to the use of them my said brothers and their heirs or children during his life or their minority. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventeen. John Dorrien Signed sealed published and declared by the said testator John Dorrien as and for his last will and Testament in the presence of us who in the presence at his request and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses Wm Donville Edw. Alderson Rob. Johnson Sincerus Jun

John Dorrien have made a will dated the fifth day of December 1817. Now I add this in my own handwriting as a Codicil to the said will. Although my dear wife will take all possible care of my son after my decease yet I think it right towards him (and I find it to be agreeable to her wish also) that some immediate provision shall be made for him besides his ^{future} ordinary maintenance. Therefore hereby give and bequeath to him my said son Charles Dorrien whatever property or money he possesses of at the time of my decease in the 3rd of St. James's government stock or funds and also in like manner all my shares in the St. James's Insurance Company. John Dorrien Sarant House 2 January 1818
