vater gab ihn in das Manufakturgeschäft von J. C. Schlüter nach Stralsund, welcher Stadt er von da ab ununterbrochen, also über 43 Jahre, angehört hat. Nachdem er sich im Detail-Geschäft ausgebildet, trat er in das Komtoir des Sohnes seines bisherigen Principals, J. D. Schlüter, über, wo er bis 1816 verblieb. Während dieser Zeit war er Geschäfte halber geraume Zeit in Gothenburg, wo er mit dem bekannten August Binzer, der damals ebenfalls Komptoirist war, innige Freundschaft schloß, zu der die Gesanglust Beider den nächsten Anlaß gab. Noch im Sommer des J. 1816 ward er Bürger und verheirathete sich am 12. Sept. desselben Jahres mit Jungfrau Johanna Hermine Reimer, Tochter des Rathsverwandten R. daselbst. Nach einer fast 17jährigen glücklichen Ehe starb ihm diese Lebensgefährtin am 27. Jan. 1833. Nachmals verheirathete er sich wieder am 2. Okt. 1835 mit Jungfrau Franziska Adolphine Sager, der jüngsten Tochter des Leibmedikus Dr. Sager. P. erfreute sich im Ganzen einer kräftigen Gesundheit; allein seit dem J. 1845 litt er lebensgefährlich und rang mit dem Tode. Aber der dreijährige Gebrauch der kissinger und brückenauer Heilquellen und seine natürliche, ihm innewohnende Heilkraft bereiteten ihm eine so glückliche Genesung, daß er in seinen letzten Lebensjahren in gewohnter Frische und Kraft wieder dastand, bis ihm im Frühlinge des J. 1851 auf's neue Krankheit und vielfache Gemüthsbewegung ein tödtliches Leiden zuzog, dem er nach wiederholten Anfällen nach kurzem Kampfe erlag. Am Morgen des 22. Aug. wurden seine irdischen Ueberreste nach dem Knieper Kirchhofe hinausgeleitet zu ihrer letzten Ruhestätte, wo der vieljährige Freund des Verstorbenen, Pastor Tamms, ihm die Grabrede hielt, vor und nach welcher gesangkundige Freunde ihm zur Liebe und Ehre Lieder sangen.

P. war nicht nur ein gewandter, feingebildeter Kaufmann und rastlos thätiger Geschäftsmann, sondern auch ein Freund und Beförderer der Kunst und alles Schönen, ein treuer, theilnehmender Freund, ein liebender Gatte, ein christlichgesinnter Menschenfreund, ein heiterer aufgeweckter Gesellschafter, der Jedem mit Vertrauen entgegenkam, und dem jeder Unbefangene sich auch leicht anschloß. Zwei Seiten in seinem Leben sind es aber besonders, die eine nähere Betrachtung verdienen: sein Gesang und seine Theilnahme am neuvorpommerschen Kunstverein. Der Heimgegangene besaß eine Tenorstimme, wie sie nur selten gehört wird. Er hat, besonders seit dem J. 1816, Viele mit dieser herrlichen Gabe erfreut. Er verband mit dem schönen Metall seiner Stimme eine seltene Biegsamkeit derselben, so daß er auch, von einem feinen Ohre unterstützt, schwierige Passagen mit Leichtigkeit sang. Wenn er, der kein Insstrument spielte, von seinem 18. Jahre an gründliche Gesangs- und überhaupt eine musukalische Ausbildung erhalten hätte, so würde er ohne Zweifel ein Tenorsänger geworden seyn, der Deutschland mit seinem Ruhme erfüllt hätte. Der selige Münchmeyer, braver Bassist, entdeckte bald das ausgezeichnete Talent des jungen P. und bildete mit ihm und noch zwei Freunden ein treffliches Männer-Quartett. Dasselbe stellte sich im J. 1824 an die Spitze des stralsunder ersten Gesangvereins, und als sich im Oktober 1825, besonders auf Betrieb des sel. Ernst Rühs, daselbst eine Liedertafel von 12 Theilnehmnern bildete, so ward jenes Quartett wiederum die Seele dieses sinnigen Vereins, der acht Jahre lang nicht nur sich, sondern auch dazu geladenen Gästen allmonatlich einmal (im Sommer gewöhnlich auf Rügen) die schönsten Stunden der reinsten Freude und des harmlosesten Genusses bereitete. Das wackere Quartett wurde seit dem J. 1824 in öffentlichen Konzerten und heiteren Privatgesellschaften mit Freude gehört. So trug dasselbe, an der Spitze der Liedertafel, im Sommer 1828 zur Verschönerung der Säkularfeier des Wallensteinfestes bei, wo die Liedertafel ein eigenes Segel-Fahrzeug einnahm, dem sich viele andere, unter Gesang den Dänholm umsegelnd und den Strelasund durchkreuzend, anschlossen. P., als erster Tenorist und Münchmeyer, als erster Bassist, sangen nicht nur hier, sondern auch im nahen Greifswald in allen größeren Konzerten, wo P. sowohl in Arien als Ensemble-Stücken durch seine schöne Stimme, durch reinen Gesang und ergreifenden Vortrag alle Zuhörer entzückte. Besonders glänzend war für P. der Sommer des J. 1827, wo die berühmte Catalani sowohl hier als auch in Putbus sang. In einem Konzerte in Putbus sang er unter allgemeinem Beifalle mit der weltberühmten Sängerin, die selbst über seinen Tenor staunte, ein Duett aus Tankred. Auch der bekannte Tenorist Mantius, den P. schon als rostocker Studenten gekannt hatte, sang damals in Putbus; allein die Meinungen darüber, ob P. oder Mantius die schönste Stimme hätte, waren sehr getheilt. Die gefeierte Königin des Geswangs verehrte unserm P., wie Jedem der drein übrigen Mitglieder des Quartetts, ein Geschenk zum Andenken. Ueberhaupt hat P. in Gemeinschaft mit seinem Freunde Münchmeyer viel für Belebung des dortigen Kunstgesanges gethan, indem er nicht allein stets gern bereitwillig war, in öffentlichen Konzerten, namentlich in Oratorien als Solo-Tenor mitzuwirken, sondern indem er auch in den Proben immer freundlich war und durch seine liebenswürdige Persönlichkeit und anmuthigen Umgangsformen das übrige, sowohl das weibliche als männliche Personal des Sängerchors bei Geduld und guter Laune erhielt. Nach dem Tode seines Freundes Münchmeyer (1837) ist er nur selten noch öffentlich als Sänger aufgetreten, ja er sang auch nicht einmal in Privatkreisen, um so, gern gehört, in der Erinnerung des Publikums fortzuleben, bevor die Zeit auch seiner Stimme die Spuren der Vergänglichkeit aufgedrückt hätte. Mit der Liebe zur edlen Gesangskunst, die er selber so trefflich ausübte, verband er auch eine große Liebe zur Malerei. Er besaß selbst eine kleine Sammlung werthvoller Gemälde und fühlte tief die Bedeutung der Malerei für allgemeine Bildung. Daher hatte er schon vor Jahren mit gleichgesinnten Freunden sich besprochen, um einen Kunstverein für Neuvorpommern und Rügen in's Leben zu rufen. Endlich ward am 4. Aug. 18471 ein solcher Kunstverein gestiftet, zu dessen Verwaltungs-Ausschuß er vom Tage der Stiftung bis zu seinem Tode gehört hat. Ihm fiel gleich bei der Stiftung das Amt des Schatzmeisters und Schriftführers zu, das er mit unsäglicher Mühe und Sorgfalt verwaltet hat. Er hat den sehr ausgebreiteten Briefwechsel mit den fernwohnenden Künstlern unausgesetzt geführt, die seine Thätigkeit auch willig anerkannten. Der Verstorbene hielt Reisen mit dem größten Rechte nicht blos für die edelste Art der Erholung und Vergnügung, sondern zugleich für ein treffliches Bildungsmittel. Daher reiste er gern; leider ! aber hatten die Reisen in den letzten Jahres seines Lebens größtentheils des Zweck, seine geschwächte Gesundheit wieder herzustellen. P. wußte aber auch mit Geschmack und mit Nutzen zu reisen; denn das wahre reisen ist auch eine Kunst. Seine Hauptreisen, die sich über alle Gegenden des schönen undm großen Vaterlandes und zum Theil über dasselbe hinaus erstreckten, hat er in den jahren 1833 - 1850 gemacht; seit 1836 reiste er fast nur in Begleitung seiner treuen Lebensgefährtin und erfreute sich an ihrer Seite nicht nur der Schönheiten der Natur, sondern auch der Erzeugnisse der Kunst; vor Allem aber zogen ihn die Menschen an. So hat er während seiner Reisen viele anziehende Bekanntschaften gemacht, die in einigen Fällen zu wahrer Freundschaft wurden. Auch im heimischen Stralsund hat er der Fremden Viele kennen gelernt; denn selten kamen in früheren Jahren Tonkünstler hierher, die ihn nicht aufsuchten und von seiner zuvorkommenden Gastlichkeit Beweise genossen. Was die zwei von ihm bekleideten städtischen Aemter betrifft, so war er seit 1826 Stadt-Buchhalter und seit der Stiftung der Sparkasse (1827) zuglreich Rechnungsführer derselben. Beiden widmete er viele Zeit und Mühe, ja er war noch in den letzten Tagen und Stunden seines Lebens mit dem Ordnen und Abschließen der mühsamsten Rechnungen beschäftigt. Der Heimgang des Mannes, der ohne Zweifel eine der liebenswürdigsten und anziehendsten Persönlichkeiten Stralsunds gewesen, ist nicht blos der treuen hinterbliebenden Witwe und seinen nächsten Angehörigen, sondern allen Denen überaus schmerzhaft, die ihn nur irgendwie näher gekannt haben und deren sien Viele. Dem liter.-gesell. Vereine gehörte er seit dessen Stiftung an und hat die gabe seines köstlichen Gesanges in den ersten zwei bis drei jahren auch im Kreise dieses Vereins an der einfachen, traulichen Abendtafel nicht selten zur Erheiterung der Mitglieder ertönen lassen.

1807: Carl Heinrich Philipp Dörry verlässt als Flüchtling seine Heimat, als diese zum Königreich Westphalen geschlagen wurde (Königreich Westphalen: 1807 bis 1813)

Königreich Westfalen
--
Das Königreich Westfalen (genauer: Westphalen) wurde nach dem Frieden von Tilsit (1807) von Napoléon Bonaparte für seinen Bruder Jérôme (Hieronymus) aus dem ehemaligen Herzogtum Braunschweig, Kurhessen und vormals hannoverschen und preußischen Gebietsteilen geschaffen. Seine Hauptstadt war Cassel. Es war gedacht als napoleononischer "Modellstaat",der sich durch eine moderne Verwaltung und Justiz auszeichnen sollte.

Tatsächlich wurden die Patrimonialgerichte und die Leibeigenschaft abgeschafft, die Gewerbefreiheit und der Code Civil eingeführt.

Dennoch waren die Reformen nur begrenzt erfolgreich, da der ständige Geld- und Menschenbedarf für die napoleonischen Kriege (das Königreich hatte dem Rheinbund ein Kontingent von 25.000 Mann zu stellen) das Land wirtschaftlich ausbluten ließ.

Nach der Völkerschlacht bei Leipzig (1813) löste sich das Königreich Westfalen auf; die ursprünglichen Territorien wurden wieder hergestellt.

Sie hat ihre erste Jugend auf dem Gute Buchenhof verbracht, wo sie von einer entfernten Verwandten, Minchen Petersen, unterrichtet worden ist. Nach der Übersiedlung ihrer Eltern hat sie die Schule in Greifswald besucht. Später hat sie die Wirtschaft in Suckow bei Plan, einem ihrem Onkel Ludwig Koch gehörenden Gute, die Wirtschaft erlernt. Dort wird sie wohl auch ihren späteren Ehemann kennengelernt haben, dessen älteste Schwester Marie ihren Onkel Ludwig geheiratet hatte.

590. Lebensbeschr. Fr.Chr. Sylvester Petersen
Er hat die große Stadtschule in Rostock besucht und ist sodann in das Burchardsche Geschäft als Lehrling eingetreten. Nach beendeter Lehrzeit ist er noch als Handlungsgehilfe in diesem Geschäft geblieben. Im 0ktober 1864 hat er eine Reise nach England gemacht. Zur gleichen Zeit hat er sich durch Zahlung der ges. Stellvertreterprämie militärfrei gemacht. Im Mai 1864 tritt er im Auftrage seines Prinzipals Ludwig Burchard bei der Publikation des Testaments der Lisette Friederike Petersen in Rostock (+ dort am 02.05.1864) auf. Im Frühling 1865 nimmt er eine Stellung als Handlungsgehilfe bei der Buttergroßhandlung Krasemann in Hamburg an. Anfang 1868 übernimmt er die Vertretung der Firma "Theodor Burchard in Rostock" in Stettin und siedelt dahin über. Am l4.05.1868 wird er in die Stettiner Kaufmannskorporation aufgenommen. Er bearbeitet besonders das russische Getreidegeschäft und macht infolgedessen mehrere Reisen nach Danzig, Riga und St. Petersburg (Leningrad), aber auch nach Edinburgh wo er mit dem Mühlenbesitzer Tott, dem Weizenabnehmer, in Geschäftsbeziehung steht. Da das russische Geschäft aufhört, weil Tott selbst in Rußland einkauft, siedelt er 1881 nach Rostock über und macht sich dort unter seinem Namen selbständig, indem er Dampfschiffahrtsreeder wird. Seine Dampfer befahren vor allem die Ost- und Nordsee, aber auch bis nach Spanien. Mit zwei Dampfern machte er eine regelmäßige Linie von Rostock nach Kopenhagen auf. Ende der 90er Jahre erleidet er mehrere Schlaganfälle, suchte deshalb 1900 Bad Oeynhausen auf und erliegt dann 1902 beim Zeitungslesen einem erneuten Schlaganfall.

Je ein Schiff wurde von Ernst August Struss und Grete Struss, geb. Petersen getauft. Je ein Halbmodelle der getauften Schiffe befanden sich 1999 im Besitz von Zissi Struss und Marga Mansfeld. Das Modell des von Grete Petersen getauften Schiff "Lena Petersen" ist im zweiten Weltkrieg verloren gegangen. Vermutlich beim Angriff auf Hanau.

591. Lebensbeschr. Hans I. Dörrien, 1571 - 1629
Aus: Globetrotter des 16. J ahrhunderts
Nach heutigen Vorstellungen waren die früheren Jahrhunderte Zeiten, in denen man sein Leben lang an einem Ort lebte. Dies galt tatsächlich für die meisten Menschen. Manche kamen jedoch bereits damals in der zu jener Zeit bekannten Welt herum, darunter auch einige Hildesheimer. Vor fast 400 Jahren, zu einer Zeit, als man noch nicht in wenigen Stunden mi t dem Flugzeug nach Rio fliegen konnte, gerade 100 Jahre nach der Entdeckung Amerikas durch C hristoph Kolumbus, und über 100 Jahre vor der Entdeckung Australiens, reiste er nach Brasilien. Die Rede ist von dem Hildesheimer Kaufmann und Bürgermeister Hans Dörrien (1571-1629), einem Mann, der durch die Welt kam. Er wurde am 6. Februar 1571 in Hildesheim geboren. Nach dem Besuch der Schule absolvierte er, wie es für einen angehenden Kaufmann damals üblich war, eine kaufmännische Lehre, zunächst in Leipzig, dann in Nürnberg. Während ein Handwerksgeselle nach seiner Lehrzeit auf Wanderschaft ging, schickten Kaufleute ihre Söhne auf Reisen, um neue Handelskontakte zu knüpfen und schon bestehende zu pflegen. Bekanntschaften wurde zu jener Zeit, als es noch kein Telefon oder Telex gab, innerhalb der Familie von Generation zu Generation auf den Handelspartner übertragen. Da die Familie Dörrien Handelsbeziehungen zu den Niederlanden unterhielt, bereiste der junge Hans Dörrien zunächst dieses Land. Dann führte ihn sein Weg nach Spanien, der damaligen Weltmacht. Von dort aus wagte er mit einem der kleinen Segelschiffe die Überfahrt nach Brasilien. Eine solche Reise war zu jener Zeit noch ein grosses Wagnis. Nicht nur die Überfahrt war beschwerlich und konnte je nach Wetter bis zu sechs Wochen dauern. Die damalige portugiesische Kolonie Brasilien bestand aus nur wenigen kleinen Ansiedlungen von Europäern und aus Plantagen in Küstennähe. Zwar importierte man bereits seit einigen Jahrzehnten Holz aus den riesigen Urwäldern des Landes über Antwerpen nach Europa. Und auch in Hildesheim verwendeten wohlhabende Bürger dieses Holz beim Innenausbau ihrer Häuser. Doch wird es wohl eher die Abenteuerlust des jungen Mannes gewesen sein, die ihn in die neue Welt trieb. Dort empfing ihn eine fremde Kultur, deren Eindrücke er sein Leben lang nicht vergessen sollte. Er sah Indianerstämme mit seltsamen Gebräuchen, aus Afrika verschleppte schwarze Sklaven und eine überwältigende Natur, Ananaspflanzen, Kakteen, Palmen, Papageien, Ameisenbären, Gürteltiere und Kolibris, deren Flügelschlag man nicht mit blossem Auge zu erkennen vermag. Nach seiner glücklichen Rückkehr aus dieser exotischen Welt reiste Hans Dörrien nochmals durc h Holland, Welsch-Brabant und Flandern, dann nach Frankreich und England. Dort, im Zentrum der aufstrebenden Handelsmacht, blieb er sogar einige Jahre lang. In seine Vaterstadt Hildesheim zurückgekehrt, heiratete er 1599 Anna Bex, die Tochter des Hildesheimer Kaufmanns Hans Bex. Sie gebar ihm drei Kinder, einen Sohn und zwei Töchter. Als angesehener, wohlhabender Bürger der Stadt bestellte man ihn auch zu öffentlichen Ämtern. So wurde er 1601 Provisor der Andreaskirche. Dieses Amt übte er 13 Jahre aus. 1608 war er Apothekenherr, und schliesslich wählte man ihn 1624 zum Bürgermeister. Noch hatte Hildesheim nicht unter dem aufziehenden langen Krieg zu leiden, dem Dreissigjährigen Krieg (1618-48). So konnte Hans Dörrien einige verhältnismässig ruhige Jahre erleben, bevor er am 20. August 1629 starb, ganz still, als wenn er in Schlaf geraten wäre. In seinen letzten Lebensjahren liess es sich wohl auch porträtieren. Das damals entstandene Gemälde steht in Tradition der Regentenstücke, jener holländischen Gruppenporträts, auf denen sich Vorsteher (Regenten) des Rates, von karitativen Einrichtungen (Hospitälern, Armen - und Waisenhäusern), Besserungsanstalten (Raspelhäuser, Spinnhäuser) und Gilden darstellen liessen. Eine Reihe von Hildesheimer Honoratioren standen ebenfalls Malern Modell und knüpften damit an eine Porträtkunst an, wie sie auch im Honoratiorentum anderer norddeutscher Städte geschätzt war. Ihre schwarze Kleidung. In der sie sich abbilden liessen, zeichnet sich durch Einfachheit und Strenge aus. Sie tragen ein gerades Überwams, einen schlichten, aufliegenden Kragen, der ebenso wie die Manschetten ohne Spitzenbesatz ist. Dies gilt auch für das Porträt des Hans Dörrien. Er trägt sein Haar kurz. Da langes, in der Mitte gescheiteltes Haar erst um 1625 in Mode kam, wird man davon ausgehen können, dass das Porträt früher entstand, vielleicht 1624. als er zum Bürgermeister gewählt wurde. Für diese Datierung spricht auch die Form seines Bartes, der aus Oberlippen- und Kinnbart besteht. Dieser Bart wurde in den Niederlanden seit Mitte der 1620er Jahre als kleines, spitzes Kinnbärtchen modern. In allen diesen Jahren in Hildesheim wird er manches Mal an die Abenteuer seiner Jugendzeit gedacht haben. Und wenn er von ihnen erzählte, werden die Grenzen immer mehr verschwommen sein zwischen dem, was er selbst gesehen hatte, und dem, was Seefahrer u nd Abenteurer Wundersames und Erschröckliches berichtet hatten - damals in Brasilien. Zwar waren auch alle seine Kaufmannskollegen weit gereist.

Doch eines hatte Hans Dörrien ihnen allen voraus: Er hatte die Neue Welt gesehen.

592. Leichenpredigt Bartholdy in Frankfurt/Oder

48. I. H. J. der Wahren Christen unverzagtes Helden-Hertz, Aus dem selbst-erwählten Leichen-Spruch von der Frau Eva Elisabeth Bartholdin, des . . . Hrn Joh. Samuel Kerns Königl. Preuß. Neumärk. Cammergerichts-Advokati Ordinarii Treugewesenen Ehe-Liebsten, Welche den 10. Januarii des 1718. Jahres im hernn seelig entschlaffen, den 23. d. . . . in der Pfarrkirchen zu Sanct Marien allhier in Cüstrin aus dem VIII. Capitel der Epistel an die Römer von 32. Vers biß zum Ende des Cap. vorgestellet Und auf inständiges Begehren zum Druck ausgefertiget von Johann George Hoffmannen S. S. Theol. Doct. Cüstrin, druckts Gottfried Heinichen und Joh. Hübner, Königl. Preuß. Neum. Reg. Buchdr.

Sie war geboren am 9. März 1691 in Frankfurt a. O. als Tochter des Universitätsprofessors Friedrich Jacob Bartholdi und der Katharine Elisabeth Dörrien (Tochter eines Juristen aus Braunschweig) und als Enkelin des Bürgermeisters Erdmann Bartholdi und der Dorothee Zacharias (Tochter eines Ratsverwandten und Kauf- und Handelsmannes) in Frankfurt a. O. Der Vater starb schon 1693. Die Mutter heiratete dann den Kriegs- und Steuerkommissarius und Bürgermeister Bernhard Johann Berckelmann. Sie selbst heiratete am 21. August 1715 und hinterließ bei ihrem frühen Tode ein Kind: den 1716 geborenen Samuel Bernhard. Der Jur. Utr. Doctor an der Universität Frankfurt Joachim Friedrich Bartholdi war ihr Bruder. Ihr Witwer heiratete nachher Dorothee Marie Grüneberg.

Wie von ihrer Leichenpredigt sind auch von der Leichenpredigt ihrer Schwiegermutter Anna Regina Kern geb. Krause nur Titelblatt und Personalien vorhanden. Diese starb am 1. Dezember 1725 in Sonnenburg, wo ihr Mann Samuel Kern "Hoch-Fürstlicher Brandenburgischer des Ritterlichen Johanniter-Ordens wol-meritirter Aeltester Regierungs-Rath" war. Sie war geboren am 27. Juni 1665 und die Tochter des Neumärkischen Kammergerichts-Advokaten Johann Krause in Cüstrin, der zugleich Syndicus des Neumärkischen, Sternbergischen und "incorporirten" Ritterschaft war und der Anna Benigna Kretschmar. Die im "Ehrengedächtnis" niedergelegten Abstammungsnachrichten geben das auf nächster Seite stehende Bild. Der in ihm genannte Bürgermeister Samuel Prätorius war der 1543 in Bernau geborene Sohn des als Predigers in Potsdam gestorbenen Sebastian Schmidt oder Faber und seit 1562 der Adoptivsohn des 1561 vom Kaiser Ferdinand I. geadelten erzbischöflich magdeburgischen Rats Paul Prätorius (früher Schultheiß); er hatte einen Sohn Tobias, dessen Sohn Tobias 1661 den Böhmischen Ritterstand unter dem Namen Prätorius von Richthofen erhielt und der Stammvater der gesamten jetzt lebenden Familie von Richthofen ist. Die Verstorbene erlag einem Steinleiden trotz der Hilfe des erfahrenen Stadtphysikus Dr. Behr in Frankfurt a. O. Die Leichenpredigt hielt ihr der Inspektor Christian v. d. Schulenburg.

Der Rektor und die Professoren
der berühmten Bremer Schule dem geneigten Leser (Wohlergehen)
Dass ausgerechnet dieser Tag für uns traurig und durch den Tod befleckt ist, das hat das Hinscheiden des äußerst hervorragenden und staatswissenschaftlichen jungen Mannes verursacht, des Gerhard Heidenreich, Gerhard, der vor drei Tagen gerade in der Blüte seines Lebens (ausgelöscht worden ist) gestorben ist, als er 20 Jahre vollendet hatte. Wir hätten diese Schrift nicht verfassen müssen, wenn wir uns so eingerichtet hätten, dass der Tod nur die vom Alter Erschöpften und Ausgelaugten - was ja besonders natürlich erscheint - hinwegraffte. Aber uns bindet dasselbe Gesetz des Sterbens so, dass jedes Alter und auch jede Situation (Lage, Bedingung) ihm unterworfen und verpflichtet ist. Nicht nur das Schicksal ist blind - wie die Alten sich das gedacht haben - sondern auch der Tod ist den Augen entzogen. Deshalb sieht er nicht und kümmert sich nicht darum, an welches Alter und an welche Begabungen (geistige Veranlagungen) er Hand anlegt. Jener rafft die Jungen in der ersten Blüte der Jugend hinweg, aber trotzdem rafft er auch, ohne sie zu vergessen, auch die Alten hinweg, wie Vergil es besingt oder Pedo Albinovanus beim Tod des Maecenas. Und trotzdem wollen wir nicht glauben, dass dieses blind geschieht, sondern dass es jedem einzelnen passiert aus göttlicher Hand, was auch immer schließlich und irgendwann geschieht, und dass es ausgeht von dem, der dem Universum vorsteht und sich um es kümmert.
Mag er auch, wie Euripides sagt, auf einem geheimen und verschwiegenen Weg daher kommen, dennoch lenkt und führt er alles gerecht in den menschlichen Angelegenheiten. So sehr, dass die festgesetzte Lebensgrenze weder durch irgendeine Kraft noch durch irgendeine Kunst überschritten werden kann.
Geboren ist er, ein hochgeachteter junger Mann, in Hildesheim, in einer nicht der letzten Städte Deutschlands, im 54. Jahre unseres Jahrhunderts im Monat September, (abstammend) von einem edlen und sehr bedeutenden (einflussreichen) Vater, dem Herrn Gerhard Heidenreich, einem einst sehr verdienstvollen Konsul dieser Stadt; von einer Mutter, einer sehr empfehlenswerten (verheirateten) Frau. Anna Witthoed, Tochter eines einst sehr geachteten Mannes, des Diderich Witthoed, eines vornehmen Kaufmanns. Erste Frömmigekeit (zeigte sich) und er legte die ersten Proben der Wissenschaft in seiner Heimatschule ab, wo er auch so sehr unter einem hochberühmten und hochgebildeten Mann, dem Herrn Johann Georg Lohmeyer, den Rektor dieser Schule, fortgeschritten ist, dass er in unsere Bildungseinrichtung (Haus der Bildung) entlassen wurde, um eine reichere (umfassendere) Gelehrsamkeit zu erreichen. Als er hierher zu Anfang des gegenwärtigen Jahres gekommen war, zeigte er nach ordnungsgemäßen Einschreibung eine solche Sorgfalt in den Studien sowohl öffentlich als auch privat, und durch die Ehrenhaftigkeit seines Charakters gelang es ihm, dass er niemanden irgendeinen Grund für Klagen gegeben hat. Er war nicht von solch (besonders) starker Gesundheit, und deshalb lernte er, den unversehrten Zustand des Körpers mehr zu schätzen als wir, die wir gesund sind. Und er war von solch großem Eifer, dass er sich dem Erlernen der Kunst, durch die er (man) die Grundsätze (Vorschriften) erhält, sie (die Gesundheit) zu schützen oder, wenn jene zerbrochen ist, zu behandeln. Sicherlich eine lobenswerte Absicht (Plan)! Wenn freilich das Wohlergehen die gnädigste Beschützerin aller Wissenschaften und Künste ist, so ist sie ein besonderer Trost für dieses unruhige Leben und in ihrer Gegenwart herrschen muntere, (fröhliche)? Handlungen, die Kraft, die Figur und die Mittel des Köpers sind stark. Und, wenn sie zerbrochen ist, stürzt alles zusammen, was vorher stark war. Mag du sie daher auch als schmeichelndste Nährerin allen Gutes, das den Menschen trifft, und als Würze des ganzen Lebens bezeichnen, trotzdem konnte gerade dieser unser (junge Mann) die besorgte Mühe des Arztes so erfrischt (erleichtert) werden, dass er dem Übel nicht erlag, das - entstanden aus dem Riss einer Ader in den Lungen - ihn selbst getroffen hatte. Er war diese sieben Woche lang auf das schicksalshafte Bett geworfen, in dem er mitten unter Gebeten und unter zu dem einzigartigen Retter ausgestoßenen Seufzern setzte er unter dem jüngsten Saturn? , der am 26. September war, morgens um ½ 10 Uhr dem Leben ein Ende. Er konnte, auch wenn er dem Tod hätte entrinnen und bis zur Reife der Jahre hätte gelangen können, dem Stand der Erzieher eine nicht geringe Zierde ?? . So schien es Gott trotzdem gut, dass er, der außerhalb jeder Ansteckung des Übels gebracht worden ist, doch so entscheiden müsse, dass das, was er selbst geschickt hat, gut und nützlich sei. Euch, Bürger des berühmten Gymnasiums, fordern wir auf, dem Begräbnis eures besten Kommilitonen, das auf den 1. Tag des morgigen Tages zur Gotteshaus (Basilica) geführt werden muss, zahlreich zu folgen. Diese eure Pflicht(erfüllung) wird die hochverehrten Männer, den Herrn Johannes Christian Dorrien, aus dem Senatorenstand von Hildesheim, und den Herrn August Knaken, Stiefvater und Schwager des Verstorbenen, die hier anwesend sind, sehr aufrichten und erleichtern.
V.P.P. - vielleicht: Wunsch der Professoren - genau am Michaelistag - nach der Anbetung des Beschützers der Welt(ordnung).

-- Er besuchte die Schule, und als er etwas erwachsen war und Lust zum Kaufhandel hatte,
-- wurde er (zu dessen Erlernung) nach Leipzig,
-- dann nach Nürnberg geschickt, wo er sich eine Zeitlang aufhielt.
-- Dann ging er nach den Niederlanden und nach Spanien, und weil damals die Fahrten nach Brasilien gemacht wurden, hat er eine beschwerliche und mühselige Schiffahrt dorthin mit verrichtet.
-- Nach Rückkehr besuchte er seine Eltern, zog aber als Kaufmann fernerhin durch Holland, Welsch-Brabant, Flandern, Frankreich und England, womit er einige Jahre zubrachte.
-- Indem ihn die Eltern anforderten, kehrte er zu ihnen zurück und heiratete:
1299 oo am 20.Febr. Anna Bex, Tochter von Hans Bex, vorn. Handelsmann in Hildesheim, die jetzige Witwe. 30 J. Ehe, 3 Ki. 1 So. 2 Tö, welche leben.
-- Er betrieb einen ansehnlichen Gewand- und Wollhandel und wurde in der Stadt zu Ämtern berufen die ihm viel Mühewaltung auferlegten:
l6ol wurde er Provisor und Vorsteher der Kirche St. Andreas, war dies neben seinen Mitherren ganze 13 Jahre, 1608 bekam er des Rats Apothekenamt übertragen, war hierin einige Jahre, 1609 wählte man ihn in des Rats Oldermann-Stuhl der Gemeinde, l6l4 kam er von hier in den 24-Mann-Stuhl, und nachdem er einige Jahre der Kämmerei vorgestanden hatte, wurde er 1624 zum regierenden Bürgermeister gewählt.

-- Am Sonntag vor 14 Tagen befand er sich unwohl, durch gute Mittel ließ es sich zur Besserung an, aber vor 8 Tagen nahm die Krankheit plötzlich überhand und er verschied ganz still, als wenn er in Schlaf geraten wäre, -- Zuerst besuchte er die Andreasschule zu Hildesheim unter Rektor Lomeyer und Konrektor Oldekopp, wo er Latein und Griechisch lernte.

-- Dann kam er auf das fü.Gymnasium nach Lüneburg, wo er bei den Prof. Buno und Nodelmann in Philologie, Geschichte und Geographie besondere Kenntnisse erwarb. Hier war er 2 Jahre.
-- worauf er die Univ. Helmstedt bezog und einige Jahre prakt. u. theoretische Philosophie, besonders unter D.Meyer studierte.
-- Sodann verbrachte er verschiedene Jahre auf der Univ. Jena, ging bei Prof. Weigel, dem berühmten Mathematiker zu Tische, bei welchem er - neben anderen Professoren - Philosophie hörte. Auch wollte er sich in Theologie umtun, -- doch seine Mutter starb und er mußte sich der ererbten Güter annehmen und diese verwalten, wozu er viele langwierige Reisen nach Speyer und an andere Orte (Prozesse I) machen mußte, die viel Zeit und Mühe benötigten. Nach erzielten Erfolgen solcher Reisen ließ er sich in Hildesheim häuslich nieder, und heiratete:

Lebenslauf
1653 geboren am 21. April in Hildesheim
Vater Hans Dörrien, Bürger u.vieljähr. Ratsverwandter in Hildesheim Mutter Catharina Röen.
-- Da sich bald ein fähiges Ingenium bei ihm zeigte, wurde er in früher Jugend in nützlichen Sprachen und Künsten unterwiesen, freilich vermochte ihm der Vater dabei wenig zur Hand zu gehen, da es sein Dienst nicht erlaubte.
-- Er besuohte die Schulen fleißig und erhielt besondere Anweisungen durch Rektor Mag.Lohmeyer.
1674 am 7.Mai bezog er die Univ. Erfurt, wo er l676 am 9..Mai unter dem Dekanat der Philos.Fakultät von Prof. Matthias Gruvius Magister wurde.
-- In dieser Zeit starb seine Mutter.
1678 am l7.Sspt. ging er auf die Univ. Jena, wo er 2 J. Theologie studierte und philosophische Vorlesungen hielt. Als aber die Pest auftrat, ging er 1680 im September wieder nach Erfurt, wo er auch fleißig disputierte. Nachdem er 8 Jahre auf Universitäten zugebraoht hatte, kam er
1680 am 1. Advent heim nach Hildesheim, wo er
1682 nach Probepredigt als Pastor zu St. Michaelis berufen wurde, am 5. März wurde er von Sup.Lic. Georg Goetzius eingeführt.
1683 oo am 3. Okt. Anna Maria Förster, Tochter von Augustinus Förster. Prediger St.Michaelis zu Erfurt, die jetzige Witwe, 24 J. Ehe, 5 Söhne, welche alle leben, Namen stehen nur in der Widmung, a.o.
-- Da er immer große Lust gehabt hatte, junge Leute zu informieren, wozu er auch stattliches Talent hatte, unterrichtete er die Söhne von adligen Herren in Künsten und Sprachen.

-- Seit 1 1/2 J. fühlte er sich unwohl, schließlich brach die Gliederkrankheit hervor, Am 16. Dezember hielt er seine letzte Predigt, wobei bemerkenswert ist, daß er am Bußtag seine Antrittspredigt wie auch seine letzte Predigt hielt und am Bußtag starb.
-- Am 19.Febr. mußte er sich legen, da er es in alle Glieder bekommen hatte, wozu große Hitze trat, die alle Kräfte nahm. An ärztl.Rat und kostbaren Medikamenten wurde nicht gespart, aber er konnte schließlich kein Glied am ganzen Leib mehr bewegen, 1706 starb er am 27.Februar, alt 53 J. weniger 2 Mon.

1662 wurde er von den Herren Achtzehnmännern in den Ratsstuhl erhoben (als er sich erst 3 Jahre häuslich hier niedergelassen hatte, stimmt nicht, s.o., oder er kam 1652 in den Rat), 1676 im Dezember bekam er das Riedemeisteramt übertragen, hatte dies bis an sein Ende inne,
-- er war jetzt des ganzen Rates Senior.
-- Vor 5 Jahren bekam er schmerzhafte Rippenfellentzündung und hitzige Brustseuche, durch eine ödemische Beingeschwulst wurde aber die Krankheit herabgezogen und er konnte wieder sein Amt versehen. Dann entstanden aber gefährliche Geschwüre an den Beinen, die ihm große Schmerzen verursachten, auch bekam er Asthma und der Nierenstein schlich sich ein. Vor wenigen Wochen bekam er Ischias und Harnzwang, wogegen der Chirurg mit Erfolg eingriff. Man hoffte nun auf Besserung, aber da plagte ihn ein aus der Niere herabgekommener Stein sehr, von dem steten Ungemach verlor er alle Lebensgeister und Kräfte, Medikamente wollten nicht mehr an-schlagen, er verschied

-- Sie besuchte die Schule und lernte lesen und schreiben. In der Haushaltung und allen jungfräulichen Tugenden wurde sie von tüchtigen Lehrmeisterinnen unterrichtet.
-- Bei dem auf dem Lande eine Zeitlang herrschenden unruhigen Kriegswesen war sie bei ihrer Großmutter (Reiche s.u.) in Hildesheim, aber 1649 starb die Großmutter, 1657 der Vater am 14. April, die Mutter am 17. April, sodaß sie in 3 Tagen ihre Eltern verlor.
-- Es nahmen sich ihrer an der Bruder der Mutter, Johann Erich Reiche, sowie die Schwestern der Mutter Catharina Reiche oo Heinrioh Storre, und Dorothea Elisabeth Reiche, Witwe v. Justus Süstermann. Von der fü.braunschw.-lüneburg-Calenberg. Regierung wurde die Vormundschaft für sie und ihre unmündigen Brüder an Heinrich Storre und Johann Erich Reiche s.o. übertragen. Besonders nahm sich ihrer an Frau Storre, als die älteste Schwester der Mutter.
1662 oo am 8.April in der Kirche St.Georg zu Hildesheim: Caspar Heinrich Oppermann s.o.
-- Am 15. Nov. war sie mit ihrem Mann zur Beichte gewesen, worauf sie die Blattern bekam, und noch bevor diese richtig herauskamen,
-- wurde am 20.Nov. ein Söhnlein geboren, welches wegen Schwachheit alsbald getauft und nach seinem Gevatter Heinrich Storre Heinrich Oppermann genannt wurde.
Der Knabe wurde nur 12 Tage alt, da zu seiner Schwachheit die "Kinder-Schürichen" hinzukamen.
-- Für die junge Mutter holte man verschiedene Ärzte, doch gelang es nicht, die Blattern ganz herauszutreiben, sodaß vermutlich innere Teile des Körpers angegriffen wurden, deren Heilung einer längeren Kur bedurft hätte, wozu sie zu schwach war.
1663 starb sie am 17. Januar, alt 20 J. 6 Mon. l4 T.

641. Magen Dorrien - Hammerwood Lodge
Um 1801 kaufte Magens Dorrien Magens (ca. 1768 - 1849), ein Londoner Kaufmann und Bänker sowie künftiger Tory-Parlamentsabgeordneter für den Wahlkreis Carmarthen und später für den Wahlkreis Ludgershall, das Anwesen Hammerwood. Nach seinem Tod hinterließ er das Anwesen seinem Sohn, John Dorrien Magens, der als Vorstandsvorsitzender der East Grinstead Railway Company (EGR) für den Bau der Verbindung von East Grinstead zum Eisenbahnsystem in Three Bridges 1855 verantwortlich war. Vermutlich ließ die Familie Dorrien Magens das Haus erweitern, insbesondere den nordwestlichen Flügel für die Dienerschaft, und die Unterlagen der Volkszählung aus den 1840er-Jahren weisen für diese Zeit mindestens zehn Hausangestellte aus.[7][13]
Hammerwood Lodge nach den Umbauten von Teulon, etwa Ende des 19. oder Anfang des 20. Jahrhunderts

John Dorrien Magens verkaufte das Anwesen Hammerwood im Juni 1864 für £ 37.250 (entsprechend etwa £ 4,2 Mio. im Jahre 2015), wovon £ 10.000 nur für das Holz waren, an den Bankier Oswald Augustus Smith (1826 - 1902).

646. Marinehospital San Francisco
This URL indicates that the first United States Marine Hospital in San Francisco was built in 1853 on the North side of Harrison Street between Main and Spear Streets. It was badly damaged in the 1868 Earthquake and was closed and rebuilt in 1875 in [2]the Presidio next to Mountain Lake.
Note: -----
Here is a brief except from a description of the hospital found in an old San Francisco Directory; "United States Marine Hospital, Rincon Point between Main and Spear. Organized 16th March, 1852. Building erected Nov. 1853. This is one of the most splendid public edifices in the State. It is four stories high besides an excellent basement, and is capable of accommodating five hundred patients. It occupies one of the most conspicous positions in San Francisco, and from its windows can be seen the entire city on the North, the beautiful town of Oakland on the East, in the distance the Mission Dolores, and on the North, embraced by waters of the Bay, Goat and Alcatraz Islands. Daily admissions, 6; deaths per month, 4; average number of patients, 150."

Die URL zeigt, dass das erste United States Marine Hospital in San Francisco im Jahre 1853 auf der Nordseite der Harrison Street zwischen Main und Spear Straßen gebaut wurde. Es wurde 1868 bei einem Erdbeben beschädigt, wurde geschlossen und umgebaut, im Jahre 1875 im Presidio neben dem Mountain Lake neu eröffent.

Hier ist ein Brief, der in einem alten San Francico-Adressbuch gefunden wurde:

"United States Marine Hospital, Rincon Point zwischen Main und Speer. Organisiert am 16. März 1852. Gebäude wurden im November 1853 in Betrieb genommen. Dies ist eines der schönsten öffentlichen Gebäude im Land. Es ist vier Stockwerke hoch neben einem hervorragenden Keller, und hat ein Fassungsvermögen von fünfhundert Patienten. Es liegt in einer der am auffälligsten Positionen in San Francisco, und aus den Fenstern wird die gesamte Stadt im Norden, die schöne Stadt Oakland im Osten, in der Ferne die Mission Dolores gesehen, und im Norden, über dem Wasser der Bucht, die Inseln Goat und Alcatraz. Tägliche Eingänge 6; Todesfälle pro Monat, 4;. durchschnittliche Zahl der Patienten 150 ".

Internationales Sportarchiv 41/1978 vom 2. Oktober 1978
Erfolge/FunktionDeutscher Rekord im Laufen über 50 m mit 5,6 Sekunden im Jahre 1896.
Zur Person
Kurt Doerry ist einer der Wegbereiter des deutschen Sports und zugleich einer der Väter des Sportjournalismus. Zusammen mit Eugen Wagener redigierte er Ende des vorigen Jahrhunderts die damals versuchsweise täglich erscheinende "Allgemeine Sportzeitung", die im Berliner Scherl-Verlag erschien. Später hat Doerry dem jungen Sport das Gesicht verliehen durch die von ihm gegründete und ausgebaute Zeitschrift "Sport im Bild". Sie war die eigentlich repräsentative Zeitschrift, aber immer ein Zuschußunternehmen, das selbst August Scherl (1849 bis 1921) ein wenig zu teuer wurde. Doerry wurde bedrängt, aus "Sport im Bild" eine Zeitung für die sogenannte gute Gesellschaft zu machen. Doerry hat sich diesen Bestrebungen nach Kräften widersetzt und so besaß der Sport eine Selbstdarstellung, die das Zeitgeschehen, aber auch seinen tieferen Sinn vermittelte.
Laufbahn
Kurt Doerry war Leichtathlet und als Sprinter so stark, daß er an den ersten Olympischen Spielen 1896 in Athen teilnehmen durfte. Bei den Wettkämpfen der Berliner Gewerbeausstellung im Jahre 1896 stellte Doerry im Laufen über 50 m einen deutschen Rekord mit der Zeit von 5,6 Sekunden auf. Ebenfalls im Jahre 1896 wurde Doerry Deutscher Meister über 200 m und wiederholte diesen Erfolg auch 1897 und 1899. Ober 200 m hielt er sogar den deutschen Rekord mit 24,6 Sekunden. Zu seinen 200 m Sporterfolgen gehörte u.a. der Sieg im Kronprinzenpokal von Dänemark im Jahre 1896. Doerry vertrat Deutschland ein zweites Mal bei Olympischen Spielen und zwar 1900 in Paris. Im Jahre 1904 gab Doerry den Wettkampfsport auf, war aber trotz seiner sportjournalistischen Arbeit bis ins hohe Alter aktiv; noch im Alter von 62 Jahren lief er die 100 m in 13,9 Sek.

Überfall auf Mrs. Nordhoff
Woman shot by Negro
Two Highwaymen Attack Mrs. O. C. Nordhoff On Her Doorstep
Corset Stay Saves Her Life
After Wounding Her Twice, Men Escape With Purse Containing $ 20 - second Case in 3 Days.
One of the steel stays in the corset of Mrs. Elizabeth Nordhoff saved her life last night, when two negros shot and robbed her on the front steps of her home, 616 North Carollton avenue. One negro threw her down in the snow and jerked her handbag from her; the other stood by and, after she bad fallen, fired at her three times. Two bullets hit her, the first flattening against one of her corset stays and the other passing through the calf of her left leg.

Marshal Carter was in police headquarters quizzing the negro who shot Patrolman Weidner on Saturday night when he got the news of the assault and robbery of Mrs. Nordhoff. Ile immediately put detectives on the case and every policeman in the city was ordered to search relentlesaly for the robbers. The police have few clues to work upon, however. The negroes escaped, leaving Mrs. Nordhoff in the snow at her own doorstep, and she could give only a meagre description of them.
But in one hand, when she was carried into the house, she was clutching without realizing it a soft brown felt hat that she said she thought was her own. She had grabbed it from the head of one of the negroes.
Collects Rents For Husband
Mrs. Nordhoff is 50 years old and the wife of Otto C. Nordhoff, a dealer in real estate. She helps her husband in his business, collecting rents during the day, and always reaches home at 5 30 or thereabouts. From the fact that the negroes were on the spot and armed when Mrs. Nordhoff reached home the the police believe they knew her habits and had planned the assault carefully.
She was just ascending her front steps when the men grabbed her. They pulled her down the steps and one of them bore her down, into the snow. Keeping one hand over her mouth to stifle screams, he tugged at her dark green alligator handbag, in which were her bank book and about $ 20. The other negro, stepping to one side, where he could take careful aim, began shooting at Mrs. Nordhoff, and in another second she had released her handbag and the negroes fleeing south on Carrollton avenue.
James Parker, colored, 829 Whatcoat street, was coming up Carrollton avenue, and he was within a few feet on the whole scene. He had a bag of flour on his shoulder and stood rooted to the spot while Mrs. Nordhoff was beeing robbed and shot. But he came to his senses in time to run after the fugitives, and to see them turn east on Edmondson avenue and then south on Arlington avenue.
Shots Heard From House
Mr. Nordhoff from his house heard the shots and screams. Others in the house shouted to him that some one had been shot, and he went out to find his wife on the sidewalk.
He helped carry her into the house, and when they undressed her to find her wounds, the bullet that her corset stay had stopped fell on the floor. The other bullet had passed through her leg and could not be found. Mrs. Nordhoff is a Christian Scientist and refused medical attention. She would not stay in bed after the shooting.
A much larger sum of money than she had collected was hidden in her skirt, but the negroes got only the $ 20 and the handbag.
With this affair, the second case of shooting by a negro in three days, and an addition to the already long list of night robberies by negroes, the Northwestern districts plain-clothes squad, composed of patrolmen from all the districts in the city, went on duty again last night.

Frau angeschossen von Negern
Zwei Wegelagerer attackieren O.C. Nordhoff's Frau an ihrer Eingangstreppe.
Nach Verwundung verschwinden die zwei Männer mit der Geldbörse mit 20 Dollar - der zweite Fall in 3 Tagen Eine der Kugeln bleibt im Korsett von Frau Elizabeth Nordhoff stecken und rettete ihr Leben letzte Nacht, als zwei Negros sie auf den Stufen vor ihrem Haus, 616 North Carollton Avenue beschossen und beraubten. Ein Neger warf sie in den Schnee und entriss ihr ihre Handtasche, der andere stand, und nachdem sie hingefallen, feuerte er drei mal auf sie. Zwei Kugeln treffen sie, die erste schlug gegen ihr Korsett und bleibt stecken und die andere durch ihr linkes Bein.
Marshal Carter im Polizeipräsidium befragte den Negro, der am Samstag Nacht Patrolman Weidner am Samstag Nacht beschossen hat, als er die Nachricht von dem Überfall und Raub an Frau Nordhoff hörte. Er informiert sofort Detektive über den Fall und jeder Polizist in der Stadt wurde die Suche nach den Räubern eingesetzt. Die Polizei hat einige Hinweise über deren Arbeit, aber die Neger entkommen, weil Frau Nordhoff, im Schnee vor ihrer eigenen Haustür liegend, nur eine magere Beschreibung von ihnen geben konnte.
Aber in einer Hand, als sie im Haus war, hielt sie einen weichen braunen Filzhut, ohne es zu merken, sodass sie sagte, sie dachte, es wäre ihr eigener. Sie hatte ihn vom Kopf eines der Neger gepackt.
Sammelt Mieten für Ehemann
Frau Nordhoff ist 50 Jahre alt und die Ehefrau von Otto C. Nordhoff, ein Händler in Immobilien. Sie hilft ihrem Mann in seinem Geschäft, das Sammeln der Mieten im Laufe des Tages, und immer erreicht sie das Hause um 5: 30 oder um die Zeit. Aus der Tatsache, dass die Neger bewaffnet an Ort und Stelle waren als Frau Nordhoff zu Hause war, glaubt die Polizei, dass sie um ihre Gewohnheit wussten und hatten den Angriff aufmerksam vorbereitet.
Sie stieg die Treppe hinauf, als die Männer sie packten. Sie zogen sie hinab und einer von ihnen zog sie nach unten in den Schnee. Einer hielt seine Hand über ihren Mund um Schreie zu ersticken, er zerrte an ihrer dunkelgrün Alligator Handtasche, in der ihr Bank Buch und über 20 Dollar waren. Der anderen Neger, schritt zu einer Seite, wo er sorgfältiger zielen konnte, begann auf Frau Nordhoff zu schießen, und in der anderen Sekunde hatte sie ihre Handtasche freigegeben und die Neger flüchten nach Süden auf der Carrollton Avenue.
James Parker, farbig, 829 Whatcoat Street, kam auf der Carrollton Avenue, und er war nur ein paar Meter entfernt von der der gesamten Szene. Er hatte einen Sack Mehl auf seiner Schulter und stand an Ort und Stelle, während Frau Nordhoff gerade beraubt und beschossen wurde. Aber er kam in kurzer Zeit zur Besinnung, nach den Flüchtigen zu sehen, um zu sehen, dass sie nach Osten auf der Edmondson Avenue und dann nach Süden auf der Arlington Avenue rannten.
Schüsse im Haus gehört
Herr Nordhoff hörte aus seinem Haus die Schüsse und Schreie. Andere im Haus riefen ihm ein, dass einige wurden erschossen, und er ging auf die Suche nach seiner Frau auf dem Bürgersteig.
Er half ihr ins Haus, und als sie sich auszog, um ihre Wunden zu finden, fiel die Kugel, die im Korsett steckte, auf den Boden. Die andere Kugel war durch ihre Beine und konnte nicht gefunden werden. Frau Nordhoff ist eine Christian Scientiest und verweigert medizinische Versorgung. Sie würde nicht im Bett bleiben nach der Schießerei.

Sie hatte eine viel größere Summe Geld gesammelt, das hoch in ihrem Rock verstecktwar, aber die Neger haben nur die $ 20 und die Handtasche.
Mit dieser Affäre ist der zweite Fall von Schüssen durch einen Neger in drei Tagen, und eine Ergänzung zu der ohnehin schon langen Liste der Nacht-Diebstähle von Negern. Der Kader im Northwestern Bezirk, bestehend aus Polizisten aus allen Bezirken in der Stadt, ging wieder in Dienst letzte Nacht.

Friedrich W. Nordhoff. - Die Reihen der alten Deutschen unserer Stadt lichten sich rasch; ein bekanntes Gesicht nach dem andern verschwindet aus den Straßen; fast täglich findet man die Todesanzeige eines bekannten Mitbürgers in den Blättern. Kaum vierzehn Tage sind seit der Beerdigung Christoph Bartell's verflossen, gestern wurde Ferdinand Hassencamp zur Ruhe bestattet, und schon wartet die sterbliche Hülle eines anderen bekannten Deutschen auf den letzten Dienst: Friedrich W. Nordhoff, der langjährige Werkführer der Knabe'schen Piano-Fabrik, ist letzten Samstag Abend im Alter von nahezu 65 Jahren gestorben. Hr. Nordhoff wurde am 3. August 1820 in Jerstedt bei Goslar geboren und erlernte die Kunsttischlerei, ging aber bald in das damals aufblühende Geschäft des Pianobaues über. Im Jahre 1850 berief ihn die New-Yorker Fabrik von Nunn & clark als werkführer; im folgenden Jahre kam er gelegentlich eines Sängerfestes nach Baltimore, wo er Hrn. Wilhelm Knabe kennen lernte. Unsere Stadt gefiel ihm so gut, daß er bald hierher übersiedelte und als Arbeiter in Knabe's Fabrik eintrat. Vom Jahre 1851 an war er Haupt-Werkführer, welche Stelle er bis vor wenigen Jahren bekleidete. Nordhoff war ein tüchtiger Pianobauer und hat das amerikanische Piano mit einer seiner wertvollsten Verbesserungen versehen; er war von seinen Arbeitgebern und von den Arbeitern hoch geachtet. Vor zwölf Jahren besuchte er Europa und speziell die Wiener Ausstellung, um die Fortschritte der Industrie zu studieren. Ein Jahr später hatte er das Unglück, vom Schlage gerührt zu werden, und seitdem war er fast fortwährend kränklich. Im Jahre 1853 verheirathete er sich in Carlisle, Penns., mit Frl. Marie Kleffmann, und die Wittwe trauert heute mit vier Töchtern an seinem Sarge; die älteste derselben ist die Gattin des Hrn. Aug. Leidenroth, Privatsekretärs der HH. G. W. Gail und Chr. Ar. Hr. Nordhoff hat hier zwei Brüder, Christian N., Nr. 502, West-Baltimorestraße, und A. Nordhoff, Nr. 10 Pearlstraße; ferner eine Schwester, Frau M. Ruths an der Franklinstraße; in Deutschland leben noch zwei Schwestern, Frau N. Bosse in Goslar und Frau A. Enger in Hildesheim. Er war ein langjähriges Mitglied des "Allgemeinen Arbeiter-Kranken-Unterstützungs-Vereins." Die Beerdigung findet morgen Nachmittag 3 Uhr von dem Trauerhause Nr. 321, Lexingtonstraße, aus auf der "Baltimorer Cemetery" statt.

Zur Erde bestattet. - Gestern schloß sich das Grab über der sterblichen Hülle eines Mannes, der zu Lebzeiten sich in hohem Grade die Achtung und Verehrung Aller erwarb, die mit ihm verkehrten und daher verdient, daß man auch seiner nach dem Tode gedenke. Es ist dies Hr. Friedrich W. Nordhoff, welchen der unerbittliche Tod am samstag, Nachts kurz vor 12 Uhr, nach langem Leiden aus der Mitte seiner Lieben abrief. Eine große Zahl leidtragender Freunde und Bekannter stellte sich gestern Nachmittag 3 Uhr zum Trauerhause Nr. 321, Lexingtonstraße, ein, um dem Geschiedenen die letzte Ehre zu erweisen. Die Szene war eine ergreifende, und Frau und Kinder nicht minder, als andere nahestehenden Verwandte umgaben klagend den Sarg, der den todten Gatten und Vater barg. Die Ueberreste lagen in einem von Blumen umgebenen Sarge; tiefe Ruhe lagerte auf den Zügen des Verblichenen; aber das Auge war für immer geschlossen. Unter den zahlreichen Blumenspenden befanden sich eine prachtvolle Lyra von der Firma W. Knabe & Comp., wie ein kleines aus Blumen kunstvoll gearbeitetes Piano, ein Geschenk der Knabe'schen Mitarbeiter. Den Trauergottesdienst leitete Pastor Scheib von der Zionskirche an Gaystraße. In einer tief ergreifenden Rede schilderte er das Leben und Wirken des Entschlafenen, seinen edlen Charakter, seine große Herzensgüte uns widmete den trauernden Hinterbliebenen herzliche Worte des Trostes. Hr. Friedrich W. Nordhoff gehörte seit einer Reihe von Jahren dem "Allgemeinen Arbeiter-Kranken-Unterstützungs-Verein" an, welcher durch eine Delegation seinem geschiedenen Mitgliede die letzte Ehre erwies. Als Ehren-Bahrtuchträger fungirten die HH. Joh. Lauterbach, Karl Frohwitter, J. Fischer, M. Moran, Ed. Wimmer, H. Görtz und als aktive Sargträger die HH. Ernst Knabe, Wilh. Knabe, Karl keidel, Karl Gerke, Friedr. Meyer und Friedr. Leggemann. Vom Sterbehause bewegte sich der stattliche Leichenzug, in welchem sich 156 Arbeiter von Knabe & Comp. befanden, nach der "Baltimorer Cemetery," wo der Sarg dem Schooße der Erde übergeben wurde. Hr. Nordhoff erreichte ein Alter von fast 65 Jahren und hinterläßt eine Wittwe mit vier Töchtern, zwei Brüder und eine Schwester in hiesiger Stadt, während noch zwei Schwestern im alten Heimathlande weilen.

Einer der größten Kavaliere dieser Zeit, ein Mann, in allen Sportarten zu Hause, war der Chefredakteur des Sports im Scherl-Verlag, der beliebten Zeitschrift "Sport im Bild": der Präsident der deutschen Sportpresse, Curt Doerry. Er war in England erzogen worden. Man konnte sich ihn ohne seine Pfeife und seinen dunkelbraunen Sakko gar nicht vorstellen. Er hatte einen trockenen Humor und die allerbesten Vergleiche und Aussprüche zur Hand. Ich wünschte mir, daß sich alle jungen Sportberichterstatter, deren Fachkenntnisse, vor allem aber deren Erziehung heute oft zu wünschen übrig lassen, an diesem Kavalier der Presse ein leuchtendes Vorbild nähmen.
Als einmal nach einem Leichtathletikkampf ein Außenseiter bei einem 100-Meter-Lauf Körnig und andere Favoriten schlagen konnte und bei seinem Interview als "Sieger des Tages" ziemlich angab, klopfte ihm Curt Doerry beruhigend auf die Schulter und sagte nur: "In Wahrheit hat es noch niemals Sieger gegeben! Das wissen Heinrich Mann, der es aussprach, und ich, der ich es immer wieder erlebe. Aber das werden Sie vielleicht später begreifen".".

Am Silvestertag gegründet

Vertreter von fünf deutschen Hockey-Klubs haben, möglicherweise aus einer Sektlaune heraus, am Silvestertag 1909 im Rahmen eines Turniers in Bonn den DHB gegründet.

Ostern 1910, am 26. März genau, wurde dann in Hamburg der 1. Ordentliche Bundestag des DHB abgehalten und der {\b Berliner Kurt Doerry} zum ersten Präsidenten gewählt.

Kurioserweise nahm allerdings bereits 1908 in London eine deutsche Mannschaft an den Olympischen Spielen teil. Der UHC Hamburg, das mit Abstand beste Team damals, vertrat das ganze Kaiserreich. Seitdem ist nicht nur die Monarchie abgeschafft, sondern auch das Spiel und die Verbandsstrukturen haben sich dramatisch geändert.

"Der DHB ist auch im 100. Jahr seines Bestehens jung geblieben", lobt Bach. Die hauptamtliche Führungsstruktur des Verbandes, der seinen Sitz mittlerweile im eigenen Hockeypark in Mönchengladbach hat, gilt als vorbildlich.

Zum 50. Geburtstag Kurt Doerrys
Am 24. September d. J. feierte Kurt Doerry seinen 50. Geburtstag. Mit ihm feierte diesen Tag der gesamte deutsche Sport. Doerry ist nicht nur der bekannteste deutsche Sportschriftsteller, sondern ein Praktiker, der fast jede Sportart selbst ausübt. Gerade in dieser Vielseitigkeit liegt Doerrys Bedeutung. Als Läufer konnte er, achtzehn Jahre alt, 1896 einen Record über die 50-m Strecke aufstellen, der erst in diesem Jahre geschlagen wurde. Doerry hat sich für die Einführung des Hockey- und Boxsportes in Deutschland mit allen seinen Kräften eingesetzt. Wenn der Sport heutzutage in Deutschland solch eine Bedeutung für das öffentliche und private Leben hat, so gebührt an dieser Entwicklung Doerry ein wesentliches Verdienst. Hoffen wir, daß Doerry noch recht lange mit seiner bewunderungswürdigen Frische und Begeisterung zum Besten des deutschen Sportes wirkt.

817. Richard Chandler - Daten aus der Oxford University
mitgeteilt von Colin Heape (colin.heape@btinternet.com)

The Chandler family were established in Hampshire by the sixteenth century. Hereditory surnames, enabling individuals to be identified, started to be used in England in the 13th century so that peoples' tax payments could be accurately recorded. There are some ancient documents dating back to 1264 AD, which recorded payments made to William le Chandelor for supplying wax for making candles to King Henry II, who was also known as Henry of Winchester. Three generations of the Le Chandelor family seem to have been employed as King's Sergeants responsible for supplying wax and candlewicks to the Royal Household. They also had connections with Winchester. The Records of Heraldry kept by the English College of Arms link the generic Chaundelor/Chandler Coat of Arms to Normandy. There is a record of a Patent of Arms being granted to William Chaundelor of Hyde Barton by Winton in 1565. This patent traces his descent from John Chaundelor and his wife Emme, the daughter and heir of Richard Billet. Their emblem included the Heraldic Pelican.

The Chaundelors of Hyde Barton are thought to be related to the Chaundeler Family of Oare in Wiltshire, some of whose descendants emigrated to America in the 17th century. In her book, "Hyde from Dissolution to Victorian Suburb", Prof. Grover of Winchester University has recorded some of the history of Hyde Abbey and the lands of Hyde Barton, which are now part of the northern suburbs of Winchester City. Hyde Abbey was an important Benedictine Monastry, which included the church of St. Bartholomew and the burial site of King Alfred the Great. The Abbey also owned some farmland known as Abbots Barton. The Abbey fell foul of the Act of Supremacy, which declared King Henry VIII the supreme Head of the Church and separated England from Papal authority. King Henry VIII needed money to finance wars with France and Scotland. The Dissolution of the Monasteries in England took place between 1536 and 1541 as a direct result of this. In 1535, King Henry ordered his Lord Chancellor Thomas Cromwell, to carry out an inspection of all religious establishments in the country. Cromwell sent Thomas Wriothesley to Winchester to supervise the closure of Hyde Abbey. Wriothesley was a friend of Cromwell and became Lord Chancellor himself in 1544. He was created Earl of Southampton and is a good example of how those close to the King were able to enrich themselves. Valuable metals and moveable items taken from the monasteries became the property of the government, but other items such as building materials were auctioned locally, and Wriothesley was free to take possession of the land. He leased the farm of Abbots Barton to a local merchant named Walter Chaundelor (1486 – 1546), who was the son of John and Emma Chaundelor. He was a wool merchant, who had dealings with the Monastery before the Dissolution. He was one of the richest men in Winchester and held the offices of Chamberlain, Bailiff and Mayor of the city. Three generations of the Chaundelor Family inherited possession of Abbots Barton after Walter. His descendant Thomas was forced to sell the Estate in 1650. Thomas Chaundelor was a Royalist and suffered financially because of his allegiance to the Crown.

My family tree can be traced back to {\b Daniel Chandler}, who was baptised in Bramley near Guildford in 1659. He married Elizabeth Dare, and they had two sons named Daniel and John. Daniel senior was described as "of his Majesty's Civil Service". His father may have been named Richard, but I have not yet been able to establish the relationship of Daniel Chandler to Thomas Chaundelor of Hyde Barton.

{\b Daniel Chandler} (1687 - 1753). Daniel was baptised at St. Nicholas Church in Guildford in 1687. He married {\b Elizabeth More}, and they had two sons named Daniel (1726 - 1791) and Richard (1737 - 1810). I have obtained a copy of Daniel Chandler's will, dated 13th January, 1752 from the National Archives. He described his occupation as a Supervisor of his Majesty's Excise. The Test Act of 1673 required all Government Servants to provide a certificate, witnessed by a clergyman and three churchwardens, to confirm that they had received communion in the Church of England. This was to prevent dissenters and Catholics from holding public office. I obtained a copy of Daniel's Sacrement Certificate dated 1717 from the Hampshire County Council Archives, which confirmed that he was an Excise Officer for the parish of Barton Stacey, and that he lived at St. Marybourne. Taxes known as Excise on goods made in this country (e.g. beer, candles and particularly wool) were introduced in England during the Civil War to pay for Cromwell's Army. In 1660, after the monarchy was restored, the hated tax continued to be levied to pay for the expenses of both government and the King. During the 18th century, the evasion of duties and smuggling developed into an industry. Smugglers were known as "Owlers", because of the alarm calls they used at night. Southampton was a busy port and Excise men were needed in the surrounding area.

In his will, Daniel bequeathed the sum of five shillings only to his eldest son, the Reverend Daniel Chandler, because he had already expended a child's share on his education. He left his younger son, Richard Chandler, most of his poccession including his watch, gold buttons, a large silver spoon marked D.C., a silver cup, his hanger and two brace of pistols, his books on arts and sciences, his mathematical instruments and clothes. He bequeathed to his beloved wife Elizabeth all other household goods not given to his son Richard and also the sum of twenty five pounds. He instructed his trustee, his good friends John Brackstone and the Reverend Samuel Speed, a master of Winchester School, to sell his bridle and saddle, the money to be added to the residue of his estate in trust for his son Richard, who he appointed his sole executor. Richard was still a minor, and his trustees were authorised to apply all or part of the residuary of the estate for his eduction and maintenace. Daniel Chandler died in 1753 and was buried at St. Michael Church in Southampton.

His son, {\b Richard Chandler} (1737 - 1810) was born at Elson in Hampshire in 1737 and baptised in Alverstoke. He was a classical scholar, and he travelled widely as a young man. His old college at Oxford has provided the following information about him. He entered Queen's College, Oxford in May 1755, and was granted his demyship at Magdalen College in 1757. He became a fellow of that college in 1770. Whilst at Oxford, he published several works on antiquities including his Marmora Oxoniensia in 1763. He was introduced to the Society of Dilettanti in 1764, and sent on an expedition to Asia Minor and Greece. The Dilettanti Society was founded as a London dining club in 1732 by a group of noblemen and gentlemen, who had been on the "Grand Tour." Horace Walpole described it as "a club, for which the nominal qualification is having been in Italy, and the real one, being drunk: the two chiefs are Lord Middlesex and Sir Francis Dashwood, who were seldom sober the whole time they were in Italy". Sir Joseph Banks was also a member. As a young man, Richard Chandler obviously attracted attention. It was said that he had piecing eyes and it was enchanting to hear him speak. He was given command of the expedition, which embarked from Gravesend on 9th June 1764. They spent over a year in Asia Minor and visited Athens, where Chandler gloomily noted that the Parthenon was in danger of being completely destroyed. He was able to buy two fragments of the Parthenon Frieze that had been built into houses in the town. They had to return to England in November 1766, because some of the party were in poor health. His journal on the expedition, which he published on his return, made his reputation as an Antiquarian. As a result of this expedition, the Society published the "Ionian Antiquities", which had a major influence on neo-Classicism in Britain. Richard Chandler was made a senior proctor of Oxford University in 1772 and obtained his Batchelor of Divinity and his Doctorate in 1773. He worked on the old archives at Oxford with his friend and colleague, the Reverend Gilbert White, made famous for his book "The Natural History of Selborne." Richard Chandler wrote a biography of the founder of Magdalen College, William Waynflete, which is still used by scholars of the University today. He is regarded as an important academic 200 years after his death, as I found out when I visited his old college in 2014. I was able to provide them with a photograph of the miniature silhouette of him, for which they were very grateful, as the University has no other image of him. He is the only member of the family to have an entry in the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography.

{\b Richard Chandler} married {\b Benigna Dorrien} at St. Marylebone in 1785. The Dorrien family were Prussian and came to England in 1672. Frederick Dorrien founded Dorrien & Mello's Bank, which later became Glyn Mills. He endowed the Dorrien Ward at the London Hospital. Benigna Dorrien was the daughter of his son Liebert Dorrien and his wife Catherine. After their marriage, the Chandlers spent the winter at Nimes in France and also visited Switzerland. Richard and Benigna had two children, a son named {\b William Berkeley}, and a daughter called Georgina. Both children were born in Switzerland. Richard and Benigna returned to Italy in 1787, visiting Florence and Rome, where Richard studied manuscripts of Greek Testament in the Vatican. On his return, Oxford University gave him the rectory and vicarage of Tilehurst in Berkshire in 1800. He died at Tilehurst on 9th February 1810.

Die Familie Chandler wurde in Hampshire im sechzehnten Jahrhundert gegründet. Hereditory Familiennamen, wodurch einzelne Personen identifiziert werden , wird in England seit dem 13. Jahrhundert angewendet, so dass Steuerzahlungen der Personen genau aufgezeichnet werden konnten. Es gibt einige alte Dokumente aus dem Jahr vor 1264 AD, die Zahlungen an William le Chandelor zur Besorgung von Wachs zur Herstellung von Kerzen für König Heinrich II, der auch als Heinrich von Winchester bekannt gemacht wurde, aufgezeichnet wurden. Drei Generationen der Familie Le Chandelor scheinen als Sergeants Königs zur Versorgung von Wachs und Kerzendochte des Königshauses verantwortlich gewesen sein. Sie hatten auch Verbindungen mit Winchester. Die Aufzeichnungen der Heraldik von der englischen Universität von Arms verbinden die generische Chaundelor / Chandler Wappen in die Normandie. Es gibt einen Datensatz einer Patent of Arms an William Chaundelor des Hyde Barton von Winton in 1565. Dieses Patent verfolgt seine Abstammung von John Chaundelor und seiner Frau Emme, die Tochter und Erbin von Richard Billet. Ihr Emblem enthält den heraldischen Pelican.

Die Chaundelors des Hyde Barton sind gedacht, um auf die Chaundeler Familie von Oare in Wiltshire in Beziehung gesetzt werden, einige von deren Nachkommen im 17. Jahrhundert nach Amerika ausgewandert. In ihrem Buch " Hyde from Dissolution to Victorian Suburb ", Prof. Grover von Winchester Universität hat einen Teil der Geschichte der Hyde Abbey und den Ländern des Hyde Barton, die jetzt Teil von einem nördlichen Vorort von Winchester Stadt aufgezeichnet. Hyde Abbey war ein wichtiger Benediktiner-Kloster, das die Kirche St. Bartholomäus und die Grabstätte von König Alfred dem Großen enthalten. Die Abtei besaß auch einige Felder wie Abbots Barton bekannt. Die Abtei geriet der Act of Supremacy, die König Heinrich VIII erklärte das Oberhaupt der Kirche und getrennt England vom päpstlichen Autorität. König Heinrich VIII brauchte Geld, um Kriege mit Frankreich und Schottland zu finanzieren. Die Auflösung der Klöster in England fand zwischen 1536 und 1541 als direkte Folge davon. Im Jahre 1535, König Heinrich befahl seinen Lordkanzler Thomas Cromwell, zur Durchführung einer Inspektion aller religiösen Einrichtungen im Land. Cromwell schickte Thomas Wriothesley nach Winchester, um die Schließung der Hyde Abbey überwachen. Wriothesley war ein Freund von Cromwell und wurde Lord Chancellor selbst in 1544. Er war Earl of Southampton erstellt und ist ein gutes Beispiel dafür, wie diejenigen in der Nähe des Königs waren in der Lage, sich zu bereichern. Wertvolle Metalle und beweglichen Elemente aus den Klöstern genommen in den Besitz der Regierung, aber auch andere Gegenstände wie Baustoffe wurden lokal versteigert und Wriothesley frei war, um das Land in Besitz zu nehmen. Er verpachtet den Hof von Abbots Barton zu einem lokalen Kaufmann namens Walter Chaundelor (1486 - 1546), der der Sohn von John und Emma Chaundelor war. Er war ein Wollhändler, im Verkehr mit dem Kloster vor der Auflösung hatten. Er war einer der reichsten Männer in Winchester und hielt die Büros der Chamberlain, Gerichtsvollzieher und Bürgermeister der Stadt. Drei Generationen der Familie vererbt Chaundelor Besitz Abbots Barton nach Walter. Sein Nachkomme Thomas war gezwungen, das Land im Jahre 1650 verkauft Thomas Chaundelor war ein Royalist und wegen seiner Treue zur Krone litt finanziell.

Mein Stammbaum geht auf zurückgeführt werden {\b Daniel Chandler}, der in Bramley in der Nähe von Guildford im Jahre 1659 getauft Er heiratete Elizabeth Dare, und sie zwei Söhne namens Daniel und John hatten. Daniel Senior wurde als "seiner Majestät Civil Service" beschrieben. Sein Vater kann genannt worden Richard, aber ich habe noch nicht in der Lage gewesen, um die Beziehung von Daniel Chandler Thomas Chaundelor des Hyde Barton zu etablieren.

{\b Daniel Chandler} (1687-1753). Daniel wurde in der St.-Nikolaus-Kirche in Guildford im Jahr 1687 getauft Er heiratete {\b Elizabeth More}, und sie zwei Söhne namens Daniel (1726-1791) hatte und Richard (1737-1810). Ich habe eine Kopie von Daniel Chandler Willen, vom 13. Januar 1752 von den nationalen Archiven erhalten. Er beschrieb seine Tätigkeit als Abteilungsleiter seiner Majestät Excise. Die Test-Act von 1673 erforderlich, alle Regierung Diener, um ein Zertifikat, von einem Geistlichen und drei Kirchenvorsteher Zeuge zur Verfügung, um zu bestätigen, dass sie die Gemeinschaft in der Kirche von England erhalten hatte. Dies war um Andersdenkende und Katholiken aus öffentlichen Ämtern zu verhindern. Ich erhielt eine Kopie von Daniels Sacrement Certificate datiert 1717 von den Hampshire County Council Archiv, das bestätigt, dass er eine Verbrauch Officer für die Pfarrei von Barton Stacey, und dass er in der St. Marybourne lebten. Steuern als Verbrauch auf Waren in diesem Land bekannt gemacht (zB Bier, Kerzen und insbesondere Wolle) wurden in England während des Bürgerkriegs eingeführt, um für Cromwells Armee zu bezahlen. Im Jahr 1660, nach der die Monarchie wieder hergestellt wurde, setzte der verhasste Steuer erhoben werden, um für die Kosten der Regierung und dem König zu zahlen. Während des 18. Jahrhunderts, die Hinterziehung von Abgaben und Schmuggel zu einer Industrie entwickelt. Smugglers wurden als "Owlers" bekannt, da der Alarmrufe sie in der Nacht eingesetzt. Southampton war ein geschäftiger Hafen und in der näheren Umgebung wurden Verbrauch Männer gebraucht.

In seinem Testament vermachte Daniel die Summe von fünf Schilling nur an seinen ältesten Sohn, der Reverend Daniel Chandler, denn er hatte schon Anteil eines Kindes auf seine Ausbildung aufgewendet. Er verließ seinen jüngeren Sohn, Richard Chandler, die meisten seiner poccession einschließlich seine Uhr, Goldknöpfen, markiert einen großen silbernen Löffel DC, eine silberne Schale, seinen Degen und zwei Paar Pistolen, seine Bücher über Kunst und Wissenschaft, seine mathematischen Instrumenten und Kleidung. Er vermachte seine geliebte Frau Elizabeth alle anderen Haushaltswaren nicht zu seinem Sohn Richard und auch die Summe von £ 25 angegeben. Er wies seine Treuhänder, seine guten Freunde John Brackstone und der Reverend Samuel Geschwindigkeit, ein Meister der Winchester Schule, um seinen Zaum zu verkaufen und zu satteln, das Geld, um zu dem Rest seines Vermögens in Vertrauen für seinen Sohn Richard, der ernannte er hinzugefügt werden sein alleiniger Testamentsvollstrecker. Richard noch minderjährig war, und seine Treuhänder ermächtigt, alle oder einen Teil der bleib des Anwesens für seine eduction und Wartung anzuwenden. Daniel Chandler starb im Jahre 1753 und wurde in der St. Michael-Kirche in Southampton begraben.

Sein Sohn, {\b Richard Chandler} (1737 - 1810) wurde bei Elson in Hampshire im Jahre 1737 geboren und wuchs in Alverstoke getauft. Er war ein klassischer Gelehrter, und er reiste weit als junger Mann. Seine alten College in Oxford hat folgende Informationen über ihn gestellt. Er trat in Queens College, Oxford Mai 1755, und wurde sein demyship am Magdalen College in 1757 gewährt wurde er ein Gefährte des Kollegiums in 1770. Während in Oxford, mehrere Werke über Antiquitäten einschließlich seiner Marmora Oxoniensia veröffentlichte er im Jahre 1763. Er war an die Gesellschaft der Dilettanten im Jahre 1764 eingeführt und zu einer Expedition in Kleinasien und Griechenland geschickt. Die Dilettanti Society wurde als London Dining Club im Jahre 1732 von einer Gruppe von Adligen und Herren, die auf der gewesen war, gründete "Grand Tour". Horace Walpole beschrieb es als "einen Verein, für die die Nenn Qualifikation wird mit in Italien gewesen, und die reale, betrunken zu sein: die beiden Häuptlinge sind Lord Middlesex und Sir Francis Dashwood, die selten nüchtern die ganze Zeit, die sie in Italien waren, waren ". Sir Joseph Banks war auch ein Mitglied. Als junger Mann, Richard Chandler offensichtlich auf sich aufmerksam. Es wurde gesagt, dass er die Augen Setzen und es war zauberhaft zu hören, ihm zu sprechen. Er war das Kommando über die Expedition, die am 9. Juni 1764 von Gravesend schiffte Sie verbrachten mehr als ein Jahr in Kleinasien und besucht Athen, wo Chandler düster beachten, dass der Parthenon war in Gefahr, völlig zerstört gegeben. Er war in der Lage, zwei Fragmente des Parthenon-Fries, die in Häusern in der Stadt gebaut worden war zu kaufen. Sie mussten nach England im November 1766 zurück, weil einige von der Partei waren in einem schlechten Gesundheitszustand. Sein Tagebuch auf der Expedition, die er bei seiner Rückkehr veröffentlichte, machte seinen Ruf als Antiqua. Als Ergebnis dieser Expedition veröffentlichte die Society die "Ionian Antiquities", die einen großen Einfluss auf Neoklassizismus in Großbritannien hatte. Richard Chandler war ein Senior Proctor von der Universität Oxford im Jahre 1772 für sein Buch gemacht und promo Batchelor of Divinity und seinen Doktortitel im Jahre 1773. Er arbeitete an den alten Archiven in Oxford mit seinem Freund und Kollegen, der Reverend Gilbert White, bekannt geworden "Die Natural History of Selborne. " Richard Chandler schrieb eine Biographie über den Gründer der Magdalen College, William Waynflete, die immer noch von Wissenschaftlern der Universität heute verwendet wird. Er wird als ein wichtiges akademisches 200 Jahre nach seinem Tod zu betrachten, als ich herausfand, als ich besuchte seinen alten College im Jahr 2014. Ich war in der Lage, sie mit einem Foto von der Miniatur-Silhouette von ihm, für die sie waren sehr dankbar, wie zu schaffen, die Universität hat kein anderes Bild von ihm. Er ist der einzige Mitglied der Familie, der einen Eintrag in der Oxford Dictionary of National Biography hat.

{\b Richard Chandler }verheiratete sich mit {\b Benigna Dorrien} in St. Marylebone 1785. Die Familie Dorrien war preußisch und kam nach England im Jahre 1672. Friedrich Dorrien gründet die Dorrien & Mello Bank, die spätere Glyn Mills. Er verlieh dem Dorrien Ward an der London Hospital. Benigna Dorrien war die Tochter seines Sohnes Liebert Dorrien und seine Frau Catherine. Nach ihrer Heirat, verbrachten die Chandlers den Winter in Nimes in Frankreich und besuchte auch die Schweiz. Richard und Benigna hatten zwei Kinder, einen Sohn namens {\b William Berkeley}, und eine Tochter namens {\b Georgina}. Beide Kinder wurden in der Schweiz geboren. Richard und Benigna reisten nach Italien im Jahr 1787, nach Florenz und Rom, wo Richard Handschriften der griechischen Testamente im Vatikan studierte. Nach seiner Rückkehr, gab ihm die Universität Oxford das Rektorat und Pfarrhaus von Tilehurst in Berkshire im Jahr 1800. Er starb in Tilehurst am 9. Februar 1810.

833. Schreiben der Stadt Plauen 1995
Sehr geehrte Fam. Kimmel, bezogen auf Ihre Anfrage, nach Ihrem Vater Oswald Hugo Dörry betreffend , können wir Ihnen folgendes mitteilen.
Herrr Oswald Hugo Dörry wurd am 13.11.1911 in Kromlau, Landkreis Weißwasser geboren.
Herr Dörry kam mit Frau und Tochter 1956 nach Plauen. 1957 verzog Herr Dörry nach Kottgeisering/Fürstenfeldbruck und 1958 weiter nach Memmelsdorf.
Es gibt zwei Orte mit dem Namen Memmelsdorf.
Wir konnten nicht in Erfahrung bringen , wo sich Herr Dörry aufhielt. Seine Spur verliert sich mit der damaligen Abmeldung in Kottgeisering.
Laut Aussage des Standesamtes in seinem Geburtsort Kromlau lebt Herr Dörry noch, es gibt keinen Eintrag für sein Ableben.
Frau Dörry, verh. Beym und die gemeinsame Tochter Petra Dörry sind bereits verstorben.

Dorrien, Liebert Hieronymus, 1742-1814, Officer, Broder til den foregaaende, indtraadte 1763 i dansk Militærtjeneste som frivillig ved fynske gevorbne Dragonregiment, utvivlsomt ved Hjælp af Bekjendtskab til Regimentets daværende Chef, Grev C. F. Gørtz, der betegner ham som "et ungt, for Tjenesten vel anlagt Menneske, der ved sit Kjendskab til fremmede Sprog og sin Færdighed i Skrivning er meget duelig til Adjudanttjeneste, og som man kan gjøre en god Officer ud af". Sandsynligvis ved samme formaaende Forbindelse blev han allerede 1765, uden at det kan ses, at han har beklædt nogen mellemliggende Lieutenantsstilling, udnævnt til Sekondkapitajn, hvilken Grad forandredes til Ritmester, da Afdelingen senere fik Navn af fynske Regiment Ryttere; 1781 blev han Major, 1790 Oberstlieutenant og i denne Egenskab forsat til Husarregimentet som næstkommanderende. 1803 ved den nationale Hærreforms Ikrafttræden avancerede han med Forbigaaelse af Oberstgraden til Generalmajor i Kavalleriet og udnævntes til 2. Deputeret i Generalitetskollegiet. Da Christian VII med Statsraadet og nogle af Regeringsdepartementerne i Avg. 1807 ved det engelske Overfald lod Residensen forlægge først til Kolding, senere til Rensborg, fulgte D. med som Chef for Generalitetets saakaldte rensborgske Afdeling. Ved Tilbagekomsten blev han 1. Deputeret, hvilken Post han beklædte indtil sin Død, 27. Marts 1814. Han var gift med Margrethe Cathrine f. Adrian og efterlod sig af dette Ægteskab 3 ugifte Døtre.

Liebert Hieronymus Dorrien 1742-1814,
Offizier, Bruder des vorstehenden [John D.], trat 1763 in dä. Militärdiensten als Freiwilliger bei den Fühnschen Geworbenen Dragonern, wohl geholfen von dem ihm bekannten damal. Chef des Regiments Graf C.F.Görtz Wohl wieder von demselben geholfen avanciert er schon 1765 zum Secondlieutnant, dann Rittmeister, als die Abteilung später in Fünsches Reiter-Regiment umbenannt wird.
Die nächsten Beförderungen bis zum zweiten Kommandierenden des Husarregiments.
1803 überspringt er wieder ein paar Grade und wird Generalmajor der Kavallerie und 2. Deputierter des Generalitätskollegiums.
Mit dem Überfall der Engländer auf Kopenhagen 1807 liess der König die Residenz erst nach Kolding verlegen, dann nach Rendsburg und D. folgte als Chef der sog. Rendsburger Abteilung der Generalität..
Nach der Rückkehr wurde er erster Deputierter - bis zu seinem Tode 27.3.1814.
Er war mit Margrethe Cathrine geb. Adrian verheiratet und hinterliess aus dieser Ehe 3 unverheiratete Töchter.

Dorrien, Johan, 1746-1813, Officer, er født i Hamborg og Søn af en derværende Kjøbmand, Johan Ludvig D. (f. 1708 d. 1754); Moderen var født Matthiesen. Slægten skal oprindelig være engelsk, og dens Stamtræ kan føres tilbage til det 16. Aarhundrede. Ved Adelsbrev af 15. April 1776 blev saa vel J. D. som den ældre, ndfr. nævnte Broder, Liebert Hieronymus, af Kejser Joseph II optaget i den tyske Rigsadel. 1770 var J. D., om hvis Ungdom intet nærmere kjendes, dansk Kadet og blev s. A. Sekondlieutenant i holstenske Regiment Dragoner - senere Ryttere -, 1777 Premierlieutenant og 1783 Ritmester. 1788 blev han Major ved akershusiske Dragoner, Aaret efter forsat i samme Egenskab til fynske Dragoner og 1791 som Oberstlieutenant til holstenske Ryttere, ved hvilket Regiment han 1803 blev Oberst og næstkommanderende. 1806 udnævntes han til Chef for jyske Regiment lette Dragoner og førte s. A. Kommandoen over en Rytterbrigade ved Sydgrænsen. Ved Krigens Udbrud 1807 havde han først Befalingen over flere Detachementer af alle Vaabenarter, spredte mellem Slien og Ejderen, senere kommanderede han i Mellemslesvig under Carl af Hessen. 1808 blev han Generalmajor og Chef for holstenske Regiment Ryttere, og ved Hærens Mobilisering i 1812 udnævntes han til Kommandør for 2. Brigade i den "bevægelige Armédivision". Han kom dog ikke til at deltage i det følgende Aars krigerske Begivenheder, thi Sygelighed nødte ham til at søge Orlov fra Juni 1813, og 18. Okt. s. A. døde han. D. var en pligtopfyldende, af Frederik VI skattet Officer. Han var gift med Sophie Amalie f. Stemann, f. 23. Maj 1765, Datter af Statsminister, Gehejmeraad m. m. Christian Ludvig S. og første Hustru, Augusta Elisabeth f. Müller. Han efterlod sig 7 Børn, af hvilke en af Sønnerne, Liebert Hieronymus, ved Patent af 24. Avg. 1845 optoges for sig og Efterkommere i den danske Adelstand.

1. Hans Dörrien, Bürgermeister von Hildesheim 1)
"Der Weil Ehrnveste u. Bürgermeister Hans Dörring S. ist Anno 1571 Sontags nach Liechtmessen, war de 6. Februarij, zwischen 9 und 10 Uhren, von fürnehmen Gottsfürchtigen ehrlichen Eltern in diese Welt geboren. Sein Vater ist gewest, Herr Jacob Dörring, fürnehmer Handelßman und Bürger hieselbst. Seine Mutter, Ilsabe Wilkens, deß auch Fürachtbaren und Wolbekandten Hansen Wilkens S. Eheleibliche Tochter.")
"Diese Gottselige Eltern haben ihn so bald durch die Heilige Tauffe dem Herrn Christo zugetragen . . . in der Zucht und Vermahnung zum Herrn aufferzogen . . . anfangs zur Schule fleißig gehalten . . . wie er in etwas erwachsen und zum Kauffhandel Lust gehabt," wird er nach Leipzig, dann nach Nürnberg und später nach den Niederlanden und Spanien geschickt. Er unternimmt von dort aus eine beschwerliche Reise nach Brasilien und besucht nach seiner Rückkehr seine Eltern; dann begibt er sich wieder nach Holland, Wälsch-Brabant, Flandern und den angrenzenden Provinzen, auch nach Frankreich und England und blieb dort einige Jahre als Kaufmann tätig, wo er "allenthalben sich Ehrlich, Aufrichtig, und derogestalt verhalten, das er von jedermann gerühmt, geliebet und geehret worden."
Später beriefen ihn seine Eltern nach Hause zurück und er vermählte sich am 20. Februar 1599 auf deren Rat und Gutachten mit der "Erbaren und Tugendsamen Jungfrau Anna Bex, Herrn Hans' Bex sel. Fürnehmen Handelßmans in Hildesheim Ehelicher Tochter," mit der er an die dreißig Jahre eine "geruhige, friedfertige und Gott wolgefääige Ehe" führte und in derselben durch göttlichen Segen einen Sohn und zwei Töchter erzeuget, so noch am Leben.
"In wehrendem seinem Ehestande, hat er sich darauff, zu seinem ansehnlichen Gewandt- und Wollenhandel begeben, und desselben mit allen Fleiß gewartet."
Außer seinem Anwesen in der Altstadt besaß er auch einen Garten im Gebiete der Neustadt hinter der Domprobstei. Diesen hatte er von Sander Blecker gekauft und es wird ihm, scheinbar nach längeren Streitigkeiten, am 21. März 1612 vom Bürgermeister und Rat der Neustadt Hildesheim bestätigt, daß er den Weg zu seinem Garten hinter der Domprobstei in der Mitte fünf Fuß oder Schu benutzen und Weiden, die ihm abgehauen sind, an seinem Garten pflanzen darf 2). Seine Witwe hatte später noch Schwierigkeiten wegen eines Wassergangs in Berndt Nöldecks Garten oder über dessen Hof 3).
Er bekleidete allerhand Stadt-Ämter zu Hildesheim und hatte dadurch bicht geringe Müheverwaltungen. 1601 wurde er zum Provisor und Vorsteher der Kirche S. Andreae erwählt und verwaltete dieses Amt "continue" 13 Jahre. 1608 wurde er für mehrere Jahre an E. E. Raths-Apotheken-Amt gesetzt, 1609 4) hat man ihn in E.E. Raths Oldermans-Stuhl der Gemeinde erwählt, 1614 kam er in den Vierundzwanzigmans-Stuhl, später stand er etliche Jahre mit besonderem Fleiß der Cämmerei vor, bis er 1624 zum Regierenden Bürgermeister von Hildesheim erkoren wurde.
In diesem Amte wird besonders von ihm gerühmt, "das er jederman gerne gehöret und bescheid gegeben, und sich sonsten auch für gemeine Stad sorgfeltig und gegen jedermänniglich bescheidentlich verhalten und gezeiget."
Er war ein besonderer Liebhaber von Gottes Wort und ging häufig zur Kirche und zum Abendmahl.
Am Sonntag vor 14 Tagen hat er sich etwas Schwach befunden und, weil es sich zu guter Besserung angelassen, und man allerhand Mittel Gebraucht und errhofft, daß es keine Gefahr mehr haben sollte, so hat es sich doch am Sonnabend darauf verschlechtert, sodaß er an die Prediger geschickt hat, damit die Gemeinde des Herrn fleißig für ihn bitten wolle.
Trotzdem ist er die Nacht darauf so schwach und krank geworden, daß er seinen Beichtvater und seine nächsten Verwandten zu sich kommen ließ. Dann hat die Schwachheit so sehr überhand genommen, daß er bei klarer Vernunft und Verstande den Sontag zwischen 8 und 9 Uhr in aller Stille, als wenn er eingeschlafen wäre, von dieser Welt abschied.

Seine Gattin Anna Bex 1)
War 1575 am Feste der Reinigung Mariae, das ist am 2. Februar, in Hildesheim von "Ehrbaren, Christlichen, fürnehmen Eltern geboren. Ihr Vater war der Weiland Ehrvest, Fürachtbar und Wollweiser Herr Hans Bex, Fürnehmer Bürger und Ratsverwandter. Ihre Sel. Mutter ist gewesen Fraw Clara Nessel von Fürnehmen Leuten in Niederland enstsprossen.

Großvater von Vaters wegen: "der Weiland Ehrnvest, Großachtbar und Hochweiser Herr Hans Bex, Wollverdienter Bürgermeister in Maseick im Niederland. Dessen Seel. Ehefraw Elizabeth Jentes, eine Fraw von Ehr, Tugend und gutem rühmlichem Namen."

Großvater auf der Mutter Seiten: "der Weiland Ehrnvester und hochweiser Herr Johann Nessel, wollbenamter Bürgermeister der Niederländischen Stadt Maseick. Dessen Ehefraw Catharina von Mewen aus fürnehnem Adelichen Geschlecht in den Niederlanden", das dort noch 1649 blühte. Das Wappen der Hildesheimer Familie Bex, das u. a. an dem 1598 erbauten hause des Hans Storren am markte, jetzt Sparkasse, angebracht ist, war gespalten, vorn in Silber drei grüne Blätter, hinten in Blau ein goldenes Ankerkreuz, dessen Enden in Schlangenköpfe ausgehen. Helmzier zwei wachsende goldene Schlangen. Die niederländische Familie Bex, die in einem Zweige nach Leipzig kam, führte in Blau ein goldenes Schlangen-Ankerkreuz, darauf ein Herzschild: in Silber drei grüne Blätter. Auf dem helme ein goldenes Meerweibchen.

Ihre Eltern würden ihrer ansehlichen Stellung wegen in den Niederlanden geblieben sein, wenn sie nicht wegen der Religionsverfolgungen des Herzogs von Alba hätten flüchten müssen; sie hielten ihre Religion höher als zeitliche Wohlfahrt und verließen das geliebte Vaterland, Haus und Hof, um ihren Glauben nicht zu verleugnen, und kamen nach Hildesheim in der Hoffnung, später nach Hause zurückkehren zu können. Als die Verfolgungen länger dauerten, erwarben die Eltern für sich und ihre in Maseick geborenen Kinder das Hildesheimer Bürgerrecht; bald darauf wurde ihre Tochter Anna Bex geboren. Sie wurde zu "Christlichen Jungfräwlichen Tugenden in der Furcht Gottes" erzogen und besonders zu guter Haushaltung so angeleitet, daß sie, wie die ganze Nachbarschaft bezeuget, auch bis ins hohe Alter eine tugendhafte, fleißige Hausmutter geblieben ist.

Am 20. Februar 1599 ist sie von ihrem Vater, da ihre Mutter schon tot war, an den späteren Bürgermeister Hans Dörring ehelich ausgesteuert, mit dem sie 30 Jahre "Christlich, friedlich und Gottselig" gelebt hat und ihm drei wohlgeratene Kinder, einen Sohn und zwei Töchter schenkte, die alle drei glücklich verheiratet waren, wovon aber eine Tochter am 18. Juli 1640 im Kindbett verstorben ist, die beiden übrigen sind an dem Sterbelager ihrer Mutter zugegen gewesen. Sie hat 24 Enkelkinder gesehen, von denen bei ihrem Tode noch 13 am Leben waren. Am 20. August 1629 starb ihr Mann, der Bürgermeister Hans Dörring; ihren Witwenstand brachte sie, "wie es einer Christlichen Ehrbaren Matron rühmlich und woll anstehet", zu und "überwand manch schweres Creutz und Ungemach durch Gotteshülff mit guter Christlicher Gedult".

Sie hat sich fleißig zu Gottes Wort und zum Heiligen Abendmahl gehalten, gerne die Armen unterstützt und sich nicht in ihrem Wohlstande überhoben, sondern demütig still un eingezogen gelebt.

Fünf Wochen vor ihrem Tode, am 25. August, wurde die Bürgermeisterin schwach und bettlägerig; sie ließ Kirchengebete für sich verrichten und versäumte nicht, die verschriebenen Arzneien, sogar aus der Fremde, kommen zu lassen. Dennoch stellten sich Angstzustände und Herzbeklemmungen ein, die sie durch Beten zu vertreiben suchte. Bei ihrem Alter hatte sie nicht die Widerstandskraft gegen die damit verbundenen Schwächezustände, so daß sie am Montag, den 17. September 1649, Abends nach sechs Uhr sanft entschlief. "Es erinnert mich der heutige Tag, daß Sie an demselbigen als heut für 16 Jahren, einen großen Teil solcher Angst geschmecket, da ihr beim Trauerstunde dieses Orts, dergestalt Feindlich zugesetzet, daß sie daher fast tödtlich befallen, und an ihr Jammer und Elend gesehen worden." Diese Bemerkung bezieht sich auf die Plünderung Hildesheims bei der Eroberung durch die Pappenheimschen Schaaren, deren auch in der Biographie ihrer Tochter Margarethe Lüdecke, geborenen Dörrien, und ihrer angeheirateten Enkelin Ilse Margarethe Dörrien, geborenen Tappen, gedacht ist.

Die Kinder des Bürgermeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Bex waren:

2. Hans Dörrien, Riedemeister.
3. Margarethe Dörrien, Gattin des Justus Lüdecke.
4. Ilse Dörrien, Gattin des Carol Stisser.

2. Hans Dörrien, Riedemeister zu Hildesheim 1).

Hans Dorrien ist geboren 1631 den 31. Juli zwischen 11 und 12 Uhr mittags. Seine Eltern, der Bürgermeister Hanns Dorrien und Anna Bex sind aus den vorigen Abhandlungen bekannt; vom Großvater Jacob Dörrien wird erwähnt, daß er fürnehmer Bürger und Handelsmann in Hildesheim gewesen sei, seine Frau Ilse Wilkens war die nachgelassene Tochter des weiland Bürgers und Kaufhändlers in Hildesheim Hans Wilckens. Die Ahnen von Mutters Seite stimmten mit den in ihrer Leichenrede angegebenen überein. Der spätere Riedemeister wurde gleich nach seiner Geburt getauft, christlich erzogen und besuchte die Schule in Hildesheim, bis ihn sein vater 1619 in die Lehre nach Hamburg schickte, wo er sich im Schreiben und Rechnen üben sollte; von dort aus kam er wieder nach Hause, dann ging er 1620 nach Cöln am Rhein und weiter nach Bergen im Hennegau, wo er ein Jahr blieb, von dort zog er nach Rouen und Paris, um diese und andere große Städte Frankreichs kennen zu lernen. Nach dieser Reise wandte er sich zurück nach Antorff (Antwerpen) in Brabant und hielt sich dort eine Zeitlang bei seines Vaters Faktor auf, reiste dann aber durch Flandern und Holland in die Heimat zurück. Nachdem er eine Zeitlang zu Hause geblieben war, schickten ihn seine Eltern zur weiteren kaufmännischen Ausbildung abermals nach Amsterdam und von dort unternahm er eine Reise nach London und besichtigte die größeren Städte Englands. Nach der Vollendung dieser Reise kehrte er abermals nach Hause zurück und traf seine Eltern bei guter Gesundheit und Wohlstand an, die sich über die Wiederkehr ihres einzigen Sohnes sehr freuten.

"Mit weisem Rat und einmütigen Consens und Willen seiner herzlichen Eltern" begab er sich am 22. August 1626 in den Ehestand mit der Ehrbaren und Vieltugendreichen Jungfer Anna Kegel, des Jurisconsulten und Syndicus zu Hildesheim Christian Kegel Tochter, mit der er 35 Jahre in "recht Wolgeratener ehelichen hertzgründlichen Liebe" lebte. Er zeugte mit ihr acht Söhne und fünf Töchter, wovon zwei Söhne und zwei Töchter "diese Welt noch in blühenden jungen Jahren gesegnet", einer von den überlebenden Söhnen "in die Fremde den Studils obzuliegen geschicket." Für eine fromme christliche Erziehung der Kinder sorgte der Riedemeister und seine Frau und hatte die Freude, zu seinen Lebzeiten noch fünf von ihnen verheiratet zu sehen.

Nach der Familientradition sollen um 1629 zuerst die Manns-Lehen der Dörrien von den Familien von Stopler und von Rössing empfangen worden sein; obwohl darüber in Hildesheim garnichts zu finden ist, so steht doch fest, daß später alle Linien, die vom Riedemeister abstammen, die gesamte Hand an den Lehen gehabt haben, so daß man ihn schon als Ersterwerber dieser Lehenstücke ansehen muß.

Von seinem christlichen Lebenswandel wird fast dasselbe erwähnt, wie bei seinen Eltern, daß er Gottes Wort von Herzen geliebt und sich zur Predigt und zum Heiligen Abendmahl zum öfteren eingefunden, auch die Seinigen dazu angehalten habe. "Im Leben und Wandel ist er Redlich und Auffrichtig gewesen, Zancksucht und Weitleufftigkeit in Weltlichen Sachen und Geschefften ist Er von Hertzen feind gewesen, gestalt er dann zu Vermeidung unnötiger Weiterung lieber in Güte sivh anschicken, als in Weitleufftigkeit sich vertiefen, und also mit jederman gerne in Friede und Freundschaft leben wollen." Er war mit einem guten Verstande begabt und zeigte sich freundlich gegen Jedermann nach Standes Gebühr, sodaß ihm verschiedene Ehrenämter übertragen wurden. Er kam in den Oldermans 2) und in den Achtzehnmanns-Stuhl seiner Vaterstadt als Segger 3) oder Wrthalter, wurde Ratsherr, endlich Riedemeister 4) und schließlich, als er sich schon wegen Schwachheit lieber ins Privatleben zurückziehen wollte, noch einmal "Herr des Raths."

Sein Aussehen ließ nicht vermuten, daß er mit Krankheit zu tun hatte 5); dennoch war er die letzten drei Jahre seines Lebens häufig von Krankheit heimgesucht. 14 Tage vor seinem Tode har er wieder einen Anfall bekommen, hat sich aber nicht sofort gelegt, sondern nur Arzneien, die ihm die Ärzte verschrieben, eingenommen. Schließlich nahm die Schwachheit zu, sodaß er sogar den Gebrauch der Sprache verlor und er entschlief sanft im Beisein der Seinigen am Sonnabend den 20. Juli 1661 zwischen 11 und 12 Uhr mittags, seines Alters 60 Jahre weniger 11 Tage, nachdem er "zu 13 Kindern Vater und zu 13 Kindern Großvater geworden war."

Seine Gattin Anna Kegel 6) wurde zu Hildesheim am 14. September 1610 als Tochter des "Wol Edlen, Vest und Hochgelahrten Herrn Christian Kegels 7), fürnehmen J. Ctus und (36 Jahre lang) wolverdienten Syndicus der Stadt Hildesheim, und der Wol Edlen, viel Ehr und Hochtugendreichen Frau Barbara Ohlms 8) geboren". Ihre väterlichen Großeltern war der "Wol Ehren veste, Vorachtbare und Wolweise Herr Hans Kegel, fürnehmer Rathsherr und Cämmerer der Stadt Goslar und die Ehrn- und Vieltugendsame Frau Anna Berningerods;" die mütterlichen Großeltern der "Wol Ehren veste, Vorachtbare und Mannhafte Herr Wolter Ohlm 9) und die Ehr- und Vieltugendsame Frau Anna von Dam 10) aus dem ansehlichen Patricier-Geschlechte derer von Dam" in der benachbarten Stadt Braunschweig.

Nach den üblichen Bemerkungen über Taufe und christliche Erziehung wird von ihrer Ehe und ihren Kindern das Gleiche wie bei ihrem Manne berichtet, außer daß bereits eine dritte Tochter (Catharina von Hagen) verstorben ist und sich zwei Söhne in der Fremde bei den Studien und im Kaufhandel aufhalten.

"Ihr geführtes Christentum betreffend, ist männiglichen dieses Orts gnugsam bekannt, wie sie eine rechte Gottsehlige Matron gewesen, die nicht allein daheim sambt den lieben Ihrigen und Angehörigen allerseits eines wahren Christenthum sich befliß en, fleißig in heiliger Schrift gelesen, Gott und das liebe Gebet stets vor Augen gehalten, sondern auch den offentlichen Gottesdienst nach allen eussersten Vermögen bey ihrer sorgfältigen Kinderzucht und schwerer Haußhaltung gerne abgewartet, und so wol das gesinde als ihre Kinder in guter Zucht und Vermahnung zum Herrn anerinnert und erzogen, danebst jedermänniglich mit guter Freud und Gottsehligkeit und aller Christlichen Bezeugung ihrem Neben-Christen wie auch der lieben Armuth begegnet, daß dahero ihr ein langes Leben wol zu wünschen gewesen."

Sie war dreiviertel Jahr krank, die angewandten Medicamente halfen ihr nichts, ihre gute Natur, ihr äußerliches Aussehen und ihre ziemlichen Leibeskräfte unterlagen schließlich der Krankheit, so daß sie endlich am Montag, den 24. Februar zwischen 10 und 11 Uhr vormittags nach langer schwerer Krankheit, aber eines sanften Todes starb.

Die Kinder des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegel waren:

5. Hans Christian Dörrien, Riedemeister zu Hildesheim.
6. Jobst Dörrien, Ratsverwandter zu Hildesheim.
7. Hinrich Ernst Dörrien.

3. Margareta Dörrien 1) ist am 14. Oktober 1603 als Tochter des Bürgermeisters Hanß Dörrien und der Anna Bex geboren. Die Ahnen bis auf den Großvater väterlicher Seits "den Wol-Ehren vesten und Wolfürnehmen Herrn Jacob Dörrien, Vornehmen Kauf- und Handelsmann in Hildesheim, ergeben sich aus der Leichenpredigt für ihren Bruder, den Riedemeister Hans Dörrien. "Der Eltervater von des Vaters Vatern Seiten war Herman Dörrien, Bürgermeister der Stadt Alvelde, die Eltermutter von derselben Seite, die Ehr- und Tugendsame Fraue Lucia Steins; Der Eltervater von des Vaters Mutter wegen der Wol-Ehrenvester und Wolfürnehmer Herr Hanß Wilckens, vornehmer Kauf- und Handelsmann in Hildesheim, die Eltermutter von dieser Seite die Ehr- und Viel-Tugendreiche Frau Ilsa Krohnen." Die Ahnen von mütterlicher Seite sind genau wie in der Leichenrede auf Anna Dörrien, geb. Bex, aufgeführt. Dann folgen die üblichen Angaben über ihre Taufe, ihre christliche und wirtschaftliche Erziehung. Am 4. September 1627 heiratete sie den Patrizier Justus Lüdeke, mit dem sie 28 Jahre in friedfertiger Ehe gelebt hat, und dem sie zwei Söhne und zwei Töchter schenkte, von denen der älteste Sohn und die älteste Tochter nur ein kurzes Alter erreichten, die beiden jüngeren aber noch am Leben waren, als sie starb, und sie in ihrer letzten Krankheit treu gepflegt haben. Während ihres glückhaften Ehestandes hatte sie das schwere Geschick zu tragen, daß ihr bei der Pappenheimschen Eroberung alle ihre Mobilien genommen wurden, und sie mit den Ihrigen aus der Stadt vertrieben wurde. Einige Jahre später (1665) starb ihr Mann. Von ihren christlichen Tugenden wird besonders ihre Mildtätigkeit gegen die Armen hervorgehoben.

Obwohl sie einige Male früher krank gewesen war, haben sich ihre Krankheiten doch meistens bald gelegt, bis sie sechs Wochen vor ihrem Tode auf ein schweres Krankenlager geworfen wurde. Ihre Krankheit äußerte sich in Seitenstechen, Herzbeklemmungen, Schwachheit des magens und Zittern am ganzen Leibe. Drei Wochen vor ihrem Tode nahm sie das heilige Abendmahl und hielt trotz ihrer großen Angstzustände in Geduld an ihrem christlichen Glauben fest. Als sie nicht mehr sprechen konnte, antwortete sie durch Zeichen dem Zusprechen ihres beichtvaters. Sie starb sanft am Freitag, den 13. Dezember 1672 im Alter von 69 Jahren, acht Wochen und vier Tagen, nachdem "sie zu vier Kindern Mutter und zu drey Kindern Großmutter geworden."

4. Ilse Dörrien 1)
ist am 21. November 1604 als Tochter des Bürgermeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Bex geboren. Ihre Ahnen sind bekannt durch die ihrer Eltern und Geschwister. Über ihre Taufe und christliche sowie hauswirtschaftliche Erziehung folgen dann die üblichen Angaben. Am 20. September 1631 heiratete sie mit rat und Einwilligung ihrer Mutter den Fürstlich Braunschweig-Lüneburgischen Amts- und Kloster-Sekretär Harr Carl Stisser, mit dem sie "in geruhiger Ehe an die neun Jahr recht Christ- und friedlich gelebet", und dem sie drei Töchter und vier Söhne bescherte, von denen zwei Töchter und ein Sohn vor der Mutter starben und eine Tochter und ein Sohn am 18. Juli 1640 geboren wurden, was der Mutter das Leben kostete.

Die Familie Stisser war eine alte Gelehrten- und Beamtenfamilie, die aus Halle a. d. S. stammte, sich später auch in Niedersachsen ausgebreitet hat und in einem Zweige geadelt wurde.

5. Der Riedemeister Hans Christian Dörrien) ist als Sohn des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegels am 28. Mai 1627 nachts kurz nach 11 Uhr geboren. Seine vier aufgeführten Ahnen sind aus den Leichenreden für seine Eltern ersichtlich. Der Familienname für seine mütterliche Großmutter wird hier nicht Ohlm, sondern Ohlemb geschrieben.

Da er Lust zur Kaufmannschaft hatte, schickten ihn seine Eltern 1644 nach Hamburg, damit er dort Rechnen und Schreiben lerne, und 1645 nach Amsterdam zu einem vornehmen Kauf- und Handelsmann, um dort die Handlung zu erlernen. Er blieb bei diesem fast vier Jahr, machte dann Reisen in Holland und kehrte 1649 nach Hildesheim zurück.Dort fing er ein eigenes Geschäft an und verheiratete sich am 10. Mai 1653 mit Anna Margaretha Storren, die ihm am 10. April 1654 noch vor Endigung des ersten Jahres ihres Ehestandes ohne Leibeserben durch den Tod entrissen wurde. Er blieb sieben Jahre Witwer, doch erforderte es sein Hauswesen und sein Geschäft sich wieder zu verheiraten, seine Wahl fiel daher auf Ilsa Margaretha Tappen, Wittwe des Dr. med. und Arztes Johann Rhesen, die er am 21. Aug. 1660 heimführte.

Diese Ehe war mit fünf Söhnen und zwei Töchtern gesegnet, von denen zwei Söhne jung starben, die ältere Tochter heiratete Christopherus Jacobus Blume, ehemals Prediger der Michaelisgemeinde in Hildesheim, später Pastor am St. Catharinen in Braunschweig, die jüngere Tochter wurde 1691 "noch in der Frembde in allen Jungfräulichen Sitten und Tugenden erzogen." Nach zwölfjähriger Ehe starb auch diese zweite Gattin Hans Christians am 2. Sept. 1672 und er schritt am 9. Sept. 1673 zu einer dritten Ehe mit Maria Vortmann, der Witwe des Bürgermeisters der Neustadt Hildesheim Heidenreich Gerhard. Aus dieser dritten Ehe stammte ein Sohn, der jung verstarb; auch seine dritte Frau, "die er wie sein Hertz geliebet", verschied am 14. Mai 1684 und machte ihn dadurch zum dritten Male zum Witwer.

1662, als er sich erst drei Jahre häuslich in Hildesheim niedergelassen hatte, wurde er "von den Herren Achtzehn-Männern in den löblichen Rathstuhl erhoben", im Dezember 1676 wurde er zum Riedemeister gewählt, welches Amt er bis zu seinem Tode bekleidete. Schließlich wurde er noch Rats-Senior.

Von seinem christlichen Lebenswandel wird besonders hervorgehoben, daß er die Predigt nicht nur Sonntags, sondern auch in der Woche fleißig besucht, auch das heilige Abendmahl öfters im Jahre genossen habe. Seine Wohltätigkeit gegen die Armen hat ihm viele Verehrer geschaffen.

Über seine Krankheitsgeschichte ist ein ausführlicher Bericht gegeben. Fünf jahre vor seinem Tode wurde er von einer Pleuritide und hitzigen Brust-Seuche befallen, diese verzog sich aber von der Brust auf die Beine, "vermittelst einer oedematischen Beingeschwulst, dadurch materia peccans a partibus nobilioribus ad ignobiliores gewichen." Doch blieb dieses Beinleiden, das in Geschwüren zum Ausbruch kam, bestehen und verursachte ihm große Schmerzen. Dazu kam noch ein gefährliches Asthma humorosum und Nierensteine, die ihm viel zu schaffen machten. Wenige Wochen vor seinem Tode stellte sich eine gefährliche Ischaria und suppressio urinae ein, die ihn sehr hart mitnahmen, jedoch wurde durch das geschickte Eingreifen eines Chirurgen die Urethra wieder geöffnet. Als schon die beste Aussicht auf glückliche Genesung war, hat sich wieder ein großer Stein abgelöst, doch ist der Riedemeister zu schwach gewesen, einen abermaligen operativen Eingriff auszuhalten, sodaß er am Mittwoch, den 14. Januar 1691, nachmittags zwischen 3 und 4 Uhr, unter großen Schmerzen, doch sanft verschied. Er war 63 Jahre, 7 Monate, zwei Wochen und vier Tage alt und war zu acht Kindern vater, zu fünf Kindern Großvater gewesen.

Seine erste Frau Anna Margaretha Storren 1) ist zu Hildesheim am 16. Aug. 1631 früh zwischen 3 und 4 Uhr als Tochter des Riedemeisters und Ratsseniors Hans Storre 2) und der Helena Tappen 3) geboren. Ihre Großeltern väterlicherseits waren der Handelsmann zu Hildeheim Hans Storre 4) und Margaretha Bex 5), die mütterlicherseits der Ratsverwandte und Handelsmann zu Hildesheim Friedrich Tappen 6) und Ilse von Hagen 7).

Nach einer sorgfältigen christlichen Erziehung heiratete sie am 10. Mai 1653 den Handelsmann Johann Christian Dörringen, obwohl sie schon etliche Monate vor ihrer Hochzeit "unterschiedliche Flüße und Schmertzen, sonderlich im Rückgrad empfunden" hatte. Bald nach ihrer Verheiratung hatte sich die Krankheit unten am rechten Beine zusammengezogen und wurde von den Ärzten am 9. Aug. 1653 geschnitten. Als sie nun bettlägerig war, stellte sich am 12. Aug. ein Fieber ein; durch dieses und die Schmerzen im Rückgrat und den Schenkeln wurde die Kur, die die Ärzte mit der jungen Frau vorhatten, häufig unterbrochen. Im Spätherbst mußte noch einmal eine Operation gemacht werden, da sich die defluxiones häuften und zusammenzogen. Bis zum Februar trat dann eine beständige Besserung ein, im März stellten sich Herzbeklemmungen und häufige Ohnmachtsanfälle ein, die die schon durch die langwierige Krankheit stark mitgenommene Körper nicht auszuhalten imstande war. Zuletzt kam noch eine Halsentzündung hinzu, die sie verhinderte Speise, Trank und Medicamente zu sich zu nehmen, und so entschlief die junge Frau, die durch die ganze Zeit ihrer langen Krankheit eine geduldige Patientin gewesen war, ganz sanft am 10. April 1654, ihres Alters 22 Jahr, 8 Monate, 3 Wochen.

Ilse Margarethe Tappen 1), zweite Frau des Ratsherrn Hanß Christian Dörrien, war gerade zu der Zeit als die Kaiserlichen Hildesheim eingenommen hatten und ihre Eltern nach Braunschweig geflüchtet waren, zu Braunschweig am 24. Febr. 1633 als Tochter des Hildesheimer Kauf- und Handelsmanns Rötger Tappen 2) und der Margretha Schmides 3) geboren. Ihre väterlichen Großelten waren der Ratsverwandte und Kaufmann zu Hildesheim Heinrich Tappen 4) und Dorothea Cabueß 5), die nachgelassene Tochter von Joachim Cabueß; die mütterlichen Großeltern waren der Bürger und Handelsmann zu Hildesheim Arend Schmides 6) und der Catharina Struven, die nachgelassene Tochter von Albert Struven.

Am 7. Oktober 1656 vermählte sie sich mit dem Doktor der Medizien Johannes Resen, bestallten Physicus zu Alfeld und Practicus in Hildesheim, der um Michaelis 1658 wieder starb. Am 21. August 1660 ging sie ihre zweite Ehe mit Hans Christian Dörrien ein, mit dem sie "12 Jahr eine wolgesegnete und vergnügliche Ehe gepflogen" und fünf Söhne und zwei Töchter zeugte, wovon ein Sohn frühzeitig verstorben und der Älteste noch vor der Ausfertigung der Leichenpredigt seiner Mutter folgte.

"Sonst ihr Leben und Christlichen Wandel betreffend, wird keiner, der sie gekandt, mit Wahrheit anders zeugen können, als daß sie eine verständige und Tugendliebende Matron gewesen, Gott und sein H. Wort geliebet, zum öffentlichen Gottesdienst so wol in der Wochen als am Sontage, so viel ihre mühsame Kinderzucht und Hauswesen leiden wollen, sich gerne eingefunden, und das heilige Abendmahl zum öfftern des Jahrs mit geziemender devotion genossen, den Ihrigen im Hause mit gutem Exempel fürgeleuchtet, und sonderlich dahin bedacht gewesen, daß ihre Kinder in wahrer Pietät und in der Zucht und Vermahrung zum Herrn möchten aufferzogen und von allen Muhtwillen abgehalten werden. Gegen männiglich hat sie freund- und bescheidentlich sich bezeiget, den Dürftigen und Nohtleidenden nach Vermögen behülflich gewesen, und in ihren gantzen Leben Tugend und Ehrbarkeit geliebet, und dargegen alles leichtsinnige Wesen von Hertzen gehasset, daß daher ihr Eheherr ihren tödtlichen Hintritt, um so viel schmertzlicher betrauret, und ihr gern ein jeder, der mit ihr umbgangen, das Leben länger hätte gönnen mögen."

Vier Wochen vor ihrem Tode war sie einer jungen Tochter genesen, sie war schon auf Besserung, als sich plötzlich Schwächezustände und Ohnmachten einstellten. In einer solchen entschlief sie sanft und unerwartet am Montag den 2. September 1672 mittags um 12 Uhr, ihres Alters 39 Jahr, 6 Monate und 4 Tage.

Maria Vortmann,

der dritten Gattin von Hans Christian Dörrien, ist keine Leichenrede gewidmet. Sie wurde um 1640 als Tochter des Heinrich Vortmann 1) und der Ilse Dörrien, (vermählt am 10. Mai 1636), Jobsts Tochter, geboren. Nach 1664 heiratet sie den Witwer, Bürger und Handelsmann der Neustadt Hildesheim Heidenreich Gerhard 2) der am 19. April 1671 starb, am 9. September 1673 wurde ihre zweite Ehe mit Hans Christian Dörrien in der Georgenkirche eingesegnet. Aus dieser Ehe ging noch ein Sohn, der aber schon imersten Jahre seines Alters 1675 starb, hervor. Sie selbst folgte ihrem Kinde am 14. Mai 1684 und ist vermutlich auch in der Andreaskirche, wo fast alle Dörriens dieser Linie begraben liegen, zur Ruhe getragen.

Hans Christian Dörrien hatte aus seiner zweiten und dritten Ehe acht Kinder:

a) von Ilsa Margaretha Tappen:
18) Hans, + jung
19) Jacob Dörrien, Pastor an St. Lamberti in Hildesheim.
20) Anna Margarethe, Gattin des Christoph Jacob Blume.
21) Johann Jobst Dörrien, Bügermeister von Hildesheim.
22) Hinrich Christian, + jung
23. Hermann Friedrich Dörrien, Kaufmann in London.
24) Sophie Catherina, Conventualin zu Wienhausen.
b) von Maria Vortmann:
25) Heinrich, + jung.

1) Die Vortmanns hatten als Wappen eine Hausmarke, die am Altar in St. Andreas in Hildesheim mehrmals zu finden ist; sie scheinen diesen um 1600 gestiftet zu haben.

6. Jobst Dörrien, auch Justus genannt, wurde als Sohn des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegel am 30. Juni 1628 in der Andreasgemeinde zu Hildesheim getauft. Eine Leichenrede von ihm ist nicht vorhanden. Er war Bürger, Ratsverwandter und Brauherr in Hildesheim, scheint also auch der Gewandschneidergilde angehört zu haben. Seinen Namen findet man häufig in dem Oldermansbuche (1593-1794) im Stadtarchiv zu Hildesheim 1). Er schrieb eigenhändig in das Oldermansbuch: "Daß ich zu Endeßbemelter von E. Ehrsahmen Alterman anstadt Hern Martinuß Künnecken, welcher in Den loblichen Raths Stul erkohren, Nach vorgepflogenem Gebeth und anrufunge Gotteß, durch ordentliche Wahl in den Ehrsahmen alter Man Stuel wieder erwehlet worden, auch den gewöhnlichen olderman Eydt angestattet habe, demselben auch getrewlich nach zu kommen gedenke, solches thue ich kraft dieseß mit Meiner eigenhendigen Unterschrifft bekennen, Hildeßheimb Den 24 May ao 1669.
Jobst Dorrien Mp." Er hatte als Oldermann ein Studienstipendium, das ein Dr. Conerding für studierende Hildesheimer gestiftet hatte, viele Jahre hindurch zu verwalten und hat alle diesbezüglichen Eintragungen eigenhändig gemacht. Er trug unter Anderem dort 1684 seinen Stiefsohn Balthasar Heinrich Schrader für eine Studienzeit von drei Jahren ein, doch hat es dieser, wie aus einer Randbemerkung ersichtlich ist, nicht ausgenützt, da er Kaufmann wurde. Auch seine entfernten Verwandten Johann Jonas und Hermann (? Heinrich) Melchior Dörrien, Söhne des Predigers Johann Ulrich Dörrien merkte er am 18. September 1692 für das Stipendium vor. Am 7. Januar 1695 ist "der gewesene Segger Herr Jobst Dörrien in den Löblichen Rath-Stuell erwählet und erhoben worden", daher wurde sein Posten als Oldermann anderweitig besetzt.

Jobst Dörrien war dreimal vermählt. Am 1. November 1658 heiratete er Ilse Loges, Tochter des Heinrich Loges und der Lucia Woltmann aus Braunschweig, letztere war die Witwe des Kaufmanns Hans Schmidt. Aus dieser Ehe sind vier Töchter und ein Sohn bekannt. Seine zweite Vermählung mit Lucia Hansen, Tochter des Ratsherrn und Kaufmanns Heinrich Hansen und der Sigrist Schilli(ng) fand am 21. Juni 1675 statt. Diese scheint schon gleich nach der Geburt ihrer einzigen Tochter gestorben zu sein, denn schon am 8. November 1677 schritt Jobst Dörrien mit einer geborenen Meyer, Witwe des Dr. Schrader zum drittenmale zum Altare, von der zwei Töchter in Hildesheim getauft wurden. Die Todesdaten von Jobst Dörrien und seinen Frauen sind unbekannt. Seine Kinder sind in die Taufregister von St. Michaelis, St. Pauli, St. Andreas und wieder bei St. Michaelis eingetragen, er scheint daher öfters umgezogen zu sein. Als seine Kinder sind bekannt geworden:

a) von Ilse Loges:
26) Anna Maria.
27) Hans Henrich.
28) Anna Lucia.
29) Sophie Margarethe, Gattin des Franz Theodor Bockelmann.
30) Maria Elisabeth, Gattin des Johann Rudolf Meyer.
b) von Lucia Hansen:
31) Engel Dorothea, Gattin des Julius Hermann Bockelmann, später des Johann Heinrich Rittmeyer.
c) von M. Meyer:
32) Ilse Leve.
33) Dorothea Margaretha.

7. Ernst Heinrich Dörrien 1) auch Hinrich Ernst genannt, wurde am 10. Jan. 1630 mittags zwischen 10 und 11 Uhr als Sohn des Riedemeisters und Rats-Seniors Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegels geboren. Seine vier aufgeführten Ahnen sind aus seiner Geschwister und Eltern Ahnenaufzählung bekannt. Er besuchte fleißig die Schule zu Hildesheim und wurde, da er große Neigung zum Kaufmannsberufe zeigte, im Rechnen und Schreiben gut unterrichtet und später nach Holland geschickt, wo er sich sieben Jahre bei den "fürnehmen Kauff- und Handelsleuten" in Amsterdam aufhielt und wegen seiner Geschicklichkeit sehr beliebt war.

Danach beriefen ihn seine Eltern nachhause zurück, wo er sich am 8. Februar 1655 mit Anna Ilse Ziegenmeyrs, des Ratsverwandten zu Hildesheim Jobst Arenholts Witwe, verlobte und am 8. Mai 1655 mit ihr trauen ließ. Er führte 15 Jahre lang mit ihr "eine erwünschte, fried- und glückliche Ehe" und hatte von ihr sechs Söhne und eine Tochter, von denen ein Sohn und die Tochter in zarter Kindheit starben, die übrigen fünf Söhne aber noch bei dem Tode des Vaters lebten. Der eine hielt sich damals grade Studierens halber in Leipzig auf. Am 11. Mai 1670 wurde ihm seine Gattin im 43. Lebensjahre durch den Tod entrissen, da es aber "sein weitläffiges Haus-Wesen und große Handelunge, nicht minder bekandte Leibes-Ohnvermögsamkeit so gar nicht erleiden wollen, also im ledigen Stande ohne Gehülffinne in die Länge zu verbleiben," so hat er sich noch in demselben Jahre nach Ablauf der Trauerzeit am 1. Adventssonntage mit Anna Dorothea Hahnen, der Tochter des Ratsherrn Ludolf Hahnen trauen lassen; mit dieser zweiten Gattin hat er noch einen Sohn gehabt, der aber im sechsten Jahre seines Alters wieder das Zeitliche segnete.

Am 12. Juni 1675 bekennt Ernst Heinrich Dörrien, daß er sich ein Lusthaus vor dem Almsthore gebaut habe, das die 1649 bestimmten Größenverhältnisse überschreite. Er verpflichtet sich durch Revers, daran keine Erweiterungen mehr vorzunehmen. Durch diese Urkunde ist uns sein Siegel und seine Unterschrift erhalten geblieben 2)..

Bei der Betrachtung seines christlichen Lebenswandels wird in der Leichenrede besonders betont, daß er "keinen Gottes-Dienst, wie ohnvermögsam Er auch sich befunden, versäumet" und daß er den "Armen Reichlich und gerne mitgetheilet" auch mit Jedermann friedlich gelebt habe.

Schon längst vor seinem Tode hatte Ernst Heinrich Dörrien verschiedentlich über Engbrüstigkeit und Stiche in der Seite geklagt, doch hatte seine starke Natur diese Zustände immer bald überwunden. Am Tage vor seinem Tode stellten sich wieder bei ihm Herzbeklemmungen und starke Seitenstiche ein und seine Schwäche nahm so unvermutet rasch zu, daß die Ärzte ihm nicht mehr helfen konnten. Er hat sich noch mit seinem Beichtvater besprochen und ist dann bei vollem Verstande ohne irgendwelchen Todes-Kampf am Mittwoch den 11. April 1688 mittags zwischen 2 und 3 Uhr wie in einem Schlafe aus dem Leben geschieden, seines Alters 58 Jahre, 3 Monate; er hat acht Kinder und sechs Großkinder 3) erlebt.

Seine erste Gattin, Anna Ilse Ziegemeyer 1) wurde zu Hildesheim am 29. April 1627 als Tochter des Rathsherrn, Riedemeisters und Seniors Conrad Siegfried Ziegemeyer 2) und der Catharina Twebohms 3) geboren. Ihre Großeltern von Vaters Seite waren Hartung Ziegemeyer, des Mannvesten Jürgen Ziegemeyers, Fürstlich Hessischen und später Fürstlich Lüneburgischen Kriegs-Bedienten, Sohn und Ilsa Klages, Tochter des Bürgers in Braunschweig Wilcken Klages. Ihre mütterlichen Großeltern waren der Bürger Oldermann und Ratsverwandter in Hildesheim Heinrich Tweybohm und Lucia Voß 5). Obwohl sie ihre Mutter früh verlor, hat sie von ihrem Vater eine sorgfältige Erziehung erhalten. Am 20. Juni wurde sie an den Ratsherrn und Kauf- und Handelsmann Jobst Arenhold in Hildesheim ausgesteuert, dem sie zwei Söhne und drei Töchter bescherte, von denen ein Sohn und eine Tochter jung starben. Am 24. Mai 1653 wurde ihr der Gatte durch einen schleunigen, unvermuteten Tod von der Seite gerissen und sie hatte in ihrem Witwenstand Hauskreuz, Unglück und schnöde Verfolgung zu erleiden. Nach zwei Jahren, am 8. Mai 1655 schloß sie den Ehebund mit Ernst Heinrich Dörrien, Kauf- und Handelsmann in Hildesheim, den sie in 15jähriger Ehe durch sechs Söhne und eine Tochter erfreute, von denen ein Sohn und die Tochter in ihrer zarten Jugend wieder aus dem Leben schieden, "die übrigen fünff Söhne aber gar klein und unerzogen ihrer hertzliebsten Mutter frühzeitigen Todt beklagen."

Bei der üblichen Erwähnung ihres christlichen Lebenswandels wird folgendes besonders erwähnt: "Imgleichen ist jedermann, der mit Ihr umgangen, erinnerlich, daß, ob sie gleich nach der itzigen Welt-Lauff, viele Feinde, Neider und Verfolger ihr und der ihrigen hören und sehen müssen, doch sich hingegen eusserst bemühet, den Frieden zu bauen, und jedwedern Christ-freund- und friedlich zu begegnen. Deßgleichen hat sie gegen Arme und Krancke Leute, auch gegen männiglichen der ihrer Hülffe und Raht begehret, sich also guthertzig und milde bezeiget, daß Arme und Reiche ihr hertzlich gern ein längers Leben gönnen wollen."

Ende April 1670 reiste sie mit ihrem Eheherrn und nächsten Anverwandten zu einer Hochzeit nach Braunschweig (NB. Wahrscheinlich ihres Schwagers Christian Wilhelm Dörrien, vermählt zu Braunschweig am 23. April 1670 mit Catharina Armgard Ramdohr) brachte aber die Hin- und Rückfahrt "mit stetigen andächtigen Buß-, Ster- und Lob-Gesängen" zu; als sie am 3. Mai nach Hildesheim zurückkehrte, mußte sie sich mit starkem Fieber hinlegen, dieses und Herzbeklemmungen nahmen am 10. Mai derartig zu, daß sie ihren Beichtvater rufen ließ und das heilige Abendmahl am 11. Mai empfing. Danach schwanden ihre Kräfte so, daß sie am Abende desselben Tages zwischen fünf und sechs Uhr sanft entschlief, "Ihres Alters drey und Viertzig Jahr, zwölff Tage, da sie zu zwölff Kindern Mutter und vier Kindern Großmutter worden."

Anna Dorothea Hahne, die zweite Gattin des Ernst Heinrich Dörriens, war zu Hildesheim am 16. Juni 1646 als Tochter des Kaufmanns und Ratsherrn Ludolf Hahne und der Dorothea Bornemann geboren. Ihre Großeltern von väterlicher Seite waren der Kaufmann und Ratsverwandte Heinrich Hahne (+1632) und Magdalena von Harlessem (+1631), die von mütterlicher Seite Heinrich Bornemann und Gesa Schmidt. Die Urgroßeltern auf des väterlichen Großvaters Seite: der Ratsverwandte Heinrich Hahne und Dorothea Thönen, Andreas Thönes Tochter, die auf der väterlichen Großmutter Seite: Daniel von Harlessem und Gesa Brandis, des Bürgermeisters Thilo Brandis Tochter.
Am 1. Advent 1670 führte sie der Ratsverwandte Ernst Hinrich Dörrien heim. Aus dieser Ehe ging ein Sohn hervor, der aber schon im 6. Lebensjahre wieder starb. Nach des ersten Gatten Tode (11. April 1688) blieb sie ein Jahr lang Witwe und heiratete dann am 23. April 1689 den Ratsverwandten Gerhardt Caspar Söllingh aus Dortmund. Sie starb am 18. Jan. 1702.

10. Sophie Elisabeth Dörrien ist zu Hildesheim am 5. Januar 1635 als Schwester der beiden eben genannten geboren. Wenn auf ihrem Grabstein das Geburtsjahr 1633 angegeben ist, so beruht diese Angabe auf einem Irrtum, da ihre nächstältere Schwester erst im September 1632 geboren war. Doch ist wegen der Lücken in den Kirchenbüchern in Hildesheim der Taufeintrag von Sophie Elisabeth nicht zu finden. Sie heiratete vor 1652 Johann Joachim Wiesenhaber aus Hildesheim. Brandenburgischen Amtmann in Burgstall, braunschweig-lüneburgischer Amtmann zur Witteburg und starb als Witwe am 10. Januar 1706 in Burgstall, 71 Jahre und 5 Tage alt 1), muß also am 5. Januar 1635 geboren sein.

14. Catharina Dörrien 1) wurde in Hildesheim am 12. Juli 1639 nachmittags um 3 Uhr als Tochter des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegels geboren. Ihre vier Ahnen , die in der Leichenrede aufgeführt werden, sind aus denen ihrer Brüder und Eltern bekannt. Nach einer sorgfältigen Erziehung wurde sie am 18. Juli 1654 mit dem Patrizier zu Hildesheim Christoff Henning von Hagen vermählt, dem sie einen Sohn und zwei Töchter, die bei ihrem Tode noch alle am Leben sind, bescherte. Von ihrem christlichen Lebenswandel wird außer dem üblichen erwähnt, daß sie ihrem Hauswesen emsig und fleißig vorgestanden habe. Schon lange Zeit vor ihrem Tode zeigte sich bei ihr eine starke dispositio scorbutica non sine metu hydropis, welcher endlich propter viscerum dyscrasiam, so immer mehr überhand genommen, gar in eine Cachexiam scorbuticam degeneriret"; trotz der angewandten Mittel schwanden nach und nach die Kräfte der jungen Frau, obwohl ab und zu eine Besserung zu verspüren war. Endlich stellten die Ärzte fest, daß die "viscera gantz corrumpiret" seien, daher nahm auch der Appetit, der schon seit Jahren zu wünschen übrig gelassen hatte, zusehends ab, außerdem sammelten sich Phlegmata in der Brust und es stellten sich schwere Ohnmachten ein, welche die bereits durch Krankheit Erschöpfte nicht überstehen konnte. Sie verschied bei vollem Verstande am 31. Dezember 1664 abends zwischen 6 und 7 Uhr im Alter von 25 Jahren, 6 Monaten, 2 Wochen und 4 Tagen.

15. Joachim Friedrich Dörrien 1) ist zu Hildesheim am Sonnabend den 24. Juli 1641 morgens um 4 Uhr als Sohn des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegels geboren. Seine 8 Ahnen sind die gleichen, die bei seinen Eltern und Geschwistern aufgeführt werden. Er wurde am Tage nach seiner Geburt getauft, besuchte, "nachdem ein gutes ingenium an Ihm verspüret worden", die schola Andreana zu Hildesheim unter dem Rector Lomeyer und dem Conrector Oldekopp, wurde 1668 nach Göttingen auf das berühmte Gymnasium geschickt, wo er unter dem Rektor M. Tolloi im Latein, Griechisch und Philosphie gute Fortschritte machte und drei Jahre blieb.
Nach seines Vaters Tode 1661 bezog er auf den Rat von M. Toll die Julius-Universität zu Helmstedt, wo er Ethik und Politik unter den Professoren D. Hermann Conring und D. Meyer und Rechtswissenschaft unter dem J.Ctus D. Hanius, "dessen information und Tisch er genossen" vier Jahre studierte. 1665 begab er sich nach Frankfurt a. d. O., um dort seine Studien unter der Leitung der J.Ctoren D. Brunnemann, bei der er aß, und D. Strykius, fortzusetzen; unter dem Vorsitz des Letzteren disputierte er in 8 Disputationen "de differentiis juris Veteris et Novißimi".
Seine Inaugural-Disputation hielt er 1669 "de Taxationibus" unter dem Vorsitz des D. Philipp Jacob Wolffius und promovierte am 4. Mai 1669 zum Doctor Juris. Am selben Tage, nach beendigtem "actu doctorali" hat er sich mit Magdalena Elisabeth Wolff, des D. und Professors Philipp Jacob Wolfius, Seniors und erzeitigen Dekans der juridischen Fakultät zu Frankfurt a. d. O. Tochter, und Enkelin des Kurfürstlich brandenburgischen Geheimen und Consistoralrats Erasmus Seidel, vermählt. In seiner glücklichen Ehe, die nach 11 Jahren durch seien Tod betrennt wurde, wurden ihm drei Söhne und drei Töchter bescheert, von denen ein Sohn und eine Tochter jung starben.
Sein Beichtvater, M. Johannes Schindler, stellt ihm über seinen Lebenswandel folgendes Zeugnis aus: "Daß der seel. Herr Doctor Dörrien seit der Zeit Er alhier in S. Andreae Pfarre gewohnet, sich also verhalten in seinem Christenthum, daß wir Prediger keine Klage über ihn gehabt. Ist fleißig zur Kirchen kommen, und hat zu rechter Zeit das heilige Abendmahl gebraucht, darbey zu Hause seine Kinder wol erzogen, und auch das Gesinde herein geschicket in die Betstunden, und zum Gehör Göttlichen Wortes. Mit den Nachbarn und anderen Leuten sich wol vertragen, und sich also bezeiget in seinem täglichen Leben und Wandel, wie einem Christen gebühret. In währender Krankheit hat er sich mit dem Abendmahl des Herrn bedienen laßen den 19. Novembr. Acht Tage vor seinem seel. Ende, und kann ihm sein Beichtvater dessen Zeugniß geben, daß Er mit guter devotion seine Beichte gethan, und unter andern gesagt, Ihn hätte hertzlich verlanget, das heilig Abendmahl zu empfangen" . . . etc.

Er hatte schon einige Jahre vor seinem Tode unter Magenbeschwerden zu leiden, "so vom Schorbuck her gerühret"; etwa 12 Wochen vor seinem Tode wurde er schwach und bettlägerig, dazu stellte sich "cahexia lathalis" und endlich "febris quartana duplex" ein. Seine Kräfte wurden durch "unüberwindliches Erbrechen des Magens" so sehr mitgenommen, daß er schließlich am 27. November 1680 zu Braunschweig der Krankheit erlag.

Seine Kinder von Magdalena Elisabeth Wolff waren:

42) Philipp Friedrich (Dietrich ?) Dörrien.
43) Hedwig Elisabeth, + jung.
44) Catharina Elisabeth, Gattin des R. R. Berckelmann.
45) Erasmus Christian Dörrien, Syndicus zu Windheim.

16. Melchior Dörrien 1)

wurde zu Hildesheim am 1. März 1643 als Sohn des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegels geboren. Seine vier aufgeführten Ahnen sind bekannt. Sofort nach seiner Geburt wurde er getauft und erhielt eine christliche Erziehung. Da er gute Geistesanlagen zeigte, so wurde er zuerst auf das Andreanum in Hildesheim geschickt, wo er unter dem Rector Lomeyer und dem Conrector Oldekopp Lateinisch und Griechisch und später auf dem Gymnasium zu Lüneburg unter den Professoren Bruno und Rodelmann Philologie , Geschichte und Geographie eifrig studierte. Nachdem er sich in Lüneburg zwei Jahre aufgehalten hatte, bezog er auf Wunsch seiner Verwandten die Julius-Universität zu Helmstedt, wo er etliche Jahre Philosophie besonders unter dem Doctor Meyer studierte. Von dort begab er sich auf die Universität Jena, wo er sich weiter mit dem philosophischen Studium namentlich unter dem berühmten Mathematiker Professor Weigelius, "dessen Tisches er sich bedienet", beschäftigte noch dazu Theologie studieren wollte; an diesem Vorhaben hinderte ihn aber der Tod seiner Mutter, der ihn zwang, sich seiner geerbten Güter selbst anzunehmen, diese zu verwalten und deswegen viele langwierige Reisen nach Speyer und anderen Orten anzustellen.

Nachdem seine Geschäfte glücklich erledigt waren, ließ er sich in Hildesheim häuslich nieder und gründete einen eigenen Herd mit Hedewig Lucia Twebom, der einzigen Tochter des Seelsorgers der Gemeinde St. Martini in Hildesheim Mag. Peter Ernst Twebom, die er am 17. October 1671 heimführte. Aus dieser Ehe entsproßen zwei Söhne und vier Töchter, von denen bei des Vaters Tode noch ein Sohn und drei Töchter am Leben waren. Die älteste Tochter war seit 1690 verheiratet.

"Im gemeinen Leben ist dieses des seeligen Herrn fürnehmster Zweck gewesen, daß Er seinen Neben-Christen, bevorab dem gemeinen Wesen nutzen und dienen möchte: Da denn der Allerhöchste solche gute Intention dahin secundiret, daß Er Anno 1674 in den Löbl. Achtzehn-Mannsstuel erhoben, nachgehends Anno 1687 zum Brauer-Meister, Anno 1691 an seines Seeligen Hrn. Bruders, Riedemeister Hans Christian Dörrien, Stelle zum Rahts-Herrn erwählet worden, welchen Functionen Er, so viel seine Kräfte leiden wollen, Treulich vorgestanden."

"Seine Krankheit und seeligen Abschied belangend: So ist der gantzen Stadt bekandt, wasgestalt vor ohngefehr vier Jahren Ihm verschiedene, unverhoffte Widerwärtigkeiten zugefüget worden, welche Ihm dermassen zu Hertzen gangen, daß er darüber allen Appetit zum Essen verlohren, und an Kräften je mehr und mehr abgenommen, so, daß Er diese Zeit über oftermals Bettlägerig, zuletzt aber gantz außgemergelt, und in die äusserste Mattigkeit versetzet worden. Seine Natur konnte jedoch die verordneten Arzneien nicht vertragen. Vier Wochen vor seinem Tode hat sich bei ihm ein "starker Frost, und darauff inwendige Hitze" eingestellt, die jedoch durch Hülfe des Arztes gebannt werden konnten. Acht Tage vor seinem Tode trat aber ein Rückfall mit starken Atembeschwerden ein. Am 23. Februar 1693 nahm er von seiner Frau, seiner Schwiegermutter, seinen Kindern und seinem Schwiegersohne beweglichen Abschied, ließ sich, obwohl er es erst drei Wochen vorher genossen hatte, nochmals das heilige Abendmahl reichen und starb endlich eines sanften Todes im Alter von 50 Jahren, weniger 6 Tagen, nachdem er zu sechs Kindern Vater und zu einem Kinde Großvater geworden war.

Seine Gattin Hedwig Lucia Twebom 1) wurde am 2. Februar 1655 als Tochter des Mag. Petrus Ernestus Twebom 2), Pastors der Martinigemeinde und Subseniors des Evangelischen Ministeriums zu Hildesheim, und der Ursula Hofmeisters 3) geboren. Ihre väterlichen Großeltern waren der Seelsorger an S. Andreae zu Hildesheim Henricus Twebom 4) und Lucia Mebesia 5), die Tochter des Pastors an S. Jacobi und Ratspredigers Petrus Ernestus Mebesius. Von mütterlicher Seite waren ihre Großeltern Mag. Johannes Hofmeister 6), Senior der Evangelischen Ministerii zu Hildesheim und 44 Jahre lang Pastor an St. Georgii daselbst und Hedwig Kehren 7). Tochter des Superintendenten zu Ertzen Mag. Johannes Kehr 8).

Sie wurde sofort nach ihrer Geburt getauft und von zarter Jugend an zum Christentum erzogen und war mit gutem Verstande begabt, sodaß sie sich schon in ihrer Jugend mit dem Lesen gelehrter Schriften theologischen Inhalts befaßte. In ihrem 16. Lebensjahre reichte sie am 17. October 1671 dem Ratsherrn der Altstadt Hildesheim Melchior Dörrien die Hand zum Ehebunde, aus dem zwei Söhne und vier Töchter entsproßen, von denen bei ihrem Tode jedoch nur der eine Sohn und von einer Tochter eine einzige Großtochter am Leben waren. Am 23. Februar 1693 starb ihr Gatte und sie hatte in ihrem Witwenstande viel Kreuz und Betrübniße durchzumachen, da sie in wenigen Jahren aller ihrer Töchter und ihrer Schwiegersöhne durch den Tod beraubt wurde; schließlich starb noch 1713 ihre alte Mutter, die ihr in ihren Unglücksfällen stets treulich beigestanden und bei ihr gewohnt hatte.

Bei der Betrachtung ihres christlichen Lebenswandels wird aus dem Üblichen besonders hervorgehoben, daß sie werktätige Nächstenliebe gerne und reichlich den Armen gegenüber geübt habe.

Schon einige Jahre vor ihrem Tode wurde sie von "scharffen Flüßen im Haupt und der Brust" öfters heimgesucht, bei denen sich auch meistens Fieber einstellte; jedoch gelang es jedesmal, die Krankheit durch Arzneien zu bannen. Ein Vierteljahr vor ihrem Tode fing das Fieber verbunden mit Engbrüstigkeit und starkem Husten wieder an, die Medicamente wirkten nicht mehr, das hectische Fieber nahm zu, während die Kräfte und der Appetit schwanden. Am Montag den 8. Juni 1722 hat sie sich ihren Beichtvater kommen und das heilige Abendmahl reichenlaßen, und ist am Freitag den 12. Juni nachmittags um 3 Uhr bei vollem Verstande im Beisein der Ihrigen sanft entschlafrn.

Ihre mit Melchior Dörrien gezeugten Kinder waren:

48. Johann Ernst, + jung.
49, Ursula Heidewig, Gattin des Mag. Ludwig Hansen.
50. eine Tochter, + jung.
51. catharina Marie, Gattin des Ludolf Andreas Behrens.
52. Sophie Elisabeth, + unvermählt.

17. Christian Wilhelm Dörrien

wurde in der Andreasgemeinde zu Hildesheim am 17. Juni 1647 als jüngstes Kind des Riedemeisters Hans Dörrien und der Anna Kegel getauft. Vielleicht durch die Beziehungen seiner mütterlichen Großmutter Barbara Kegel geborenen Ohlem, deren Mutter eine von Damm aus Braunschweig war, vielleicht auch durch günstigere Handelsbedingungen wurde er veranlaßt, seine Heimatstadt mit Braunschweig, wo sich auch sein Bruder Joachim Friedrich als Rechtsanwalt niedergelassen hatte, zu vertauschen und dort eine Handlung zu gründen. Am 5. Juli 1669 wurde der vornehme Kauf- und Handelsmann Christian Wilhelm Dörrien aus Hildesheim Neubürger in Braunschweig, 1674 erwarb er das Haus 1112 in der Reichsstraße.

Am 23. April 1670 - erst 23jährig - ging er zu Braunschweig mit Catharina Armgard Ramdohr, der jüngsten Tochter des außerordentlichen Professors zu Jena Jur. Ut. Dr. Andreas Ramdohr, Syndici und von 1649 an Protosyndici zu Braunschweig (geb. Aschersleben 1613 Apr. 2. + Braunschweig [Martini] 1656 Juli 22) 1) und der Dorothea Schulte (geb. Hamburg 1629 März 26., verlobt daselbst 1647 August 3., vermählt daselbst 1647 October 1. + Braunschweig 1674 August 12., wiedervermählt 1659 mit dem Consulenten Jur. Utr. Dr. Melchior Jungkherr 2), seine erste Ehe eine. Ihre Großeltern waren Joachim Ramdohr, Ratsverwandter und Bauherr zu Aschersleben und Armgart Eberts, sowie Albrecht Schulte, Oberalte-Leichnam, Kirchengeschworener zu St. Petri und Pauli und Cämmerer zu Hamburg, und Gertrud von der Fechte; Die Urgroßeltern von des väterlichen Großvaters Seite: Burchard Ramdohr 3), 24 Jahre lang Bürgermeister zu Ermschleben, und Margaretha Wilsenack; von der väterlichen Großmutter Seite: Martin Eberts, Bürger zu Aschersleben, und Agneta Schaden; von des mütterlichen Großvaters Seite: Jur. Lic. Johann Schulte, Ratsverwandter zu Hamburg, Mecklenburgscher Rat und Amtmann zu Bergedorf, des Patriziers zu Hamburg Andreas Schulte und der Caecilia Huyen Sohn, und Anna Oldehorst; von der mütterlichen Großmutter Seite: der Oberalte-Leichnam, Kirchengeschworener zu St. Catharinen und Cämmerer zu Hamburg Albrecht von der Fechte, des Patriziers zu Hamburg Martin von der Fechte und der Gertrud Hackmann Sohn, und Anna von der Woweren aus Brabant.

Der einzige Bruder der Catharina Armgard Ramdohr, Albrecht Andreas Ramdohr wurde geadelt und ist der Stammvater der noch blühenden Familie von Ramdohr. Catharina Armgard starb zu Braunschweig am 21. November 1672; sie hatte zwei Söhnen fas Leben gegeben, die beide schon vor ihr das Zeitliche segneten.

Nach dem allzu frühen Tode seiner ersten Gattin heiratete Christian Wilhelm Dörrien zu Braunschweig - die Trauung fand im Dome statt - am 20. September 1675 Catharina Schrader, Tochter des Canonicus des Stiftes St. Blasien zu Braunschweig Heinrich Schrader aus Halberstadt und der Catharina Margaretha von Broitzem. Ihre Großeltern väterlicherseits waren der Jur. Utr. Dr. Bernhard Schrader, Dekan des Stiftes St. Cyriaci (geb. Braunschweig 1581 Mai 16., + daselbst 1654 März 14 4), Sohn des Kaiserlichen Rats Laurentius Schrader und der Christina Hermeling, des Hauptmanns und später Kurpfälzischen Obersten Hans Hermeling und einer Lebuin aus der Campfelder in Friesland Tochter) und Elisabeth Schaden (vermählt Halberstadt 1613, + 1648, Tochter des fürstbischöflich Halberstädtischen Secretärs Arnold Schade, der über 30 Jahre sein Amt in Halberstadt versah). Ihre Großeltern mütterlicherseits waren: Ulrich von Broitzem, Amtmann und Zolleinnehmer in Brockhausen und Blekede, geb. Braunschweig 1589 Februar 18., + 1650, und Catharina Schultz aus Celle. Die Eltern von Ulrich von Broitzem waren: Dr. jur. Joachim von Broitzem, geb. Braunschweig 1555 Januar 8. Als Sohn des Bernd von Broitzem (geb. 1512, + Braunschweig 1561 Nov. 16., begraben in der Martinikirche) und der Elisabeth von Vechelde, geb. 1522, + 1566) und Lucia von Damm, Witwe des Joachim Hausmann zu salzwedel, geb. Braunschweig 1553 Sept. 26. Als Tochter vom Bürgermeister Henning von Damm und Anna Brackels (vermählt Braunschweig 1544 Januar 27.), vermählt Braunschweig 1585 September 2., + daselbst 1622 Januar 10. Die Eltern von Catharina Schultz waren: Der Ratsherr zu Celle Heinrich Schultz und Catharina Saffe 5).

19 Jacob Dörrien 1)
ist zu Hildesheim am 15. November 1662 als Sohn des Riedemeisters Hans Christian Dörrien und der Ilse Margaretha Tappen, verwitweten Rhesen, geboren. Seine vier aufgeführtenAhnen sind aus den Leichenreden seiner Eltern bekannt. "Gleichwie nun der Abstamm von so fürnehmen Eltern keine geringe Wollthat gewesen, womit der Herr den Sehlig-Verstorbenen vor vielen anderen angesehen, also hat Er ihn auch selbst seinem Geschlecht zu einer neuen Zierde bestimmet, und den Tugend-Ruhm der Vor-Eltern, der auf diesen ihren Sohn als die beste Erbschaft kommen war, durch denselben mit einem neuen Glanz erhöhet." Er zeigte nämlich schon von Kindheit an sehr gute Geistesanlagen und ein vortreffliches Gedächtnis, so daß sich seine Eltern schon frühzeitig der Hoffnung hingaben, daß er Theologie studieren möchte. Er besuchte daher das Gymnasium zu Hildesheim und setzte dann seine Studien 11 Jahre lang auf Universitäten fort. Zuerst bezog er 1682 die Universität Jena, wo er zuerst des Professors Posnerus, dann des Licentiaten Götzius, der früher Superintendent in Hildesheim gewesen war, Tischgenosse wurde. Letzterer gab ihm besonders in Homiletik gute Anleitung und beaufsichtigte seine Studien fast fünf Jahre. 1687 ging er von Jena nach Leipzig, wohin ihn besonders der bedeutende Ruf, den der Professor Doctor Carpzow genoß zog; von diesem wurde er bereitwillig im Hause und am Tische aufgenommen. Außer den Carpzowschen Vorlesungen hörte er noch namentlich die der Professoren Dr. Alberti und Dr. Olearius; nach etwa drei Jahren begab er sich auf einige Monate nach Wittenberg, um auch die dortigen Professoren kennen zu lernen, und kehrte von dort aus in seine Heimat zurück, nachdem er sich vorher am 30. Januar 1690 in Leipzig den Magisterhut erworben hatte. In Hildesheim wurden ihm nach dem Ableben des Magisters Albrecht an der Andreaskirche während der Zeit der Vakanz die Meßpredigten übertragen; doch begab er sich bald von dort auf die Universität Rostock, wo er bei Doctor Schmoerius eine Zeitlang dessen Tisch genoß. Als er sich noch in Rostock studienhalber aufhielt, berief ihn unvermutet 1693 der Rat der Neustadt Hildesheim zum Pastor primarius an St. Lamberti, daher mußte er in die Heimat zurückkehren und wurde bald darauf feierlich in sein Amt eingeführt. Es wird besonders hervorgehoben, daß er sich die vielen Jahre seines Studiums hindurch "bey so großer Verderbniß der Jugend und Academischen Sitten" gut gehalten habe. 1699 verheiratete er sich mit Anna Heidewich Tappen, der jüngeren Tochter des Pastoren an der St. Andreas-Hauptkirche Mag. Sylvester Tappen, die ihm fünf Kinder schenkte, von denen die vier ältesten ihm im Tode vorausgingen.
"Seine Hausgenossen hatten an Ihm einen wollmeinenden und vernünfftigen Hausvater; seine Verwandten und viele andere einen rechtschaffenen und zuverläßigen Freund; die Armen einen großen Woltäter." Viel Anerkennendes wird über seine Tätigkeit als Prediger und Seelsorger gesagt.
Schon einige Tage vor seinem Tode wurde er von einem "beschwerlichen Leibes-Schaden" heimgesucht, der ihn manchmal bei seinen Amtsverrichtungen viel Schmerzrn verursachte und seine Kräfte aufrieb. Zu diesem Übel kam etwa 4 Wochen vor seinem Hinscheiden "ein febrischer Paroxysmus"; doch ließ er sich als eifriger Prediger dadurch nicht hindern, sein Amt zu versehen und am Charfreitage und ersten Osterfeiertage selber die Predigten zu halten. Dadurch hat sich die Krankheit so sehr verschlimmert, daß er in einen andauernden heftigen Fieberzustand verfiel. Am 18. April 1708 abends 7 Uhr entschlief er sanft, nachdem er 45 Jahre und 4 Monate gelebt und sein Amt 15 Jahre verwaltet hatte.

Seine Gattin Anna Hedwig Tappen 1) war am 27. October 1682 zu Hildesheim als Tochter des M. Sylvester Tappen 2) 41 Jahre lang Predigers an der Hauptkirche St. Andreae in Hildeheim und Senior des Ministerii daselbst, und der Anna Elisabeth Gerken 3) geboren und sofort nach der Geburt getauft. Ihre Großeltern väterlicherseits waren der Ratsweinschenk in Hildesheim Sylvester Tappen 4) und Margaretha Lüdeken 5) und mütterlicherseits der langjährige hochverdiente Landrentmeister des Stifts Hildesheim Günther Gerken 6) und Anna Margaretha Satlers 7). Schon in jungen Jahren wurde Anna Hedwig ihrer Mutter beraubt; dies war für den Vater ein besonders harter Schlag, doch hatte Anna Hedwig so reiche Gaben des Gemüts empfangen, daß ihr Vater an dieser Tochter viele Freude erlebte. 1699 wurde sie von Mag. Jacob Dörrien, Pastor primarius der Neustadt Hildesheim und Seelsorger zu St. Lamberti, heimgeführt, dem sie drei Söhne und zwei Töchter bescherte, die aber alle in zarter Jugend das Zeitliche segneten. Am 18. August 1708 starb auch ihr Mann, sodaß sie mit einem den Vater noch überlebenden Söhnlein, das ihr jedoch auch bald durch den Tod entrissen wurde, allein stand. Daher entschloß sie sich, am 24. Juli 1709 eine zweite Ehe mit dem Advocaten in Hildesheim J. U. Dr. Henricus Meyer einzugehen, dem sie auch einen Sohn schenkte.
Schon mehrere Jahre vor ihrem Tode war ein Lungenleiden bei ihr aufgetreten, das wenige Monate, ehe sie starb, wieder zum Ausbruch kam. Sie Ärzte waren nicht im Stande trotz Anwendung kräftiger Medicamente die Krankheit zu heben; sie nahm so stark überhand und die Schwäche wurde so groß, daß sie schließlich am Sonnabend vor Ostern den 4. April 1711 ihren Leiden erlag, nachdem sie 28 Jahre, 6 Monate und 8 tage gelebt und sechs Kindern das Leben geschenkt hat.
Ihre Kinder, die sie Jacob Dörrien beschert hatte, sind auf der Stammtafel aufgeführt.

21. Johann Jobst Dörrien, Bürgermeister zu Hildesheim, wurde als Sohndes Riedemeisters Hans Christian Dörrien und der Ilse Margaretha Tappen am 19. November 1667 in der Andreasgemeinde zu Hildesheim getauft. Er war schonzu Lebzeiten seines Vaters im Rat der Stadt Hildesheim und bestätigt am 11. October 1693, daß er nach dem Tode des Oldermanns Heinrich Jacobi zum Oldermann gewählt sei und den Oldermannseid abgelegt habe 1). Am 28. April 1699 ist Johann Christian Hackenberg anstelle Herrn Johann Jobst Dörrien, der in den Ratsstuhl gewählt wurde, in den Oldermannsstuhl gekommen 2). Von 1706 bis 1738, ein Jahr vor seinem Tode, war Johann Jobst Dörien mit Ausnahme des Jahres 1730 jedes zweite Jahr Bürgermeister von Hildesheim. Durch die bekannte Streitsucht der Hildesheimer Bürger hatte er manche Anfechtung in seinem Amte. Am schlimmsten war der Streit im Jahre 1729, von dem noch eine Anzahl gedruckter Streitschriften und Acten 3) Zeugnis ablegen. Eine Partei, deren Haupt der Bürgermeister Dörrien war, stellte seinen Candidaten Hartung aus Sondershausen zum Prediger auf; eine Gegenpartei, die mit diesem Vorgehen nicht einverstanden und übrigens in der Minderzahl (etwa 80 Bürger von 400) war, lehnte sich gegen die andere Partei auf, bemächtigte sich der Gewalt und setzte den Rat ab. Er warf sogar Bürger ins Gefängnis, sodaß sich die Dörriensche Partei an den Domprobst wandte, der eine Commission einsetzte, die aber nicht imstande war, den Streit endgültig zu regeln. Man ging bis an den Reichshofrat, der die preußische und braunschweig-wolfenbüttelsche Regierung mit der Execution beauftragte. Dadurch kam die stärkere Dörriensche Partei, die sich übrigens in dem Streit gemäßigter benommen hatte als die Gegenpartei zu ihrem Rechte. Der Bürgermeister Johann Jobst Dörrien starb am 12. April 1739 zu Hildesheim, nachdem er bereits am 25. September sein Testament gemacht hatte.

Am 25. November 1690 verheiratete sich Johann Jobst Dörrien zu Hildesheim (S. Georg) mit Anna Margarethe Ahlers. Aus dieser Ehe gingen vier Söhne und acht Töchter hervor, die aber bis auf einen Sohn und zwei Töchter alle in der Kindheit starben. Der einzige überlebende Sohn Johann Ludwig Dörrien ging als Kaufmann nach Hamburg, erreichte auch nur ein Alter von 47 Jahren und pflanzte in der "dänischen" Linie den Mannesstamm bis in die Jetztzeit fort, Die ältere Tochter Anna Magdalena Dörrien wurde in das Kloster St. Crucis vor Braunschweig eingekauft, die jüngere Marie Margaretha Dörrien heiratete eines Kaufmann Siemers in Hamburg und starb dort bald nach der Geburt einer einzigen Tochter Anna Maria Siemers schon vor 1731. Letztere heiratete den Kaufmann Westphalen in Hamburg, der auch einer alten Hildesheimer Familie entsprossen war.

Zwischen 1713 und 1720 gung Johann Jobst Dörrien eine zweite Ehe mit M. . . . E. . . . Wolffen ein; aus dieser Ehe stammte eine einzige Tochter Johanne Henriette Dörrien, geboren 1721, die sich am 29. November 1740 mit dem Hofgerichtsassessor und Rechtsanwalt Sylvester Gerhard Meyer zu Hildesheim verheiratete und dort als letztes dort ständig wohnendes Glied der alten Hildesheimer Familie Dörrien am 31. März 1790 starb. In ihrem Hauswesen hatte ihre ältere unverheiratete Stiefschwester Anna Magdalena Dörrien, die im Juli 1780 gestorben war, Aufnahme gefunden. Weil das von Letzterer am 20. März 1758 aufgestellte und in Gegenwart ihrer Erben am 18. Juli 1780 eröffnete Testament 4) Aufschluß über des Bürgermeisters Johann Jobst Dörrien am 25. September 1731 verfügte testamentarische Bestimmungen enthält, so mag eine kurze Inhaltsangabe hier am Platze sein:

Der Vater der Conventualin des Klosters St. Crucis vor Braunschweig, Anna Magdalena Dörrien, der Bürgermeister zu Hildesheim Johann Jobst Dörrien, hatte 1731 Sept. 25. In einer disposition, die von der Conventualin und ihrem sel. Bruder Johann Ludwig Dörrien unterschrieben wurde, der Anna Magdalena Dörrien außer 1000 Reichsthalern, die sie ihm bereits gekostet hatte, noch 1000 Reichsthaler mit der Bestimmung vermacht, daß dies Geld oder der Rest davon an ihren einzigen Bruder Johann Ludwig Dörrien, oder wenn letzterer vor ihr sterben würde an ihre Halbschwester Johanne Henriette (Meyer geborene) Dörrien und an die kleine Anna Marie Siemers (in Hamburg, Tochter ihrer verstorbenen Schwester Maria Margarethe Siemers, geborene Dörrien, später verwitweten Westphalen in Hamburg) kommen solle. Da nun ihr Bruder Johann Ludwig Dörrien 1755 starb und die Vormünder seiner Kinder Anspruch auf 1000 Rthlr. Erhoben, so bestimmt sie testamentarisch, daß die eine Hälfte des Restes Frau Witwe Anna Maria Westphalen, geborene Siemers, in Hamburg, die andere Hälfte ihre Halbschwester Johanna Henriette Meyer, geborene Dörrien und letztere auch ihre sämtlichen Mobilien bekommen solle. 1000 Rthlr. Sind laut obligation in Hamburg bei ihrem seligen Herrn Buder Johann Ludwig Dörrien hinterlegt. Im Falle ihre Halbschwester Johanna Henriette Meyer, geborene Dörrien, vor ihr sterben sollte, so setzt sie deren Kinder zu Erben von deren Erbteil ein.

Die Testamentseröffnung fand am 18. Juli 1780 statt, nachdem in den Hildesheimer Zeitungen und Braunschweiger Nachrichten der Termin bekannt gegeben war. Es erschienen: Herr Landgerichtshalter Meineke namens des Hauptmanns Johann Friedrich Dörrien zu Königslutter und legitimierte sich mittels eines zu Königslutter am 14ten hujus geschriebenen Handbriefs, sodann Procurator Lilien von der Frau Consistorialräthin Meiern, geborenen Dörrien und baten um Publication.

Beide erklärten die Disposition als unverletzt, sie wurde eröffnet und verlesen.

Beide erbaten: "cum reservatione reservandorum copiam testamenti."

34. Ludolf Christian Dörrien,

Bürgermeister der Neustadt Hildesheim, war höchst wahrscheinlich ein bald nach 1655 geborener Sohn des Heinrich Ernst Dörrien und der Anna Ilse Ziegemeyer. Da der Vater des Letzteren Conrad Siegfried Ziegemeyer hieß und der zweite Sohn Ludolf Christians sowie auch schon mutmaßlich sein Bruder Johann Siegfried genannt wurden, der Name Siegfried aber sonst in der Dörrienschen Verwandtschaft nie vorkommt, so liegt ein Zusammenhang zwischen Heinrich Ernst und Ludolf Christian als Vater und Sohn nahe, kann aber wegen der Lücken, die die Kirchenbücher von St. Andreas in Hildesheim zwischen 1648 und 1660 aufweisen, nicht nachgewiesen werden. Über den Tod von Ludolf Christian Dörrien war nichts zu finden, Kayser 1) verlegt das Todesdatum fälschlich auf den 10. Januar 1691, doch stimmt dieses Datum sicher nicht, da Ludolf Christian noch am 15. November 1691 Bürgermeister war und noch sogar am 24.

Dezember 1693 einen Sohn taufen ließ. Da ihm nun nach Familienaufzeichnungen noch zwei jüngere Söhne geboren sein sollen, die nicht in den Kirchenbüchern in Hildesheim aufzufinden sind, so sind wir wohl berechtigt anzunehmen, daß Ludolf Christian Dörrien bald nach 1693 von Hildesheim fortgezogen ist. Ziehen wir nun in Betracht, daß laut Inventars der Frau Dr. Marie Elisabeth Dörrien im Stadtarchiv zu Hildesheim ein Kaufmann Ludolf Christian Dörrien in Bremen am 21. April 1718 von Dr. Peter Ernst Dörrien 2000 Reichsthaler geliehen hat, so gehen wir wohl nicht fehl, daß dieser in Bremen wohnhafte Ludolf Christian mit dem ehemaligen Bürgermeister der Neustadt Hildesheim identisch ist.

Ludolf Christian Dörrien heiratete zu Hildesheim am 21. August 1683 Ilse Maria Gerhard, die Tochter des Bürgermeisters der Neustadt Hildesheim Heidenreich Gerhard 2), zwei Töchter und vier Söhne sind aus dieser Ehe in Hildesheim getauft, der älteste in der Andreasgemeinde, die übrigen bei Lamberti, zwei weitere Söhne, die scheinbar nach dem Fortzuge des Bürgermeisters aus Hildesheim geboren sind, nennt die schriftliche Tradition in der Familie.

45. Erasmus Christian Dörrien 1)

Rat und Syndicus der Stadt Windsheim, wurde am Gründonnerstage 1675 zu Braunschweig in der St. Andreas-Pfarrei getauft. Es war nach dem Eintrage bei seinem Tode am 29. März des gleichen Jahres geboren. Das Windsheimer Kirchenbuch hebt besonders hervor, daß er aus einem vornehmen in Hildesheim noch blühenden Geschlechte stamme. Sein Vater war der Doktor beider Rechte und Praktikus zu Braunschweig Joachim Friedrich Dörrien, seine Mutter Magdalene Elisabeth Wolff, die einzige Tochter des ordentlichen Professors und Seniors der juristischen Fakultät in Frankfurt an der Oder und beider Rechte Doktor Philipp Jacob Wolff. Als sein Vater ihm durch einen frühzeitigen Tod geraubt wurde, zog seine Mutter mit ihren Kindern zu ihrem Vater nach Frankfurt an der Oder zurück. Als Erasmus Christian sein achtes Lebensjahr erreicht hatte, wurde ihm auch der mütterliche Großmutter durch den Tod entrissen. Er bekam daher einen Vormund in dem Frankfurter Consul Erdmann Berthold und wurde bis zu seinem vierzehnten Jahre von Hauslehrern unterrichtet. Dann wurde er von seinem Vormunde nach Thorn in Ponisch-Preußen geschickt, um im Jesuitencolleg die lateinische und polnische Sprache zu erlernen, da die Jesuiten ihm aber beständig zusetzten, daß er katholisch werden sollte, so kam er schließlich auf das evangelische Gymnasium in Thorn und setzte dort seine Studien fort. Von dort begab er sich auf das Gymnasium zu Breslau, das damals der berühmte Grypsius leitete. Nachdem er so einen guten Grundstein für die Studien gelegt hatte, besuchte er die Universität seiner zweiten Vaterstadt Frankfurt an der Oder und betrieb hauptsächlich unter der Leitung des berühmten Coccejus, einem manne von weitgehendem Rufe, juristische Studien. Vier Jahre blieb er dort und setzte dann auf eigene Faust den eingeschlagenen Weg fort. Fünfzehn Monate besuchte er die juristischen Collegs des berühmten Professors van Eck in Utrecht, reiste dann nach Frankreich und England, wo er überall die Bibliotheken besuchte und dort arbeitete, und kehrte schließlich über Bremen nach Deutschland zurück. Bald darauf vertraute ihm ein Holsteinscher Edelmann, Herr von Ahlefeld, die Leitung seines Sohnes an und bat ihn, auf einer größeren Reise der Begleiter seines Sohnes zu sein. Mit dem jungen Ahlefeld reiste er nun nach Wien, dann durch Steyermark und Kärnthen nach Venedig, Loretto und nach Rom, wo er auch bei dem damaligen Papst Clemens XI. eine Audienz hatte, der ihn und die übrigen anwesenden Protestanten fragte: "Wann werdet Ihr Euch wieder in den Schoß der Kirche aufnehmen lassen ?" Die Reise ging von Rom aus durch Savoyen nach Paris, wo die Reisegefährten vierzehn Monate blieben, und darauf durch Belgien nach England. Von dort brachte Erasmus Christian Dörrien den jungen Ahlefeld, der viele Sprachen und Sitten kennen gelernt und sich auf der Resie gut gebildet hatte, über Hamburg nach Holstein zu seinem Vater zurück.

1709 erwarb Dörrien auf der Universität Rinteln den Licentiatentitel und wurde vom Magistrat zu Windsheim berufen, das Amt eines Rats und Syndicus der Stadt zu übernehmen. Im folgenden Jahre heiratete er die mit reichen Geistesgaben ausgestattete Jungfrau Helene Charlotte Marie Eggerding, jüngste Tochter des Hessen-Casselschen Praefecten in Rinteln Christof Eggerding, die ihm in fünfzehnjähriger Ehe ein einzige Tochter Christiana Elisabeth Maria Dörrien, die den Vater überlebte, bescherte. Als seine geliebte Gattin 1725 im Alter von 32 Jahren weniger 3 Wochen gestorben war, blieb er Witwer und starb schließlich am 8. Mai 1756 zu Windsheim wohlvorbereited, nachdem er neun Tage das achtzigste Lebensjahr überschritten hatte.

Das Taufdatum seiner Tochter ist auf der Stammtafel angegeben, Patin war unter Anderen: Frau Catharina Elisabetha eine geborene Dörrien, Titl. Herrn N. N. Berckelmanns, Mulzer-Meisters zu Frankfurt an der Oder uxor.

1) Seine Lebensbeschreibung ist in lateinischer Sprache bei Gelegenheit seines Todes in dem Kirchenbuche zu Windsheim in Franken genau wiedergeben.

49. Ursula Hedwig Dörrien 1)

wurde zu Hildesheim am 24. Sept. 1674 um 5 Uhr abends als Tochter des Patriziers und Ratsherrn der Altstadt Hildesheim Melchior Dörrien und der Hedwig Lucia Tweboms geboren. Ihre aufgeführten acht Ahnen sind aus den Leichenreden auf ihre Eltern ersichtlich. Ihre Eltern und die mütterliche Großmutter, die bei ihnen lebte, hatten ihre Freude an der "frommen, gehorsamen und wolgeratenen Tochhter."

Am 17. Juni 1690 führte sie der Seelsorger an St. Paul zu Hildesheim Magister Ludwig Hansen als Gattin heim und ließ sich in der St. Georgskirche mit ihm trauen; aus dieser Ehe gingen drei Kinder hervor, von den zwei Töchter noch am leben, davon die Jüngste erst 15 Wochen nach ihres Vaters Tode geboren wurde. Am 28. Februar 1694 wurde ihr der Gemahl durch einen unverhofften Tod von der Seite gerissen, so daß sie noch nicht zwanzigjähring Witwe wurde. Nach dem Tode des Gatten zog sie wieder mit ihren kleinen Kindern zu ihrer Mutter und Großmutter in deren Behausung. An den damals häufig in Hildesheim grassierenden Masern erkrankte sie mit ihren beiden Geschwistern 1697, sie überwand die Krankheit aber soweit, daß sie wieder umhergehen konnte. "Es haben aber dieselbe einen bösen Zunder nachgelassen, der immerhin geglimmet und im Geblüte verborgen gelegen, biß es Freytages vor ihrem seel. Ende herauß gebrochen, und Sie sich gar zu Bette legen müßen; als Sie auß der Stuben gegangen in ein anderes Zimmer, hat Sie von ihrer Frau Groß-Mutter und nunmehro auch seel. Jungfer Schwester Abschied genommen, als welche beyde damalen gleichfalls sehr schwach und krank niedergelegen, auch geagt, sollten sie einander hie in der Zeitligkeit nicht wiedersehen, so würden Sie gewiß einander sprechen in der himmlichen Herrlichkeit, darauff Sie matt und sehr schwach hinauß gegangen." Die Krankheit nahm derartig zu, die Kräfte verloren sich, obwohl sie keine Schmerzen hatte und über nichts klagte, und der Appetit schwand immer mehr, daß sie sich auf ihren Tod vorbereitete und den folgenden Tag das heilige Abendmahl nahm. Am Nachmittag desselben Tages - es war am 7. Juni 1697 - merkte man an der Erkaltung ihrer Glieder, daß ihr Ende nahe sei, Sie entschließ ganz sanft und stille unter dem Gebete ihrer Angehörigen am selben Abende um 7 Uhr im Alter von 22 Jahren, 8 Monaten und 13 Tagen.

52. Sophia Elisabeth Dörrien war am 7. März 1681 morgens um fünf Uhr als Schwester der Ursula Hedwig Dörrien von den gleichen Eltern geboren. Ihre Eltern ließen sie sehr sorgfältig erziehen, und als sie heranwuchs, ging sie besonders ihrer Mutter im Haushalte fleißig zur Hand. Mit ihren Geschwistern lebte sie in schönster Harmonie, besonders an ihrer ältesten Schwester Ursula Hedwig, mit der sie "in Gesellschaft zu ihrem Ruhe-Kämmerlein gebracht worden", hing sie mit aufrichtiger Liebe. Auch sie erkrankte zugleich mit ihrer Schwester an den Masern, die bei ihr sehr stark ausbrachen, doch erholte sie sich soweit, daß sie wieder aufstehen und umhergehen konnte; einige Tage nach ihrer Genesung wurde sie jedoch von "einem Frost und großen Haupt-Schmertzrn, auch darauf erfolgender Hitze dergestalt befallen, daß sie wiederum gantz Bettlägerig geworden, und die Schwachheit von Tage zu Tage schleunig zugenommen." Am Montag den 7. Juni 1697 ließ sie sich das Abendmahl reichen und starb "ganz ohne eintzige Bewegung vernünfftig und gleich als durch einen sanfften Schlaf abgefordert" am 8. Juni morgens um 7 Uhr im Alter von 16 Jahren, 3 Monaten und 1 Tage, ohne vorher noch etwas von dem am vorhergehenden Tage erfolgten Tod ihrer Lieblingsschwester erfahren zu haben.

53. Peter Ernst Dörrien 1)
wurde am 28. Jan. 1688 als Sohn des Ratsherrn Melchior Dörrien und der Hedewig Lucie Twebohms geboren und am 31. Jan. in der St. Georgii-Kirche zu Hildesheim getauft. Seine vier Ahnen sind bekannt. Da er schon in früher Jugend einen fähigen Geist zeigte, so schickten ihn seine Eltern auf das Gymnasium Andreanum, wo er dem Direktor Mag. Johann Christoph Losius anvertraut wurde. Er hatte anfänglich vor, Theologie zu studieren, doch fanden ihn seine Verwandten dafür zu schwach, er erwählte daher das juristische Studium. Ehe er sich auf Universitäten begab, hielt ihm sein Vetter, der Preußische Rat und braunschschweig-lüneburgsche Hofgerichts-Assessor Autor Heinrich von Kalm ein "Collegium Institutionale" und unterwies ihn in Philogie und Philosophie. Zu Ostern 1708 zog er auf die Julius-Universität zu Helmstedt, wohnte dort beim Doctor Bötticher und aß beim Magister Otten, besuchte fleißig die Collegs und bildete sich unter der Leitung des berühmten J.Ctus Dr, Homborgii weiter, unter dessen Vorsitz er auch "de differentiis juris communis et statutarii Hildesiensis" öffentlich disputierte. In Helmstedt böieb er 1 ½ Jahre, war dann ein halbes Jahr zu Hause und bezog zu Ostern 1710 die Universität Halle, wo er zwei Jahre die Vorlesungen des J.Ctorum Dr. Stryckius, Dr. Böhmer, Dr. Ludewig und des Licentiaten Bönigk hörte. Dann begab er sich zwei Jahre lang in die Praxis, zuerst unter der Unterweisung des Großbritannisch-braunschweig-Lüneburgschen Rats und Hofgerichtsassessors, auch Syndici zu Hildesheim, Herrn Johann Ludolff Kopmann. Um sich nun in anderen Orten und Ländern mehr Erfahrung und Geschicklichkeit anzueignen, begab er sich am 17. April 1714 auf Reisen, besuchte zuerst Wetzlar, nachdem er vorher die Universitäten Marburg und Gießen besichtigt und von den Professoren Dr. Möllendecc und Dr. Orth viele Freundlichkeiten genossen hatte; in Wetzlar wurde er von den Assessoren Krebs und Schrech freundlich aufgenommen. Dann richtete er seine Reise über Frankfurt, Mainz, Wiesbaden, Coblenz, Cöln, Düsseldorf, Duisburg, Wesel, Cleve, Nymwegen, Utrecht, Amsterdam, Harlem, Leyden zum Haag, um den Einzug Georgs I. als König von Großbritannien dort mit anzusehen, besichtigte Rotterdam und Delft und ging dann nach Leyden zurück, wo er die Bekanntschaft der Professoren Dr. Vitriarius, Dr. Noodt und Dr. Schultinus machte, unter Letzterem promovierte er am 25. Oktober 1714 zum Doctor Juris und disputierte über das Thema "de communione bonorum inter conjuges statutaria civitatis Hildesiensio". Ende 1714 ging er wieder nach Hildesheim zurück. Eine Beschreibung seiner Reisen und Erlebnisse hat er später in einem Memorialbuche eigenhändig aufgezeichnet und hinterlassen. In seiner Heimat übte er bei verschiedenen Gerichtshöfen Praxis aus und nahm sich besonders der notleidenden klagenden Parteien mit Eifer an. Am 2. Dezember 1717 schloß er einen äußerst glücklichen Ehebund mit Maria Elisabeth Gerhard, der ältesten Tochter des Kauf- und Handelsmanns, auch Ratsherrn Johann Gerhard; diesem Bunde blieb leider der Kindersegen versagt.

Über seine letzte Krankheit wird berichtet, daß er am 30. August 1736 "mit einer Diarrhaca biliosa befallen, welche zwar anfänglich nach adhibirten diensamen Medicamenten nachgelassen. Nachdem sich aber Febris lenta dazu geschlagen, welches nebst der beständigen Agrypnia, und continuirenden Apepsia ihn solchergestallt entkräftet, daß die höchst-geschwächte Natur, ob es schon weiter an dien- und heilsamen Medicamenten nicht ermangelt, diesen gewaltigen Zufällen bey beständig-zunehmenden Schwachheiten endlich nicht mehr resistiren können." Er starb daher am 22. September 1736 nachmittags zwischen 5 und 6 Uhr sanft ohne große Todesschmerzen im Alter von 48 Jahren, 7 Monaten und 25 Tage, nachdem er zwei Tage vor seinem Tode das heilige Abendmahl empfangen hatte, Sie war also die Nichte von Ilse Marie Gerhardt, der Frau des Ludolf Christian Dörrien, und wurde durch die Heirat ihrer Schwestern Anna Catharina Gerhardt mit dem Schatzrat Johann Ludolf Reichhelm zu Döhren die Muhme von Catharina Johanna Elisabeth Reichhelm, der Gattin des Superintendenten Johann Albrecht Dörrien, war also die Verbindung zwischen den Familien Gerhardt und Dörrien schon durch Heidenreich Gerhardts zweite Ehe mit Maria Vortmann, der Tochter von Ilse Dörrien im 17 ten Jahrhundert geknüpft, so gestaltete sich das verwandschaftliche Verhältnis zwischen beiden Familien im Laufe des 18 ten Jahrhunderts immer enger. Maria Elisabeth Dörrien, geborene Gerhardt, überlebte ihren Gatten bis zum September 1756. Ihr Testament ist im Stadtarchiv in Hildesheim vorhanden und soll auszugsweise nebst den Auszügen aus einem sehr ausführlichen Inventar, die auf die Familie Dörrien Bezug nehmen, hier Platz finden.

Testament der Frau Dr. Maria Elisabeth Dörrien, geb. Gerhardt.

1758 Aug. 12.

I. Sie verordnet zu Erben die Kinder ihrer älteren + Schwester Anna Catharina Gerhardts, verehel. gewesenen Schatz-Secret. Reichhelm zu Döhren, nemlich;

1. Catharina Johanna Elisabeth Reichhelm verehel. Pastorin Dörrien zu Stemmen, oder falls diese vor ihr sterben sollte, deren Kinder; 2. Johann Ernst Reichhelm; 3. Johann Just Reichhelm.

II. Die Kinder ihrer + jüngsten Schwester Anna Margaretha Gerhardts, verehel. gew. Ober-Factorin Schnecker zu Goslar: 1. Hedwig Catharina Elisabeth Schnecker; 2. Ernst Johann Daniel Schnecker.

Diese fünf Erben sollen die in fünf Teile geteilte Erbschaft untereinander verlosen, doch soll der Oberfactor Schnecker nicht das Erbteil seiner Kinder verwalten, sondern der Magistrat soll Johann Ernst Reichhelm und Magister Witting zu Administratoren für die Schneckerschen Kinder einsetzen.

Der Hof zu Großen-Gießen mit Ländereien und die Windmühle zu Rautenberg gehören nicht zu der Hinterlassenschaft, sondern stehen nach ihrem Ableben laut Testament der Frau Dr. Storren Johann Albrecht Dörrien, Pastor zu Stemmen, zu, doch soll dieser den Erben für gemachte Ausbesserungen 1200 Rthlr. geben, dagegen sollen alle Obligationen für den Pastor Dörrien annulliert werden. Nur die neuerdings vorgenommenen Reparaturen der Gebäude zu Giesen und an der Windmühle zu Rautenberg soll der Pastor Dörrien auch zahlen.

Sie setzt als Legate aus:

1. 2000 Rthlr. für Jungfer Hedwig Catharina Elisabeth Schnecker über ihr sonstiges Erbteil hinaus.

2. 400 Rthlr. für Catherina Elisabeth Vortmann, des Senators Vortmanns Tochter, als ihr Patkind.

3. 300 Rthlr. für Marie Catharina Vortmann, des Senators Vortmann jüngste Tochter, als ihr Patkind. Sollte eine von den Schwestern Vortmanns früher sterben, so soll die andere deren Erbteil bekommen.

4. 1000 Rthlr. für die Prediger- und Superintendenten-Witwen der Altstadt Hildesheim. Das Geld soll dem Ministerio ausgezahlt und mit 4 % verzinst, auch wenn keine Predigerswitwen vorhanden sind, auf Zinseszinsen gelegt werden.

5. 1000 Rthlr. an Hausarme, in und außerhalb der Familie, jedesmal die Zinsen von 4 oder 5 % für eine Person. Darüber soll immer der Älteste von den Erben und deren Nachkommen die Aufsicht führen. Sollte der Betreffende nachläßig sein in der Verwaltung des Legats, so soll ihm von Obrigkeitswegen eine Aufsicht zur Seite gestellt werden.

Ihren einzigen Bruder, Justus Heidenreich Gerhardt, der in Portugal verschollen ist, schließt sie von der Erbschaft aus, da er bereits von dem Vater Johann Gerhardt gegen 26000 Rthlr. vorgestreckt bekommen habe.

Die fünf großen Wohn- und Brauhäuser, auf der Marktstraße, am Molckenmarkt, am Kurzenhagen, bei der Obergünne und in der Kurzen Burgstraße, ebenso ihre Gärten, sollen ihre Erben nicht entäußern.

Codizill dazu 1756 Aug. 13.

Sie schenkt ihrem Vetter Christian Heinrich Vortmann, Senator, ihr im hintersten Rosenhagen hart an Stahls Garten belegenes Brauhaus aus besonderer Dankbarkeit, doch soll er dafür 300 Rthlr. an das hiesige Zucht- und Waisenhaus und 200 Rthlr. an das Hospital St. Trinitatis geben.

Dem Johann Joachim Möhlen schenkt sie für treuen Beistand jederzeit ihr Eicksches Haus mit kleinem Gartenplatz auf dem Mühlenhof an der Innerste unter der Bedingung, daß er die bei Herrn Thielen stehende Hypothek von 200 Rthlrn. übernimmt und das Haus bewohnen wird. Das Capital von 350 Rthlrn., das sie ihm geliehen hat, hat er ihr abverdient.

Codizill zum Testament 1756 Sept. 17.

Der Passus, daß der Oberfactor Schnecker nicht an der Erbschaft teilnehmen soll und seine Kinder Procuratoren haben sollen, wird aufgehoben.

Ferner hat sie den Pastor Dörrien, seine Frau und deren Brüder an ihr Krankenlager rufen lassen, und bestätigt, daß diese nicht gekommen seien, um zu erbschleichen.

Von den jetzigen Pastorenwitwen soll nur die Pastorin Thilo die Zinsen der Pfarrerwitwen-Stiftung beziehn, außer wenn noch wieder eine neue hinzukommt.

Testamentseröffnung war 1756 Sept. 28.

Kurze Chronik der Familie Kypke
Pastor Heinrich Kypke, 1900, 1904

31.
Carl Heinrich K.,
Rektor und Diakonus in Freienwalde, Pomm.
und Pastor in Rossow,
geb. 31. 8. 1800, + 13. 4. 1884,
des Rektors und Predigers Carl K. jüngerer Sohn, geboren zu Dramburg am 31. August 1800. Er war ein schwächliches Kind, bei seiner Geburt nicht größer als eine Pfeffermühle, wurde deshalb noch an demselben Tage (eines Sonntags) getauft. Seine Taufzeugen waren: 1. der Prediger Kapke, 2. der Marschkommissarius Struck und 3. des Stadtchirurgus Milarsch Ehefrau, geb. Krüger, des Täuflings Stiefgroßmutter.

Wiewohl er eine sehr schwere Kindheitszeit durchlebt, (Krankheit und Tod des Vaters, Mittellosigkeit der Mutter, französische Einquartierung), so erstarkte er dennoch nach und nach, überwand schwere Krankheiten, und ward später ein rüstiger Mann, der viel gearbeitet und Tüchtiges geleistet hat. Den ersten Unterricht erteilte seinem älteren Bruder und ihm der bereits genannte Schulhalter, ein hinkender Unteroffizier Städtke, freilich nur kümmerlich. Dann kam er zu seinem Großvater, dem Stadtchirurgus Milarch in Dramburg und besuchte die dortige Stadtschule, deren Primus er bald wurde. Doch konnte man dazumal in dieser Schule nicht viel lernen, weil weder der Rektor H., noch der Conrektor W., der während des Unterrichts gern einen kräftigen Zug aus der mitgebrachten Likörflasche nahm, die Schüler zu halten verstanden.

Nachdem Carl K. durch seinen Großonkel, den Superintendenten Krüger in Dramburg, eingesegnet worden, war er 5 Jahre lang als Schreiber und vereidigter Protokollführer bei dem Justizamtmann Hollaz in Dramburg thätig. Letzterer wurde später zum Landrat des Dramburger Kreises gewählt.

In seines Prinzipals Hause wurde er gut gehalten und konnte im praktischen Dienste viel von ihm lernen, weil derselbe ein kluger und geschickter Jurist war. Da ihm aber, je länger desto mehr, seine ungenügende Schulbildung, namentlich die mangelhafte Kenntnis der deutschen und lateinischen Sprache zum Bewußtsein kam, so beschloß er, das Wohlleben als Schreiber, wo es fast täglich Braten und Wein gab, aufzugeben und wieder ein Schüler zu werden. Er teilte dem Justizamtmann seinen Entschluß mit und bat um baldige Entlassung. Dieser wollte aber hiervon nichts wissen, sondern versuchte, ihm die Sache auszureden, weil er schon 19 Jahre alt und ohne jegliches Vermögen auf der Hochschule nicht bestehen könne. Er bot sogar Gehaltszulage und versprach, ihm die Actuariatsstelle zu übertragen, sobald der bejahrte Inhaber dieselbe aufgebe.

Allein K. blieb seinem Entschlusse fest, dankte herzlich für soviel Güte und zog mit 20 Thalern in der Tasche nach Stettin und bat um Aufnahme in das Marienstifts-Gymnasium. Doch legte ihm der alte Schulrat und Direktor Koch, welchen die Schüler wegen seiner langen und gebogenen Nase, sowie wegen der Schärfe seiner Augen "accipiter" (=Habicht) nannten, große Schwierigkeiten in den Weg. Er wollte ihn teils wegen seines Alters, teils seiner Armut wegen, weil er fürchten mochte, von ihm keine Aufnahme-Gebühren zu bekommen, nicht aufnehmen. Auf das anhaltende Bitten des lernbegierigen Jünglings aber sagte er zuletzt doch Ja ! und setze ihn unter die Kleinen nach Quinta. Hiermit begann nun ein mühseliges Schülerleben für den Neunzehnjährigen !

Seine fromme Mutter hatte ihm ihren Segen mit auf den Weg gegeben und betete fleißig für ihn. Allein zeitliche Güter vermochte sie ihm nicht zu schicken, weil sie dieselben nicht besaß. Da erweckte der liebe Gott, an den er sich in seiner Not wandte, mitleidige Herzen, welche ihn mit Geld und Freitischen unterstützten, do daß er nicht zu hungern brauchte. Wenn auch seine Dachkammer im Winter nicht zu heizen war, so brauchte er doch nicht zu frieren, weil gutgesinnte Mitschüler ihm erlaubten, daß er sich in ihrer warmen Stube aufhalten und erwärmen durfte.

Seine Bildung war und blieb in den unteren Klassen des Gymnasiums eine mangelhafte. Die Lehrer richteten selten eine Frage an ihn, weil sie der Meinung sein mochten, daß ein so großer Mann das alles schon wissen müsse, was in Quinta gelehrt wurde. Wegen seiner Größe und ehrbaren Miene aber machten sie ihn schon im ersten halben Jahre zum Primus der Klasse, in der Hoffnung, daß er die fehlende Ordnung unter seinen kleinen Mitschülern werde herstellen helfen. Dies war nun freilich nicht leicht. Er mußte in den Zwischenpausen, wo es besonders laut zuging, manchmal einen kleinen Knirps, der ihm nicht gehorchen wollte, in das große Schulspind einsperren. Das half; die Schulzucht war bald hergestellt, worüber die Lehrer besonders erfreut waren. K. erhielt gute Zeugnisse; weil er aber im Französischen noch schwach war, so wollte der Direktor ihn nicht nach Quarta versetzen. Da erbot sich jedoch ein ihm freundlich gesinnter Oberlehrer und später der französische Lehrer Milleville, ihm Nachhilfestunden im Französischen zu geben. Aus Dankbarkeit hierfür ordnete er des Letzteren Bibliothek. Die Lücken im Französischen waren bald ausgefüllt, so daß er in Quarta ziemlich fertig französisch sprechen lernte. Von da ab war der Schulrat Koch durchaus zufrieden mit ihm. In den oberen Klassen ging es überhaupt besser mit ihm; nur mußte er, um das für den Unterhalt fehlende zu erwerben, viele Privatstunden erteilen.

In den letzten Jahren fand er nun seines Fleißes und guten Betragens willwn freie Aufnahme im Jageteuffelschen Kolleg.

Schon nach 5 Jahren bestand er mit Gottes Hilfe die Abgangs-Prüfung in Stettin, welche in manchen Stücken nur leicht war. So fragte der alte Bischof Engelken ihn im Hebräischen nur nach den verschiedenen "Dagesch", und da er dies gut zu beantworten wußte, so sagte derselbe zu ihm: "Bene, bene, optime" d.h. gut, gut, sehr gut !

Anfänglich war seine Absicht, die Rechte zu studieren, weil er im Praktischen Dienst darin bereits geübt war. Allein auf den Rat seiner Anverwandten entschloß er sich zum Studium der Theologie und ging zu dem Zwecke nach Berlin. Freilich fehlte es ihm am Allernotwendigsten. Von Hause her hatte er nichts zu erwarten, und Stipendia gab es damals nicht viele oder sie waren doch schwer zu erlangen. Da bewilligte ihm sein bereits genannter, wohltätiger Onkel Milarsch in Schönebeck eine jährliche Unterstützung von 50 Thalern. Dazu verdiente er sich ein Weniges durch Stundengeben. Es reichte aber nicht hin, um täglich Mittag essen zu können; es mußte manchmal übergeschlagen werden. Diese Einschränkung hatte freilich auch ihr Gutes. Die fehlenden Geldmittel verboten ihm, in die Bier- und Weinstuben zu gehen, in denen so viele Studenten zu schaden kommen und zugrunde gehen. Etwas günstiger gestalteten sich die Verhältnisse, als der Geheim-Rat Lichtenstein, der damalige Universitäts-Kurator, ihm freien Mittagstisch bewilligte. Sonst wäre er, wie er selbst bekennt, bei seiner mönchischen Lebensweise wie eine Backpflaume zusammengestrocknet. Auch erhielt er auf Professor Neanders Empfehlung Privatstunden, indem er einige Polen im Hebräischen zu unterrichten hatte. Doch waren dies schlechte Schüler und ebenso schlechte Zahler.

Bei seinen sehr beschränkten Geldmitteln war es ihm dennoch möglich, als Student eine Reise durch Süd-Deutschland nach der Schweiz und Ober-Italien zu machen, die er und sein Reisegefährte, der Studiosus Elfreich aus Mecklenburg zum größten Teil zufuß zurücklegten. Letzterer erhielt von seinem Vater einige blanke Goldstücke zur Reise. K. mußte sich dagegen das Reisegeld erst mühsam zusammen sparen. Er verwandte dazu die 50 Thaler Unterstützung, welche sein Onkel Milarch ihm jedes Jahr bewilligte. Dazu schickte ihm der Regierungsrat Hahn, dessen Sohn, einen Forstakademiker, den er unterrichtet hatte, 30 Thaler.

---- Reisebeschreibung ---- Danach

Bis zum Jahre 1829 weilte K. noch in Berlin und machte das erste theologische Examen vor Neander, Brescius, Nicolai und Palmié. Hierauf unterrichtete er die Kinder des Kaufmanns Eccius zu Frankfurt a. O., war 1/4 Jahr lang Hilfsprediger in Schwibus N/L. und hernach Hauslehrer bei Frau von Kospoth auf Alt-Golm bei Fürstenwalde.

Nachdem er im Jahre 1831 auch die zweite theologische Prüfung in Berlin glücklich bestanden, besuchte er seinen Onkel Milarch in Schönebeck. Dort erhielt er 1832 einen Ruf als Rektor und Diakonus nach Freienwalde Pomm. In demselben Jahre machte er das Examen pro schola in Stettin vor dem Gymnasial-Direktor, Schulrat Dr. Koch.

Bereits im Jahre 1833 ward er der Nachfolger seines Schwiegervaters, des Superintendenten a. D., Pastors Dörry zu Rossow bei Freienwalde i. Pomm. Diese Pfarrstelle hat er nur 9 Jahre lang verwaltet, bis er auf Betrieb des ihm feindlich gesinnten Patrones von Zastrow (welcher a. 1848 Demokrat wurde und später als Kohlenschweler in Amerika ein trauriges Ende genommen) im October 1842 mit einem Emeritengehalt von 120 Thalern in den Ruhestand versetzt wurde, jedoch mit der Berechtigung, jederzeit wiederum ein Pfarramt übernehmen zu dürfen. Da er aber lieber unterrichtete, so hat er hier und da, z. B. in Langenhagen, Nörenberg, Daber, Wollin, Wangerin und Regenwalde a. R. Privatschulen gegründet und zum teil tüchtige Schüler ausgebildet. Er war genötigt, bis in sein hohes Alter hinein Privatunterricht zu erteilen, da sein Ruhegehalt nicht hinreichte, seine Familie von 13 Kindern mit Ehren durchzubringen und er seine geringen Ersparnisse beim Kauf eines Schulzenhofes in dem Dorfe Winningen bei Wangerin i. Pomm. verloren hatte.

Am 25. Februar 1833 hatte er sich mit Johanne Emilie Laura Dörry, geb. 30. Juni 1815, einzigen Tochter des Superintendenten s. D., Pastors Johann Philipp Gottfried Dörry zu Rossow verheiratet, welcher Ehe 13 Kinder (8 Söhne und 5 Töchter) entsprossen sind, deren kurze Lebensbilder wir am Schlusse bringen werden. Sie heißen: 1. Carl, 2. Ernst, 3. Heinrich, 4. Hermann, 5. Laura, 6. Albert, 7. Clara, 8. Robert, 9. Maria, 10. Anton, 11. Wilhelm, 12. Anna und 13. Hedwig.

Am 25. Februar 1858 feierte das Kypkesche Ehepaar seine silberne Hochzeit in Wollin, an welcher einige Freunde des Hauses, wie der Pastor von Mittelstädt, der Kreisgerichtsrat Müller, der Bürgermeister Falk, der Königl. Oberfischmeister Grunewald, Dr. Lampe u. A. teilnahmen. Die Privatschüler beschenkten dasselbe mit einem großen, schönen Wandspiegel und zwei Leuchtern aus Lava. Gegen Abend kamen auch die fünf ältesten Söhne zur Feier, welche bei strengem Winterwetter 7 Meilen weit über das Eis der Oder und der Dievenow gegangen waren. Ihre Liebe und Aufopferung wußte Pastor von Mittelstädt in einer Tischrede zu würdigen, an deren Schluß auf das Wohl dieser jungen Helden angestoßen wurde. Zur silbernen Hochzeit gingen viele Glückwünsche, darunter auch einige originelle Gedichte ein.

Bei aller Strenge, welche der Vater Kypke gegen seine große Kinderschar und seine Schüler walten ließ, hatte er doch ein liebewarmes Herz und brachte die größten Opfer für seine Familie. Er war ein Muster des Fleißes, der Sparsamkeit und der Ordnungsliebe. In seinem hohen Alter ließ er einen ganzen Winter hindurch sein Stübchen nicht heizen, um die Feuerung zu sparen. Er spaltete meist selbst das Holz und scheute sich auch vor den härtesten Knurren und Stubben nicht. Er konnte an einem Tage bis 10 deutsche Meilen zufuß wandern und badete bis in die letzten Lebensjahre im kalten Rega-Flusse.

Dem alten würdigen Paare war es vergönnt, auch noch die goldene Hochzeit am 23. Februar 1883 in Greifenberg i.

Pomm. zu feiern. Von seinen 13 Kindern, mit denen ihre Ehe gesegnet worden, waren noch 9 am Leben, die froh und dankbar mit ihnen feierten. Von 29 Enkeln lebten zu der Zeit noch 20. Der jüngste Sohn Anton war am Sonntage zuvor in das Pfarramt zu Groß-Borkenhagen eingeführt worden und hatte am Freitage darnach seine Hochzeit auf Schloß Dorow gefeiert.

Einige treue Freunde und Freundinnen der Familie waren zur häuslichen Feier erschienen, darunter auch der Superintendent Friedemann, welcher die Ehejubiläums-Medaille, die von Sr. Majestät dem Kaiser huldvollst dem Paare gewährt worden, mit herzlichen Worten und Segenswünschen überreichte.

Der dritte Sohn Heinrich, dazumal Pastor in Büche, Syn. Jacobshagen i. Pomm. hatte tags zuvor den Eltern das heil. Abendmahl im Hause gereicht und am goldenen Hochzeitstage die Traurede gehalten und das Paar aufs neue gesegnet. Den Wortlaut der Ansprache gedenken wir als Anhang der Chronik beizufügen, weil noch einige bemerkenswerte Züge aus dem Leben der Eltern darin mitgeteilt sind.

Die dankbaren Kinder überreichten ihnen eine grobschriftige Traubibel zu ihrer ferneren Erbauung, sowie ein goldenes Hochzeitsalbum mit einem Wunschgedichte, welche die eine der Schwiegertöchter Clara geb. Lenz gefertigt und durch Einkleben der Familienbilder in hübscher Blumenumrahmung geschmückt hatte.

Doch, wie bald brach auf den Lebensabend die Nacht herein. Frau Pastor Kypke entschlief bereits am 19. März 1884, und ihr um 15 Jahre älterer Mann folgte ihr, kaum 4 Wochen später, am 13. April ej. a.

Frau Pastor Kypke geb. Dörry hat vor ihrem Ende, auf den Wunsch der Kinder, aus ihrer Eltern und ihrem eigenen Leben noch ein Weniges aufgeschrieben, was wir hier gern mitteilen. Sie war eine überaus liebenswürdige, heiter angelegte, sanfte, fromme und fleißige Frau, die mit inniger Liebe an ihrer Familie hing und unermüdlich für ihren Mann und die große Schar ihrer Kinder und ihrer Pensionäre sorgte. Von ihren Eltern, für deren Liebe sie besonders dankbar war, schreibt sie.

Pastor Heinrich Kypke, 1900, 1904

"Mein lieber Vater: Johann Philipp Gottfried Dörry ist am 25. Februar 1760 zu Günzerode in der Grafschaft Hohenstein in Sachsen geboren. Nachdem er die Schulen in Celle und Wolfenbüttel durchgemacht, war er vier Jahre lang Kantor in dem Städtchen Sachsa, Rgb. Erfurt. Darnach bezog er die Universität Halle a. S., um daselbst Theologie zu studieren. Da sein Vater, welcher gleichfalls das Amt eines Kantors verwaltete, keine Mittel besaß, um ihn auf der Hochschule zu erhalten, so mußte der Sohn sich durch Klavierstunden das tägliche Brot verdienen. Einige vornehme Damen, darunter Gräfinnen zahlten ihm für die Stunde einen Thaler. Außerdem blies er in großen Concerten die Flöte, wofür er gut bezahlt wurde. Ein Freund meines Vaters, ein bauernsohn aus seiner Heimat, studierte mit ihm zusammen. Dieser hatte einen Freitisch, wo er Brot und Fleisch bekam. Davon brachte er ihm immer etwas mit, so daß mein Vater seinen Hunger auch noch stillen konnte. Sein Freund hieß Hase und wurde später Konsistorialrat in Göttingen.

Mein Vater kam als Kandidat nach Pommern und wurde Hauslehrer bei dem Landrat von Schöning auf Ückerhof, dessen zwei Töchter, die späteren Gräfinnen von der Schulenburg und von Blankensee er unterrichtete.

Sein Principal verschaffte ihm nach einigen Jahren die Pfarrstelle in Schellin-Verchland, Syn. Werben, welche damals nur 200 Thaler brachte. Von den Kirchenpatronen, Baron von der Goltz auf Schellin und Frau Obrist von Zastrow auf Verchland wurde er im Jahre 1798 als Pastor dorthin berufen, nachdem er vom General-Superintendenten Ringeltaube in Stettin zum Amte geweiht worden. Hierauf ward er am 8. Sonnt. p. Trin. (29. Juli) ej. a. vom Superintendenten Wandam in Werben, im Beisein der Pastoren Pohle aus Wittichow und Laurin aus Sallentin in den Kirchen zu Schellin und Verchland amtlich eingeführt.

In Schellin verheiratete er sich mit der Tochter des Justizrats Wesenfeld zu Stargard i. Pomm., welche ihm zu gleicher Zeit in Ückerhof als Erzieherin thätig gewesen. Da sie beide unbemittelt waren, so bestand ihre ganze Zimmereinrichtung aus einigen Holzschemeln und andern einfachen Geräten. Sie hielten jedoch Pensionäre, meist Kinder vornehmer Eltern, um ohne Schulden durchzukommen.

Bald erhielten sie auch eine etwas einträglichere Pfarre. Zu Michaeli 1801 ward mein Vater als Prediger für die Pfarre Rossow mit den Filialen Sassenburg und Beweringen, Synode Freienwalde i. Pomm., gewählt. Daselbst übernahm er 1811 die Superintendentur der Freienwaldeschen Synode, welche er jedoch 1830 krankheitshalber niederlegte.

Nach dem Tode seiner ersten Frau, welche ihm einen Sohn Otto geschenkt, verheiratete er sich am 7. Januar 1812 mit meiner Mutter Johanna Beda, geb. im Jahre 1787, Tochter des 1788 verstorbenen Inspektors der Realschule zu Stargard i. Pomm. (Die Großmutter Beda heiratete 15 Jahre später den Prediger Gebler in Sandow).

Mein Vater besaß die Liebe seiner Gemeinden in hohem Grade; er wurde wie ein Vater von ihnen verehrt. Sie kamen mit allen Kümmernissen zu ihm und holten sich seinen Rat, den er ihnen stets in liebevoller Weise erteilte. Sie hat die Lasten und Beschwerden des französischen Krieges treulich mit ihnen geteilt, hat viele Opfer gebracht und große Verluste gehabt, da er durch die Kosacken vollständig ausgeplündert wurde. Monate lang hat er französische Offiziere im Quartier gehabt, die sehr fein bewirtet werden mußten.

In späteren Jahren wurde er vom Schlage gerührt, so daß er sein Amt niederlegen mußte und 1834 in den Ruhestand trat. Ihm ward von Sr. Majestät eine jährliche Pension von 150 Thalern zugesagt, weil er so viele Jahre die Königl. Superintendentur zur Zufriedenheit geführt hatte.

Er starb aber schon am 28. Mai, als am Himmelfahrtstage, des Jahres 1835. Dies war ein Trauertag für seine Gemeinden. Ein zahlreiches Trauergefolge, Reiche und Arme, welche zumteil meilenweite Wege nicht gescheut hatten, erwiesen ihm an seinem Begräbnistage die letzte Ehre.

Meine Mutter mußte sich als Witwe sehr einschränken, da ihre 3 Söhne noch unversorgt waren und der jüngste erst 9 Jahre zählte. In die Witwenkasse war sie nicht eingekauft, da die Eltern in den Jahren so sehr verschieden waren. Die Mutter war aber eine überaus fleißige Frau. Sie stand morgens um 4 Uhr auf und hatte oft, während der Vater noch schlief, bereits große Wäsche besorgt und die Stuben selbst gescheuert, damit er nur nichts davon merken sollte.

Mein ältester Bruder Otto (aus I. Ehe) war zur Zeit, als der Vater starb, bereits Pastor in Groß-Drensen bei Filehne. Mein Bruder Eduard erlernte die Landwirtschaft auf den Gütern des Grafen Blankensee bei Filehne; Albert war Sekundaner auf dem Neustettiner Gymnasium und der jüngste Hermann besuchte die Stadtschule zu Freienwalde. Dorthin zog die Mutter zunächst, bis Hermann auf das Gymnasium in Stargard, Pomm. gebracht wurde. Hierauf bezog sie ihr Witwenhäuschen in Beweringen. Albert besuchte die Universitäten Breslau und Berlin und wurde Gymnasial-Lehrer, während Hermann nach Berlinchen in die Lehre als Apotheker kam und später sein Staatsexamen in Berlin machte. Die Ausgaben für ihre Söhne zehrten das kleine Vermögen der Mutter völlig auf. Sie starb im Jahre 1849 in Beweringen, 62 Jahre alt.

Die letzten Jahre hatte sie mit ihrer Stiefschwester Christiane Gebler zusammen gelebt, welche sie treu verpflegt und auch mir viel Gutes erwiesen hat. Unsere Laura durfte 3 Jahre lang bei ihnen sein; sie haben derselben viele Liebe erzeiget.

Noch erwähne ich, daß meine Eltern in einer sehr glücklichen Ehe lebten; ich habe nie gehört, daß sie je wären uneinig gewesen.".

Kurze Chronik der Familie Kypke
Pastor Heinrich Kypke, 1900, 1904

Der Segen dieser vortrefflichen Eltern ruhte in reichem Maße auf ihrer Tochter. Wohl ist derselben kein leichtes Leben beschieden gewesen, sondern sie hat ihr schweres Kreuz zu tragen gehabt. Allein unter dem Kreuz ist ihr Glaube geläutert und köstlich erfunden worden, wie das Gold im Feuer und die Liebe half ihr, auch das Schwerste mit Geduld zu tragen. Mit welcher aufopfernden und hingebenden Liebe hing sie an den Ihren, an jedem ihrer Kinder ! Tag und Nacht pflegte sie dieselben in Krankheitsfällen; und wie eine Mutter ihr Kind tröstet, so verstand sie vortrefflich die traurigen Herzen wieder aufzurichten. Mit welcher Zärtlichkeit hingen ihre Enkel an ihr ! Wie lauschten sie ihren Erzählungen; hatte sie doch eine gar köstliche, frische, kindliche Art, zu erzählen. Ein Weniges hat sie auch aus ihrem vielbewegten Leben niedergeschrieben. Es sei hier besonders für ihre Kinder und Kindeskinder mitgeteilt. Sie schreibt:

"Ich, Johanna Emilie Laura Dörry bin am 30. Juni 1815 zu Rossow geboren, war die einzige Tochter meiner Eltern, da meine beiden Schwestern Caroline und Mathilde vor mir in früher Kindheit gestorben. Ich verlebte eine sehr glückliche Jugend. Meine lieben Eltern, namentlich der Vater haben mich überaus liebevoll, dabei aber sehr strenge erzogen. Ich mußte manches entbehren, was andere Kinder meines Standes hatten. Meine Eltern hatten den Grundsatz, daß ich mich früh an Entbehrungen gewöhnen solle, da man nicht wissen könne, was für ein Los mir einmal zuteil werden. Hierfür habe ich meinen guten Eltern vielmals gedankt, da sie bereits im Grabe ruhten. Sie haben mich früh zur Arbeit angehalten. Als ich 6 Jahre alt war, spann ich schon. Sie hatten mir ein kleines Spinnrad und einen kleinen Schemel, um beim Spinnen darauf zu sitzen, zum Geschenk gemacht. Das Spinnen machte mir viel Vergnügen. Auch ging ich meiner Mutter in der Wirtschaft gern zur Hand. Im Frühjahr machte ich Spulen zum Weben, und im Sommer bezog ich die Leinewand und half im Garten.

Meine Spielgefährten waren meistens Knaben, da kleine Mädchen meines Alters nicht in der Nähe waren. Die Hauslehrer der Synode kamen mit ihren Zöglingen öfter zu uns; mit letzteren spielte ich, z. B. mit Julius von Werner aus Tolz, Hermann v. Treba aus Müggenhagen (- Mein Vater war dessen Vormund -), Hugo v. Wedel aus Braunsforth, Hermann v. Wedel aus Voßberg u. A. Mit einigen von ihnen traf ich zuweilen auch in Karkow bei Herrn Hauptmann v. Wilden zusammen, welcher große Festessen veranstaltete, zu welchen ich schon als kleines Mädchen mit meinen Eltern eingeladen wurde. War ich einmal verhindert, die Reise mitzumachen, so mußten meine Eltern zuvor einen Boten hinsenden, um dies anzuzeigen.

Nach meiner Einsegnung holte mein ältester Bruder Otto mich nach Drensen, damit ich ihm den Haushalt führte. Dies habe ich 1 1/4 Jahre lang bis zu seiner Verheiratung gethan. Der Aufenthalt im Groß-Drenser Pfarrhause war für mich höchst angenehm, da mein Bruder sehr liebevoll gegen mich war.

Am 25. Februar 1833, als am Geburtstage meines lieben Vaters, verheiratete ich mich, noch nicht 18 Jahre alt, mit dem Rektor und Diakonus Carl Kypke in Freienwalde, Pomm. Der Superintendent Severin aus Freienwalde traute uns in Rossow. Ich wohnte mit meinem Manne noch 3/4 Jahre in Freienwalde. Dann wurde er auf Wunsch des Vaters sein Nachfolger in Rossow, wo wir 9 Jahre blieben.

Nach seiner Emeritierung wohnten wir 1 Jahr in Beweringen, 4 Jahre in Langenhagen, 1 1/2 Jahre in Winningen und 5 1/2 Jahre in Nörenberg. Wir hatten oft mit Entbehrungen zu kämpfen, namentlich in Nörenberg, wo wir im ganzen nur 200 Thaler Einnahme für uns und unsere 8 unversorgten Kinder hatten. Zu Heinrichs Reise nach Stettin und seiner Aufnahme auf das Gymnasium verkaufte ich noch einige Wirtschaftssachen, und der Vater entwöhnte sich des Rauchens. Mein Bruder Hermann, welcher dazumal Gehilfe in der Ritterschen Apotheke in Stettin war, zahlte den größten Teil der Pension für ihn, verschaffte ihm Freitische und sorgte dafür, daß er ins Jageteuffelsche Kolleg kam. Mein Bruder hat überhaupt sehr viel für meine Kinder gethan und ihnen die Bahn eröffnet, die sie betreten haben.

Später, als wir Pensionäre bekamen, wurde es etwas besser mit unsern Verhältnissen. Jedoch war es nicht leicht für mich, als ich 14 Kinder im Hause hatte, eigene und fremde und dazu kleine Kinder zum Tragen. Um dies alles mit einem Mädchen fertig zu bekommen, habe ich oft die halben Nächte zu Hilfe nehmen müssen. Manchmal habe ich mein Strickzeug mit ins Bett genommen, um beim Mondenscheine, wenn ich aufwachte, stricken zu können. Dies habe ich herzlich gern gethan. Es machte mir große Freude, daß die Kinder, eigene und fremde, so anhänglich an mich waren und so fleißig lernten. Wie freute ich mich, wenn die Kinder zu den Ferien nach Hause kamen. Wenn sie aber abreisten, mußte ich immer viel weinen.

In Daber, wo wir 3 Jahre wohnten, erlebten wir den ersten Todesfall unter unsern Kindern, indem unser daselbst am 20.

August 1857 geborenes Söhnlein Wilhelm Friedrich bereits nach 5 Tagen an Krämpfen starb.

Von Daber zogen wir nach Wollin, wo der Vater 1 3/4 Jahr lang die Schule, welche der Superintendent Schenk daselbst ins Leben gerufen, leitete. Hier feierten wir unsere silberne Hochzeit.

Von Wollin siedelten wir nach Wangerin über, wo der Vater 3 1/4 Jahre hindurch Privatschüler unterrichtete. Unser Aufenthalt in Regenwalde währte 11 1/4 Jahre. Hier starb unsere liebe Tochter Marie im Jahre 1866, im blühenden Alter von 15 Jahren, am Unterleibstyphus.

Um unserer beiden jüngsten Töchter Anna und Hedwig willen wechselten wir noch einmal unsern Wohnsitz und zogen nach Greifenberg i. Pomm., wo dieselben die höhere Töchterschule besuchen konnten. Hier starb unsere liebe Hedwig am Gehirntyphus am 9. September 1880, im Alter von beinahe 19 Jahren. Zuvor hatten wir unsern geliebten zweiten Sohn Ernst in Berlin am 21. Januar 1880 durch den Tod verloren."

Auf der Reise zum Begräbnis ihres Sohnes nach Berlin in bitter-kaltem Winterwetter hatte die Mutter sich schwer erkältet und war längere Zeit an Darmentzündung ernstlich krank. Mehrere Jahre zuvor hatte sie an einem Lebergeschwulst über 6 Monate lang zu Bett gelegen und zwar nur wie durch ein Wunder Gottes, unter der aufopferndsten Pflege des jüdischen Arztes, Sanitätsrats Dr. Arndt in Regenwalde und ihrer Tochter Laura wieder genesen.

Die Darmentzündungen wiederholten sich leider von Zeit zu Zeit, bis die Vielgeprüfte am 19. März 1884 nach kurzem, wenn auch schmerzvollen Krankenlager in kindlichem Glauben an ihren Erlöser entschlief. Ihr Gedächtnis möge allezeit ein Segen bei uns bleiben !

Carl Johannes K.,
Landwirt zu Marienfließ i. Pomm.,
geb. 22. 2. 1835,
ältester Sohn des Pastors Carl Kypke, geb. zu Rossow am 22. Februar 1835. Seine Taufzeugen waren: 1. Der Rektor Zäske in Massow, 2. der Pastor Dietrich-Schönwalde, 3. seine Großmutter: Frau Superintendent Dörry und 4. Frau Prediger Gotsch. Er wurde vom Vater selbst unterrichtet. Nach seiner Einsegnung erlernte er 1850-52 die Landwirtschaft bei Herrn von Mellenthin auf Langenhagen und war 1852-55 Inspektor des Amtmannes Schmidt auf der Königl. Domäne Mössin. Am 1. Oktober 1855 wurde er Soldat bei den Gardes du Corps in Potsdam.

Darnach war er Gutsverwalter 1858-59 auf Voßberg, 1859-61 auf Vehlingsdorf, 1862-72 auf Rosenthal bei Berlin, ferner auf Schulzendorf, Schlagenthin, Ossnig und Cromlau bis 1. Januar 1883: später auf Sadelberg, Bloischdorf u. a. m.

Am 28. Juli 1877 verheirate er sich mit Maria Auguste Elisabeth Thieme, geb. 4. Februar 1851, Tochter des in Magdeburg verstorbenen Kaufmanns Thieme (Trauung in der St. Johanniskirche zu Magdeburg).

Ihre Kinder sind:

1. Fritz, geb. zu Magdeburg den 6. September 1875 und get. 15. November 1875 ej. a. im dortigen Dom. Er hat die Kunstgärtnerei erlernt und zwei Jahre bei den Garde- Füsilieren in Berlin gedient. (St. A. 43);
2. Hans, geb. zu Berlin 24. Juni 1878 und get. 18. Juli ej. a. in der dortigen Dreifaltigkeitskirche; Kunstgärtner; dient seit 1898 als Grenadier in der 1. Comp. des Königs-Regiments in Stettin (St. A. 44);
3. Elise, geb. zu Groß-Ossnig den 8. Dezember 1879 und get. 7. Januar 1880;
4. Margarethe, geb. 24. August und get. 25. September 1881 zu Gablenz in Schl. (durch Pastor Richter):
5. Johanna, geb. zu Sadelberg 24. Juni und get. 13. Juli 1883 und
6. Franz, geb. zu Marienfließ 29. December 1886 und get. 2. Februar 1887 (St. A. 45).

36.
Ernst Wilhelm,
geb. 12. 5. 1836, + 21. 1. 1880,
Kaufmann in Berlin,
des Pastors Carl Kypke zu Rossow anderer Sohn, geb. daselbst am 12. Mai 1836. Seine Taufpaten waren: 1. Herr von Zastrow-Rossow, 2. Superintendent Severin, 3. Prediger Gotsch, 4. Amtmann Grashof-Beweringen und 5. Madame Kreinert.

Als kleines Kind fiel er in das hinter dem Pfarrgehöft befindliche tiefe Wasserloch der Bleichstelle und wäre sicher ertrunken, wenn nicht ein gerade vorüberfahrender herrschaftlicher Knecht dies bemerkt und ihn dem Wassergrabe entrissen hätte. Seinen Unterricht empfing er in des Vaters Privatschule. Als die Eltern den Schulzenhof in Winningen bei Wangerin gekauft hatten, half er fleißig in der Landwirtschaft. Frühzeitig entwickelte sich jedoch in ihm die Neigung zum Kaufmannsstande; er machte von seinen Haaren kleine Tuschpinsel und putzte schon gebrauchte Stahlfedern wieder blank, um sie an seine Mitschüler billig zu verkaufen.

Nach seiner Einsegnung kam er zum Kaufmann O. Weissig zu Stettin in die Lehre. Später mußte er seine drei Jahre bei dem Königs-Regimente in Stettin abdienen, wurde aber im letzten Jahre zur Schießschule nach Spandau abkommandiert. - Darnach errichtete er mit einem Teilhaber ein kaufmännisches Geschäft in Stettin, gab es aber nach kurzer Zeit wieder auf und ging in das große Zigarrengeschäft von Praetorius nach Berlin; etablierte sich dann selbst und verheiratet sich am 2. Juni 1866 mit Minna Kilian, geb. 30. Mai 1843, ältesten Tochter des Gutsbesitzers Kilian bei Berlin (Trauung in der Dreifaltigkeitskirche).

Nach einigen Jahren kaufte er die Häuser Große Hamburger-Straße 18/19, baute sich im Garten daselbst ein stattliches Haus und betrieb ein blühendes Zigarrengeschäft. Er verlor jedoch sein Vermögen durch Betrüger, indem er die von seinem Schwiegervater ererbten Häuser mit Rittergütern vertauschte, die mit Schulden belastet waren und ihm nichts einbrachten. Er starb am 21. Januar 1880 und ist auf dem Sophienkirchhofe in Berlin zur letzten Ruhe bestattet worden.

Seine Ehe war mit fünf Kindern (3 Söhnen und zwei Töchtern) gesegnet:

1. Anna, geb. zu Berlin am 15. März 1867 und get. am Grün-Donnerstage ej. a. im Hause, verheiratet am 25. October 1895 mit dem Fabrikanten Georg Brüger in Wangerin, Pomm.;

2. Georg, geb. in Berlin am 26. November 1868 und get. am Neujahrstage 1869 in der Zwölf-Apostelkirche; Kaufmann in Berlin (St. A. 46);

3. Lieschen, geb. in Berlin 30. December 1870 und get. im März 1871 in der Friedrich-Werderschen Kirche, verheiratet am 16. October 1893 mit dem Kaufmann Paul Kranich in Küstrin II;

4. Ernst, geb. in Berlin 14. December 1874, + daselbst 24. März 1876 (St. A. 47) und

5. Fritz, geb. in Berlin 8. Februar 1877 und im März ej. a. in der Sophienkirche getauft (St. A. 48), gleichfalls Kaufmann.

Pastor Heinrich Kypke, 1900, 1904

37.
Georg Heinrich,
Pastor in Schreiberhau II.
geb. 3. 4. 1838,
des Pastors Carl Kypke zu Rossow dritter Sohn, geb. am 3. April 1838. Seine Taufzeugen waren: 1. und 2. Herr und Frau von Zastrow-Rossow und 3. Frau Superintendent Dörry. Als kleines Kind ward er von einem blinden Bettler aus Versehen in eine Waschbütte gestoßen und wäre beinahe darin ertrunken. Als er kaum 4 Jahre alt war, erzählte der Vater ihm eines Abends die Geschichte des Trojanischen Krieges und beschrieb ihm die Thaten der griechischen Helden. Dies machte solchen Eindruck auf ihn, daß er diese Geschichte mit Begeisterung fast jedem Besucher des Pfarrhauses wörtlich wieder erzählte. Die Liebe zur Geschichte ist seitdem in ihm geblieben. In Winningen hütete er zwei Sommer hindurch seines Vaters Schafe. An einem Bußtage geriet er, ohnmächtig geworden, in Gefahr, von dem hochgelegenen Chor der Kirche in Nörenberg abzustürzen, wenn nicht sein Bruder Ernst ihn noch an einem Fuße festgehalten. Als Knabe von 12-14 Jahren litt er an epileptischen Krämpfen, wurde aber durch eine dreitägige Schwitzkur davon befreit.

Mit 14 Jahren kam er auf das Marienstiftsgymnasium in Stettin und erhielt Freitische und Freischule, sowie baldige Aufnahme im Jageteuffelschen Kolleg. Die ersten Privatstunden erteilte er für 6 Pfennige und war überglücklich, wenn er am Ende des Monats 15 Silbergroschen dafür erhielt. Dabei sparte er als Gymnasiast 80 Thaler, was ihm später nicht wieder gelungen ist. Mit 19 1/2 Jahren machte er sie Abgangsprüfung und ward ohne mündliches Examen zur Universität zugelassen. Als Prämie erhielt er hierzu vonseiten des Kollegs einen neuen Anzug von schwarzem Tuch und die Bibel-Erklärung von v. Gerlach nebst Bengels Gnomon.

Er studierte vom October 1857 bis dahin 1860 in Berlin Theologie, vom Herrn Stiftshauptmann v. Wedel-Braunsforth und dem spätern General-Landschafts-Direktor Alex. v. d. Osten-Blumberg und andern Gönnern mit Stipendien bestens unterstützt.

Darnach ward er Hauslehrer bei Herrn von Bülow auf Hoffelde und Herrn von Dewitz auf Farbezin. Als Kandidat machte er seine beiden theologischen Prüfungen in Stettin und wurde hierauf von dem Erblandmarschall von Flemming-Basenthin zu Neujahr 1864 zum Pastor adj. in Basenthin mit dem Filial Harmsdorf, Syn. Naugard, berufen, welches Amt er bis 1. October 1871 verwaltet hat. Von da ab war er Pastor adj. in Naseband mit den Filialen Kowalk und Schmenzin, unter dem Patronat der Herren von Zastrow-Naseband, von Kleist-Drenow und Grafen Kleist-Schmenzin, welche ihm unsagbar viel Gutes erwiesen. Dort verblieb er bis Ende 1879, Durch Gemeindewahl erhielt er endlich die Pfarre Büche mit den Filialen Marienfließ und Goldbeck, Syn. Jacobshagen, welche er bis zu seiner Emeritierung am 1. April 1894 verwaltet hat.

Im Jahre 1888 wurde er von der Pomm. Missionskonferenz nach Basel zur Teilnahme an der Missionsfestwoche entsandt, wo er unvergeßliche, reichgesegnete Feste mitfeiern durfte, im Hause einer Missionsfreundin, Frau Hel. La Roche-Burchardt gastlich aufgenommen.

Am 1. April 1894 wurde er, krankheitshalber dienstunfähig, in den Ruhestand versetzt, erhielt den Roten Adler-Orden IV. Kl. und siedelte nach Schreiberhau II. i. R. über, wo er mit seiner Familie seitdem ein christliches Hospiz, das Pensionat zum Hochstein, leitet.

Im Jahre 1887 hat er durch Sammlung von freiwilligen Beträgen das Marienheim in Marienfließ, Pomm., ein Heimathaus für vereinsamte und sieche Pfarrtöchter und andere Beamtentöchter ins Leben gerufen. Er durfte auch 1889 bei der Gründung des Seehospizes zu Colberger Deep für die erholungsbedürftigen Kinder des Elisabeth-Kinder-Hospitals in Berlin hilfreiche Hand mit anlegen, indem er in Pommern für diesen Zweck Sammelte.

Am 6. Januar 1864 verheiratete er sich mit Clara Lenz, geb. 10. Mai 1842, Tochter des Kgl. Superintendenten G. Lenz und dessen Gemahlin Marie geb. Döhling zu Wangerin i. Pomm., aus welcher Ehe 10 Kinder (6 S. u. 4 T.) entsprossen

Hermann Friedrich.
Pastor in Rehwinkel,
geb. 29. 4. 1840,
des Pastors Carl Kypke zu Rossow vierter Sohn, geb. 29. April 1840. Seine Paten waren: 1. Dr. med. Krupke-Freienwalde, 2. Tante Christiane Gebler und 3. Onkel Ed. Dörry. Er zeigte von Kind auf Geschick zu praktischen Arbeiten und half der Mutter in der Kinderstube und im Haushalt. Gern hielt er sich auch im Witwenhäuschen bei der Großmutter Dörry in Beweringen auf, deren früchtereicher Garten ihn wohl besonders anzog. Als Kind von etwa 6 Jahren aß er eines Mittags sämtlichen für die Erntearbeiter ausgebratenen Speck auf, was ihm doch einige Beschwerden verursachte. In Langenhagen schwebte er dreimal in Lebensgefahr (fiel in den zugefrorenen Pfuhl, ward aber durch seinen zwei Jahre älteren Bruder herausgezogen; darnach stieß ein Spielkamerad ihm aus Versehen mit einem Knittel ins Gesicht, daß er sich fast verblutete und wurde von seiner Schwester L. im Spiel in einen Kasten gesperrt, durchstieß aber in der Todesangst den Bretterboden desselben). - In Winningen half er das Vieh hüten.

Mit 14 Jahren kam er auf das Marienstifts-Gymnasium in Stettin und wohnte zuerst in der Küche bei Kolporteur Paede (wofür monatlich 1 Thaler zu zahlen); darnach im Jageteuffelchen Kolleg. Im Jahre 1859 bestand er das Abiturienten-Examen ohne mündliche Prüfung und studierte 3 Jahre Theologie in Berlin.

Die ersten Predigten hielt er am 1. April 1861 in Polchow und Klaushagen bei Wangerin i. Pomm,, war von Michaeli 1861 bis Ostern 1862 Hauslehrer bei dem Direktor Wilke im Zellengefängnis Moabit bei Berlin, seit 1. Mai 1862 Dirigent einer schola delecta in Regenwalde, bestand zu Ostern 1863 die erste theologische Prüfung in Stettin, seit 1. October 1863 Litterat an der lateinischen Schule zu Naugard, machte Ostern 1864 das Rektorats-Examen und Ostern 1865 die zweite theologische Prüfung, ward 26. September 1865 zum Amte geweiht, zu Michaeli 1865 Pastor zu Stargord mit der Tochtergemeinde Alt-Döberitz, Syn. Regenwalde, zu Michaeli 1870 Pastor zu Schellin und Verchland, Syn. Werben, (wo einst sein Großvater Dörry amtiert) und zu Neujahr 1885 Pastor zu Rehwinkel und Ball, Syn. Jacobshagen. In den Jahren 1892/93 war er Superintendentur-Verweser der Jacobshagener Synode und führte von 1892-95 die Kreisschulinspektion, ist Mitglied des Synodal-Vorstandes seit 1892 und der Pommerschen Provinzial-Synode seit 1893.

Mit dem 1. October d. Js. tritt er in den Ruhestand.

Er ist Verfasser einer kurzen Worterklärung von Luthers kleinem Katechismus, war Mitarbeiter an der "Missionsgeschichte für das christl. Volk" 1875 und hat 1898 die Neubearbeitung von "Starks güldenem Schatzkästlein" (Verlag von Enßlin und Laiblin in Reutlingen) in die Hand genommen.

In seinem Besitz befinden sich die "Napoleonssachen", welche sein erster Schwiegervater, der Leutnant W. Ribbeck 1815 vor Genappe von dem fliehenden Napoleon I. erbeutet. - Im Jahre 1898 hat er als Familiensitz die "Villa Waldesrauschen" im Kolberger Deep gebaut.

I. Seine erste Gattin war:

Pastor Heinrich Kypke, 1900, 1904

Laura Alwine,
Leiterin eines Pensionats in Greifenberg, Pom., geb. 3. März 1842, älteste Tochter des Pastors Carl Kypke zu Rossow, geb. daselbst 3. März 1842. Ihre Taufzeugen waren: 1. Pastor Busch-Falkenberg, 2. Fräulein Ida Dietrich-Schönwalde und 3. Frau Mühlenbesitzer Stage.

In ihrer kurzen Selbstbiographie teilt sie aus ihrem Leben folgendes mit:

"Aus meiner Kindheit ist mir die Zeit am liebsten und am meisten erinnerlich, da ich in Beweringen bei der Großmutter und Tante Christel sein durfte; es war eine sehr frohe und glückliche Zeit für mich, von meinem 5. bis 8. Jahre. Der Tod der Großmutter machte einen sehr tiefen Eindruck auf mich, obgleich ich erst 7 Jahre alt war. Meine Thränen flossen unaufhaltsam. Besonders quälte und beunruhigte mich, daß ich sie durch Unarten öfter betrübt hatte.

Die ersten Anfangsgründe lernte ich bei Tante Christel, der ich mit schwärmerischer Liebe anhing. Später besuchte ich des Vaters Privatschulen in Nörenberg und Daber. Hier wurde ich von Superintendent Wegner, den ich sehr liebte und verehrte, eingesegnet. Die Zeit des Konfirmanden-Unterrichts wird mir unvergesslich bleiben. Mein erster größerer Ausflug, nachdem ich erwachsen, war nach Berlin, wo ich mich auf 1/4 Jahr besuchsweise bei der alten guten Tante, Frau Stadtrat Wahrenberg aufhielt. Da zu der Zeit zwei meiner Brüder dort studierten, so fehlte es mir nicht an mancherlei Abwechslung und Freude.

Mit 17 Jahren nahm ich eine Stelle als Erzieherin in Drammin bei Wollin in der Familie des Amtmanns Gehrke an, wo ich vertretungsweise nur 1/2 Jahr war. Bald darauf kam ich zu Tante Ida Dietrich nach Schönwalde zu deren Unterstützung und gleichzeitig zur Erlernung der Landwirtschaft auf zwei Jahre. Im Sommer mußte ich um 4 Uhr, manchmal auch noch früher und im Winter um 5 Uhr aufstehen und ununterbrochen den ganzen Tag, öfter bis 11 oder 12 Uhr abends arbeiten. Die Tante war sehr strenge, was gewiß zu meinem Besten gewesen ist, der Onkel hingegen stets liebreich und freundlich gegen mich, Darnach nahm ich eine Stelle als Erzieherin bei Förster Homanns in Silberberg bei Buchholz an, wo ich auch 2 Jahre blieb. Ich hatte es dort bei etwas verwilderten Kindern nicht leicht; allein es war sehr angenehm für mich, daß ich die Sonntage häufig im Pfarrhause zu Buchholz bei den guten, alten Döhlings oder in Mühlenbeck bei den lieben Kastners zubringen durfte, wo ich stets viele Liebe und Güte erfuhr. Auch die Nähe meines geliebten Onkels Hermann Dörry und meiner teuern Freunde, Superintendent Zietlows in Neumark war mir sehr erwünscht.

Hierauf ging ich als Erzieherin nach Brückenkrug bei Regenwalde zu Gutsbesitzer Herrlingers. In dieser Zeit starb meine inniggeliebte Schwester Marie. Nie werde ich die schweren, innern Kämpfe vergessen, die ich in dem fremden Hause, wo ich keine Teilnahme fand, duchmachen mußte. Ich erkrankte vor Gram an einem heftigen Nervenfieber und war dem Tode nahe; aber durch Gottes Gnade genas ich wieder. Meine gute Mutter pflegte mich liebevoll und aufopfernd Tag und Nacht, zuerst in Brückenkrug, dann zu Hause in Regenwalde.

Nachdem ich mich einige Zeit erholt, unterrichtete ich 1 1/2 Jahre an der höheren Töchterschule in Regenwalde und unterstützte die Mutter im Haushalt.

Meine letzte Stelle als Erzieherin aber hatte ich in Casimirshof bei Baldenburg i. Westpr., im Hause des Barons von Connersmann, wo ich mehrere Jahre blieb. Da die Kinder unbegabt und verwöhnt waren, so hatte ich es dort recht schwer. Allein die Ferien waren mir immer eine schöne Erholung, da ich meistens bei meinen teuern Geschwistern in Naseband und Baldenburg verleben durfte."

Acht Jahre lang blieb L. hierauf zu Hause, zur Pflege und Unterstützung der alten Eltern bis zu deren seligem Heimgang im Jahre 1884. Seitdem hat sie in Greifenberg ununterbrochen Gymnasiasten in Kost und Pflege gehabt und hingebend dieselben stets aufs beste versorgt.

Albert Emil,
Archidiakonus in Schleusingen,
geb. 3. 4. 1844,
des Pastors Carl K. fünfter Sohn, geb. zu Langenhagen 3. April 1844. Seine Taufzeugen waren: 1. Frau Amtmann Bartelt, 2. Mühlenmeister Zahl und 3. Gymnasiast Parlitz. Er besuchte das Marienstifts-Gymnasium in Stettin von Ostern 1857 bis Michaeli 1864, wohnte zuerst im Kellergeschoß bei Kolporteur Paedes, darauf im Jageteuffelschen Kolleg. Hierauf studierte er bis Ostern 1868 Theologie in Berlin. Von da bis Ostern 1869 war er Lehrer im Hause des Rittergutsbesitzers Knappe auf Alt-Storkow bei Nörenberg. Nachdem er sich im Pfarrhause zu Stargord bis zum September ej. a. zum ersten theologischen Examen vorbereitet, nahm er eine Hauslehrerstelle in dem mit Kindern reich gesegneten Pfarrhause zu Brietzig, Syn. Pyritz bei Pastor Heyns an, wo er bis zum April 1870 blieb, um hierauf seine erste theol. Prüfung in Stettin und den Seminarkurs in Cammin zu absolvieren. Nach dieser Zeit leitete er 2 1/2 Jahre lang eine Privatschule in Hammerstein i. Westpr., bestand die zweite theol. Prüfung in Stettin und ward Michaeli 1872 zum Pfarrer in Baldenburg i. Westpr. berufen. Zuvor aber empfing er am 17. September ej. a. durch den General-Superintendenten Moll in der Schloßkirche zu Königsberg i. Pr. die Weihe zum heil. Predigtamte.

Am 15. April 1877 übernahm er das Pfarramt in Rynarzewo bei Bromberg und im Oktober 1885 das Archidiakonat in Schleusingen in Thüringen.

Er hat im Jahre 1891 Alt-Testamentliche Predigten "Von Moses bis Maleachi" in Rich. Mühlmanns Verlagsbuchhandlung zu Halle a. S. (Inhaber Max Große) erscheinen lassen (II. Aufl. 1896) und an "Mancherlei gaben und Ein Geist" von Ohly mitgearbeitet.

Am 1. Oktober 1872 verheiratete er sich mit Clara Bergin, geb. 19. November 1853, Tochter des Kaufmanns und Färbereibesitzers Carl Bergin in Hammerstein, welche Ehe mit 4 Kindern (1 Sohn und 3 Töchtern) gesegnet ist:

1. Willibald Karl Albert, geb. in Baldenburg 22. December 1873 und get. 18. Januar 874 (durch seinen Onkel Heinrich K.). Er machte Ostern 1894 seine Abgangsprüfung in Schleusingen und hat die Rechte studiert: die ersten 3 Semester in Königsberg und 5 Semester in Berlin (St. A. 58); er arbeitet gegenwärtig in einem Bankgeschäft in Mannheim.
2. Elsbeth, Katharina Johanna, geb. zu Rynarzewo 21. März 1879 und get. 17. April ej. a. (durch Superintendent Plath-Schubin);

Clara Hulda Maria
Stiftsdame im Marienheim zu Marienfließ, Pomm.,
geb. 29. 3. 1846,
des Pastors em. Carl K. zweite Tochter, geb. zu Langenhagen 29. März 1846. Ihre Taufzeugen waren: 1. Herr von Mellenthin-Langenhagen, 2. Frl. Golcher-Büche und 3. ihr Onkel, Buchhalter Ed. Dörry. In ihrem selbst verfaßten Lebenslauf berichtet sie:

"Ich besuchte als Kind eine Zeit lang die Privatschule von Fräulein Radecke in Wollin, im übrigen aber meines Vaters Privatschule in Daber und Wangerin. Hier wurde ich von dem Superindentenden Lenz eingesegnet und reiste bald darauf nach Lauchstädt bei Woldenberg, wo der Halbbruder meiner Mutter Otto Dörry Pastor war.

Als ich nach 1/2 Jahre wieder zu meinen Eltern nach Wangerin heimkehrte, ward meine jüngste Schwester Hedwig geboren, welches Ereignis wir Geschwister sehr froh begrüßten und ein vergnügtes Tauffest feierten. Bald darauf ging ich auf ein Jahr zu Pastor Döhling nach Buchholz, zur Gesellschaft und zur Unterstützung der alten Frau Pastor.

Um aber die Welt etwas näher kennen zu lernen, wonach man sich als junges Mädchen oft sehnt, ging ich als Gesellschafterin zu einer Frau von Wedel-Fürstensee, bei welcher ich jedoch nur 1/2 Jahr gewesen bin, da ich schon längst den Wunsch hatte, Erzieherin zu werden.

Meine erste Stelle als solche fand ich in Mühlenbeck in der Familie des Kaufmanns Kastner, dessen beide Töchter ich 3 1/2 Jahre unterrichtet habe. Darnach bin ich in der Familie Herrlinger auf Brückenkrug einige Jahre als Erzieherin thätig gewesen, bis mich Krankheit nötigte, die Stelle aufzugeben. Zu meiner Erholung hielt ich mich 1/2 Jahr bei meinen lieben Geschwistern in Basenthin auf.

Im Jahre 1870 ging ich als Erzieherin zum Rittergutsbesitzer Hingst auf Seehof bei Regenwalde. Nach dem Verkauf seines Gutes zog er mit seiner Familie nach Regenwalde, wo damals meine Eltern wohnten. Dies währte jedoch nur ein Jahr. Dann übernahm er die Pachtung des Rittergutes Dorow, wo ich noch 1/2 Jahr die Kinder unterrichtet habe.

Ein Ruf nach Hammerstein machte meiner Thätigkeit in Dorow ein Ende; ich sollte meinen Bruder Albert in seiner Privatschule unterstützen und ihm den Haushalt besorgen. Auch hierzu gab der liebe Gott seinen Segen. Es war mir vergönnt, meinem Bruder eine Stütze zu sein, bis er eine Pfarre bekam, sich verheiratete und somit eine bessere Gehilfin fand.

Hierauf war ich 1 1/2 Jahre Erzieherin in der Familie des Herrn von Fritsche in Georgenhütte, später Almahütte bei Grünberg i. Schles.

Darnach führte mich mein Lebensweg nach dem schönen Thüringen, wo mir jedoch die Familien, in welchen ich zu unterrichten hatte, wenig sympathisch waren. Ich erfüllte deshalb gern die Bitte meines Bruders Heinrich in Naseband, zu ihm zu kommen und seine älteste Tochter Maria zu unterrichten. Dort bin ich 3 1/2 Jahre gewesen und habe bei meinen lieben Verwandten eine sehr schöne Zeit verlebt. Meine Nichte wurde nach Friedenshof bei Stettin in Pension gebracht, und ich ging nach Vorpommern zu Pastor Giesebrechts in Golschen, wo ich jedoch nur kurze zeit unterrichten konnte, da wiederum Krankheit meiner Thätigkeit ein Ende machte. Da habe ich 14 Monate der Ruhe gepflegt, war aber inzwischen einige Zeit in Hamburg, als Gesellschafterin einer Freundin.

Von dort heimkehrend, machte ich einen Besuch bei Pastor Giesebrechts, in deren Nähe ich im Hause des Oberamtmanns Wüstenberg Stellung fand, in dessen Familie ich über ein Jahr gewesen.

Meine letzte Stelle als Erzieherin aber war in Heidchen bei neumark in der Familie des Amtsrats Gründler, wo es mir sehr gut gefiel und ich mehrere Jahre geblieben.

So hat mich der liebe Gott mein bisheriges Leben sehr gnädig geführt, und ich habe viel Ursache, ihn dafür zu loben und zu preisen."

Cl. hat seit 1887, dienstunfähig geworden, eine Freistelle im Heimathause Marienheim zu Marienfließ i. Pom. erhalten.

Den ersten Unterricht erhielt er vom Vater. darnach besuchte er das Marienstifts-Gymnasium in Stettin. Doch ehe er die Abgangs-Prüfung machte, brach der deutsch-französische Krieg 1870/71 aus. Er machte denselben freiwillig mit, erkrankte aber während der Belagerung von Metz heftig an der Ruhr und lag längere Zeit im Krankenhaus zu Liegnit, von wo sein Bruder Hermann ihn nach Schellin holte.

Sobald er völlig genesen, wurde er zunächst zur Bewachung von Gefangenen nach Stettin commandiert und darnach auf den Kriegsschauplatz (Dijon) zurückgeschickt.

Nach beendigtem Kriege ging er in das Johannisstift bei Berlin, um sich daselbst zum Kolonisten-Prediger in Amerika ausbilden zu lassen. Da ihm jedoch das Anstaltsleben nicht zusagte, so trat er wieder aus und ist Kaufmann geworden.

Er verheiratete sich am 4. Juni 1897 mit Rosa Fernau, Tochter des Hoteliers F. in Colberg.

Pastor in Tonnien,
geb. 24. 4. 1855,
des Pastors em. Carl Kypke siebenter Sohn, geb. in Daber 24. April und get. 17. Mai 1855. Seine Taufzeugen waren: 1. Pastor Dieterich in Schönwalde, 2. Frl. Ida Dieterich und 3. Lehrer Zaar. Mit 13 Jahren kam er nach Stettin und zwar in die Quarta des Stadtgymnasiums, fand bald Aufnahme im Jageteuffelschen Kolleg und erhielt Freitische und Freischule. Als Primaner durchwanderte er zu Fuß die Inseln Usedom und Wollin.

Zu Ostern 1875 begab er sich nach Berlin, um Theologie zu studieren. Von Frl. Wegner in Stettin erhielt er für 7 Semester jährlich 675 M. Stipendien. Zu Weihnachten 1878 ging er als Hauslehrer nach Dorow in das Haus seines jetzigen Schwiegervaters Hingst, woselbst er 1 1/2 Jahre hindurch thätig war. Hierauf unterrichtete er noch 1/2 Jahr lang zwei Kinder des Gutspächters Kieck auf Schönwerder bei Prenzlau und ging dann Ostern 1881 nach Berlin zurück, um sein Jahr beim 2. Garde-Regiment zu Fuß abzudienen.

Im April d. Js. bestand er das I. theol. Examen in Stettin. Nach seiner Entlassung vom Militär mit der Qualifikation zum Reserve-Unteroffizier, nahm er am 1. Mai 1882 die Prädikantenstelle zu Neumark i. Pom. bei Superintendent Gruel an und bestand im November 1882 das II. theologische und das Staatsexamen in Stettin.

Am 7. Februar 1883 zum Amt geweiht, erhielt er am 18. Februar ej. a. die Pfarrstelle zu Groß-Borckenhagen, Syn Labes, am 1. April 1886 die zu Obernhagen, Synode Regenwalde und im October 1896 die zu Tonnien, Syn. Wollin.

Hier brannte am Sonntage nach Ostern 1897 in den Vormittagsstunden das Pfarrhaus ab. Das Feuer war durch einen Schornsteinbrand hervorgerufen. -

A. hat eine Broschüre über "Die Lösung der sozialen Frage" geschrieben.

Am 23. Februar 1883 verheiratete er sich mit Lucinde Rosalie Caroline Friederike Hingst, geb. 10. Anna Sophie Charlotte, Superintendent einer Augenklinik in Cincinnati, N.-A.,
geb. 11. 2. 1859,
das Pastors em. Carl K. vierte Tochter, geboren in Wollin 11 Februar 1859. Ihre Taufzeugen waren: 1. Sekretär Albert Parlitz, 2. Schiffskapitän Medenwald, 3. Frl. Marie Müller und 4. ihre Tante, Frau Apotheker Maria Dörry. Sie besuchte mit fünf Jahren die Schule bei Madame Müller in Regenwalde und lernte in 4 Wochen lesen. Mit 7 Jahren trat sie in die höhere Töchterschule von Frl. Weißenborn in Regenwalde ein und, als die Eltern nach Greifenberg übergesiedelt, seit October 1873 in die höhere Töchterschule von Frl. Vollgold, bis zu ihrer Einsegnung durch Superintendent Henckel am 21. März 1875; darnach besuchte sie noch die Präparandenschule von Frl Thomas.

In den Jahren 1876/77 unterrichtete sie die Kinder ihres Bruders Hermann in Schellin und 1878/79 die Kinder des Rittergutsbesitzers Henning auf Schwellin. Darnach hatte sie ihre erkrankte Schwester Clara in Golchen zu pflegen und zu vertreten. Im Jahre 1881 pflegte sie ihre Schwägerin Elise geb. Ribbeck in Schellin bis zu deren Tode am 11. September ej. a. Von da ab führte sie über drei Jahre ihrem verwitweten Bruder Hermann den Haushalt und unterrichtete dessen Kinder bis zu seiner Wiederverheiratung im December 1884.

Hierauf erlernte sie in Weimar die Krankenpflege und war als Schwester vom "roten Kreuz" im Landkrankenhause zu Jena thätig.

Im Jahre 1887 aber ging sie mit einer Freundin als Krankenpflegerin nach Cincinnati, Ohio, woselbst sie zwei Jahre Oberin des deutschen Diakonissen- und Krankenhauses war und wo sie seit 1891 Superintendent in der Augenklinik des Dr. med. Robert Sattler im Segen wirkt. Ihr Krankenhaus ist 208 bis 210 West Twelfth Street in Cincinnati gelegen.

Im Jahre 1893 machte sie mit ihrer dortigen Freundin, Schwester Marie Wiechers, einen Besuch in Deutschland, um hier die Diakonissen- und Krankenhäuser der "roten Kreuz-Schwestern" näher kennen zu lernen und mit ihnen in Verbindung zu treten.

Von ihren Kranken, welche sie gepflegt, ist aie aus Dankbarkeit oft angesungen worden.

Nach dem Jahresberichte der Augenklinik für 1899 sind seit Bestehen derselben (1891) im ganzen 17 099 Augenoperationen darin vorgenommen worden. Mit der Mehrzahl derselben hat Schwester Anna den Aerzten hilfreich zur Seite gestanden und über jede einzelne genau Buch geführt. Am Schlusse des jahresberichtes wird ihr gebührende Anerkennung gezollt, dahin lautend:

"Kein geringer Anteil an der erfolgreichen Arbeit, welche während des Jahres 1899 ausgeführt wurde, fällt der Oberin Frl. Anna Kypke und dem Kreise ihrer Gehilfinnen zu inbezug auf die Förderung der chirurgischen und klinischen Arbeit des Aerztekollegiums und die wirtschaftliche Leitung der Klinik, wie die ärmeren Abteilungen.".

DORRIEN MAGENS, Magens (? 1761-1849), of 10 Cavendish Square, Mdx. and Woodcot, Nettlebed, Oxon.
Carmarthen 1796 - 7 Nov. 1796
Ludgershall 7 May 1804 - Dec. 1812
b. ? 1761, 3rd s. of John Dorrien, merchant banker and E.I. Co dir., of 9 Billiter Square, London and Great Berkhamstead, Herts, by Anne, da. of Thomas Barwick, merchant, of St. Matthew, Friday Street, London m. 16 Dec. 1788. Hon. Henrietta Cecilia Rice, da. of George Rice* of Newtown. Carm., sis. of George Talbot Rice, 3rd Baron Dinevor, 1s. 4da. Took additional name of Magens by royal lic. 30 Sept. 1794.
Capt.-lt. East Grinstead vols. 1803.
Dep. chairman. Rock Life Assurance 1812, chairman 1814. 1818.
The Dorriens were of Hamburg merchant stock and settled in London in the early 18th century. Magens's father, John Dorrien, was a partner in the house of Dorrien and Mello of Billiter Square and in that of Boetefour, Dorrien & Co. of Old Jewry; from 1772 he was also a partner in the bank of Dorrien, Rucker and Carlton of 22 Finch Lane, Cornhill. On his death in 1784 Magens, who was left over £ 13,000 and an estate at Brightlingsen that had belonged to his uncle Nicholas Magens the army contractor (d.1764). became a partner in the bank, subsequently known as Dorriens, Mello, Martin and Harrison. He remained associated with it until its amalgamation with Curries' in 1842 1. The bank offered to raise the Prussian subsidy in 1794 2 and subscribed £ 40.000 to the loyalty loan for 1797. His younger brother George was a director of the Bank of England for most of this period.
Magens owed his political debut to his wife's family, the Dinevors, who encouraged him to offer both for the borough and county of Carmarthen in 1796. The latter was a forlorn hope, but he was at first successful in the borough election, only to be unseated on petition. Had he held the seat, it would have been as locum tenens for the first available member of the Dinevor family. 3 By the time he found another seat, in 1804, he had written a pamphlet on the coinage. (His name is still given to the rare silver shilling of 1798.) This time he was returned unopposed on Viscount Sydney's interest, his brother-in-law, Lord Dinevor having married Sydney's daughter.

Magens was listed a supporter of Pitt's second ministry in September 1804 and July 1805. His interest in the silver coinage prompted his first contributions to debate. 27, 29 Mar. 1805, and he opposed the Irish silver tokens bill, because he regarded tokens as little better than paper money and no substitute for the restoration of a silver coinage, 3 May. He was also interested in the linen trade, 7 May 1805. and on 9 June 1806 opposed the linen drawback bill. He supported the Grenville ministry's repeal of Pitt's Additional Force Act, 30 Apr. 1806, and was listed friendly to their abolition of the slave trade, but voted against them on the Hampshire election petition, 13 Feb. 1807. On 22 Apr. 1807 he was teller against the prosecution of a resident of Penryn for election irregularities. He was well disposed to the Portland administration, to whom Lord Dinevor applied on his behalf for a baronetcy. On 10 Aug. 1807 he was a spokesman for the West India sugar planters. 4 On 15 June 1808 he opposed the taxation of foreign investors in the funds. He defended the oyster fishery protection bill, a question in which his Essex property gave him an interest, 22 June 1808.

Magens rallied to Perceval's ministry on the address, 23 Jan., and on the Scheldt question, 26 Jan., 23 Feb., 5. 30 Mar. 1810. The Whigs listed him 'Government' at that time. He voted against sinecure reform and against parliamentary reform, 17. 21 May 1810. He sided with ministers on the Regency, 1 Jan. 1811. But he spoke only on the currency problem: he had promised the House to do so. 1 Feb. 1810, and, on the report of the bullion committee, 13 May 1811, announced, as a select committeeman, that he agreed with the chairman as to the depreciation of paper currency and wished to see cash payments resumed as early as possible. On 10 Apr. 1812 he opposed the bank-note bill, at being likely 'to throw the country into a state of instability'. He was a die-hard opponent of Catholic relief, 22 June 1812.

Magens was elected to but did not take his seat in the Parliament of 1812, his patron having sold his interest in the seat. He was never again in the House. He died 30 May 1849, aged 87. 5

Gott dem Besten und Größten, geweiht und dem immerwährenden Andenken an Johann Barthold Niemeier, den höchst vortrefflichen Doktor der Philosophie sowie der Theologie, den fleißigen Professor und hochachtbaren Senior der Universität. Geboren in St. Andreasberg im Jahre 1644, widmete er sich eifrig den schönen Wissenschaften und den höheren Studien und lehrte darauf dreiunddreißig Jahre lang mit Einsatz und großer Anerkennung an dieser Julia Philosophie und Theologie. Endlich, mitten in frommen Meditationen vom tödlichen Schlagfluß getroffen, gab er seine Seele Christus zurück im Jahre 1708 am 8. Mai. Ihm ließ die tieftraurige Witwe Sophie Elisabeth Stisser dieses Denkmal errichten.

Gebühr: ob pauprttatem gratis inscriptus

Im Oktober 1760 wird er auf der Universität Bützow immatrikuliert und dabei "Schwarzburgicus" genannt, welcher "ob Paupertatem gratis inscriptus" wird. Er lebte dann in Güstrow, wo er mit dem herzoglichen Advocaten Rützow eng befreundet gewesen ist. Im Jahre 1761 bewirbt er sich um die Kantorstelle am städtischen Gymnasium zu Friedland. Er ist dort auch angestellt worden und hat die Stelle bis zu seinem Tode innegehabt.

Teil 2 - Urkunden - Seite 196/197
Anmerkung. Die Güte des Herrn Dr. Reinhold Pauli, welcher die Abschriften mehrere hier abgedruckter Documente mir mitgetheilt hat, verdanke ich auch die folgenden Auszüge:
1. Indentur vom 9. Februar 1702, 1. Annae Re., worin auf Grund der Letters patent, und da die anderen Feoffees gestorben, dem Theodore Jacobson und folgenden Genossen dieselben Rechte übermacht werden: Henry Jacobsen, Jacob Jacobsen, party to theis presents, george Ludewig Duntze, Clement Boehm, Peter Meier, Henry Ulken, Henry Sperling, Andrew Heidtricker, {\b {\i Hermann Friederich Dorrien}}, John Henry Verpoorten, Johann Henrich Boock, George Stehn, Henry Erichs and Johan Jacob von Strassen.

2. Dieselben sind Trustees der Kirche und Theodor Jacobsen ihr Praesident; sie unterzeichnen sämmtlich eigenhändig eine darüber in deutscher Sprache ausgestellte Ordnung vom 1. July 1703, wonach an jedem Donnerstage nach dem 25. März, 24. Juny, 29. September und am 25. December eine allgemeine Versammlung Statt finden soll.

3. Indentur vom 20. December 1762. 3. George III., worin auf Grund der Letters patent und drei früherer Indenturen die Rechte der Kaufleute bestätigt werden. Die zweite und dritte Indentur finde ich nicht, wohl aber werden in der gegenwärtigen ihre Contrahenten aufgeführt:
Indenture bearing date tbe fifth Day of September 1729 and made between the said Jacob Jacobsen by the name of Sir Jacob Jacobsen, Knight, Clement Boehm and Henry Sperling of London, Merchants, {\b {\i Herman Frederick Dorrien of Hamburgh, Merchant}}, Johan Henrick Boock and George Stehn of London, Merchants, of the one part, and Martin Ludolph of London, Merchant, of the other part ... reciting that the said (folgen die Trustees von 1702) were all dead and that the said Sir Jacob Jacobsen, Henry Sperling aad George Stehn had declined acting in the said trust. And further reciting a decree of the High Court of of Chancery made the fifteenth day of May 1705 in two causes, wherein the then Attorney General at the relation of Theodore Jacobsen and others was plaintiff and John Esdras Edzardi and others were defendants. Et e contra (it was amongst other things) ordered, that the Trustees and Assignees then assigned unto and all others, that should by the Consistory or Vestry afler that time be chosen to be assignees, should act in the said trost by the consent of the said Consistory or Vestry. And reciting that the Consistory had been agreeably assembled on the seventeenth day of January then last past and had nominated, appointed and chosen the said Clement Boehm, {\b {\i Herman Frederick Dorien}} and Johan Frederick Boock, three of the former trustees, partys to the said recited indenture, and had also chosen and added Christian Colebrant, John Baptist Mayer (in the said indenture wrote John Baptist Meyer), Henry Vognell, John Luttman, John Janssen, John Christian, Herman Anthony Lutkens, George Christian Luders, Cornelius Pagenstecher, John Jacob Heldt and {\b {\i Abraham Boetefeur}}, all of London Merchants, and Peter Meyer of London Esquire to be trustees etc. - Von diesen übertragen die Ueberlebenden ihre Rechte an Martin Ludolph.
Indenture bearing date 8. December 1743 ... between the said John Baptist Meyer, Henry Vognell, John Lutman, Anthony Lutkens, George Christian Luders and John Jacob Heldt and Peter Meyer of the one part, and Libert Wolters of London, Merchant, of the other part, and also reciting etc. (das Vorhergebende) .... had nominated etc. the said Henry Vognell, Anthony Lutkens, John Jacob Heldt and Peter Meyer, four of the former trustees and bave also chosen and added George Kruger, Lucas Steinman, Luder Mello, Anthony Fürstenau, {\b {\i Libert Dorrien}}, Nicholas Magens, John Mackelcan, Paul Amsinck, George Christian Luders and Jobn Luttman etc. - Anstatt der beiden letztern werden späterhin erwähnt: Vincent Guaden, Henry Hemmers and Henry Voght.
