To the Hon. J. E. N. Ray, Judge of the Probate Court of Shelby County, Tenn.

Your petitioner, Elisabeth Melsi, administratrix on the Estate of her late husband, Valentine Melsi, would respectfully represent and show unto your Honor, that out of the fund belonging to the said estate, she has purchased for the benefit of herself and her children, the issue of the marriage between herself and said Valentine, the following real estate, situate and described as follows: ~~That~~ A certain lot or piece of land situate and being near the City of Memphis, County of Shelby and State of Tennessee, and bounded as follows, to wit: Beginning at a stake on the North line of W. old State line Road, at the southwest corner of a forty feet street laid off by S. W. Jefferson, through his five acre lot, thence west with the north line of the old state line road forty feet to a stake, thence northwardly at right angle to the old State line road one hundred and fifty feet to a stake, thence eastwardly forty feet parallel with the old state line road to a stake, then southwardly one hundred and fifty feet to the beginning corner, and the same being lot No. 1 as laid down upon a plat of subdivision of S. W. Jefferson's five acre lot, with all improvements thereon, for all of which she paid the sum of Two thousand and three hundred dollars. ~~That~~ The deed of the purchased lot is recorded in the Register's office of said Shelby County, in Book No. 97, page 598. - Your humble petitioner and her sureties on her Administration-bond considering the purchase a very desirable and good investment of <sup>the</sup> said funds of the said estate and it has proven to be so as it has <sup>materially aided</sup> ~~given ample~~ <sup>her</sup> means to make a honest living for the support of herself and her children.

The premises considered your petitioners respectfully asks your honor to approve of the said action and allow her to charge the estate with the purchase money in her settlement, as she has paid all honest debts of the estate presented to her for payment.

Very respectfully

Your Petitioner respectfully represents to your Honor that her husband Valentine Malis late a citizen of Memphis Shelby County departed this life on the 22nd day of July A. D. 1892 leaving personal estate amounting to about ($3500) Three thousand Five Hundred Dollars, which consists of a Policy on his life for ($2000<sup>00</sup>) in the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Co of Va, One thousand Dollars deposited in the German Natl. Bank of Memphis, and a Pothery including utensils and Machinery, and debts due him amounting to about ($500) Five Hundred Dollars. Out of which Your petitioner is informed that she is entitled to a years support for her self and family. Premises

Hon J. E. S. Gray Judge of the Probate Court of Shelby County Tennessee,

Your Petitioner

widow of Valentine Malsi respectfully states to your Honor that said Valentine Malsi was a citizen of Memphis Shelby County Tennessee that he departed this life on the 27th day of July A. D. 1872. intestate, leaving an estate - Personal Property - worth about (3500<sup>00</sup>) Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars. Out of which your Petitioner is informed, she is entitled to a year support for herself and children of Petitioner. She further states that Adam Hines, John Dettlinger, and John Gengel are citizens and freeholders of Memphis freeholders

Malsi

To the Hon. J. S. R. Ray, Judge of the Probate Court Shelby County, Tenn.

Your petitioner, Elisabeth Malsi, widow of the late Valentin Malsi, would respectfully represent and show unto your Honor, that at the August Term of 1872, Adam Hinc, John Duttlinger and John Geugel ~~were appointed~~, three freeholders of this County, were appointed Commissioners to set apart to said Elisabeth Malsi and family one years support allowance out property left of the Estate of Valentin Malsi, dec'd. But that said Commissioners have failed to report and have since died. She therefore respectfully asks your Honor, that Wm. Miller, Paul Tighe and and Judge ~~J. S. R. Ray~~ <sup>W. H. H. H.</sup> be appointed commissioners instead of the above named J. Duttlinger, Adam Hinc and John Geugel for the purpose as above indicated, as she will ever pray, etc.

Estate of said Valentine, to John Wendlandt the sum of twelve dollars ($12.00) for paid bill, knowing it to be a just debt against the Estate of said Valentine Malzi, dec'd. — She further states that the receipt for the payment of said bill has either been lost or mislaid, <sup>during the last few days</sup> she therefore not being able to produce the same. Affidavit further states that said John Wendlandt has since died, to wit: in the fall of 1873, she is therefore not able to procure a duplicate of said receipt, as the executor of said John Wendlandt is not aware of the said payment.
